Anna Kingsley:

Anna Madgigine Jai Kingsley Daniel L. Schafer, 2018-03-01 Anna Kingsley's life story adds a dramatic chapter to histories of the South the state of Florida and the African Diaspora Both an American slave and a slaveowner and possibly an African princess Anna was captured as a teenager in Senegal in 1806 and sold into slavery Zephaniah Kingsley Jr a planter and slave trader from Spanish East Florida bought her in Havana and took her to his St Johns River plantation where she soon became his household manager his wife and eventually the mother of four of his children

Zephaniah Kingsley Jr. and the Atlantic World Daniel L. Schafer, 2013-11-12 Florida Book Awards Silver Medal for Florida Nonfiction Florida Historical Society Charlton Tebeau Award Florida Historical Society Stetson Kennedy Award A biography of a controversial patriarch of a mixed race family A controversial figure for his views on manumission and his unorthodox marital arrangements Zephaniah Kingsley Jr 1765 1843 is mostly known today for his Fort George Island plantation in Duval County Florida now a National Park Service site and for his 1828 pamphlet A Treatise on the Patriarchal System of Society that advocated just and humane treatment of enslaved persons liberal emancipation policies and granting rights to free persons of color Paradoxically his fortune came from the purchase sale and labor of enslaved Africans In this penetrating biography Daniel Schafer vividly chronicles Kingsley's evolving thoughts on race and slavery exploring his business practices and his private life Kingsley fathered children by several enslaved women then freed and lived with them in a unique mixed race family One of the women the only one he acknowledged as his wife though they were never formally married was Anta Madgigine Ndiaye Anna Kingsley a member of the Senegalese royal family who was captured in a slave raid and purchased by Kingsley in Havana Cuba

Speaking for the Enslaved Antoinette T Jackson, 2016-06-16 Focusing on the agency of enslaved Africans and their descendants in the South this work argues for the systematic unveiling and recovery of subjugated knowledge histories and cultural practices of those traditionally silenced and overlooked by national heritage projects and national public memories Jackson uses both ethnographic and ethnohistorical data to show the various ways African Americans actively created and maintained their own heritage and cultural formations Viewed through the lens of four distinctive plantation sites including the one on which that the ancestors of First Lady Michelle Obama lived everyday acts of living learning and surviving profoundly challenge the way American heritage has been constructed and represented A fascinating critical view of the ways culture history social policy and identity influence heritage sites and the business of heritage research management in public spaces
