Treacherous Texts Mary Chapman, Angela Mills, 2011 Although the suffrage campaign is often associated in popular memory with oratory this anthology affirms that suffragists recognized early on that literature could also exert a power to move readers to imagine new roles for women in the public sphere Beginning with sentimental fiction and polemic progressing through modernist and middlebrow experiment and concluding with post ratification memoirs and tributes this anthology showcases lost and neglected fiction poetry drama literary journalism and autobiography it also samples innovative print cultural forms devised for the campaign such as valentines banners and cartoons Featured writers include canonical figures such as Stowe Fern Alcott Gilman Djuna Barnes Marianne Moore Millay Sui Sin Far and Gertrude Stein as well as writers popular in their day but until now lost to ours Publisher

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective Kim's ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium Through Kim's eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation Ronald J Allen Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th Miller Professor of Preaching and New Testament Christian Theological Seminary Indianapolis Indiana Kim's exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world Those churches that continue to deny women s preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co workers in the liberative work of God Cliff Guthrie Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies Bangor Theological Seminary Bangor Maine
