Anna Karenina Backgrounds And Sources Criticism:

Anna Karenina graf Leo Tolstoy,1995 The Architecture of Anna Karenina Elisabeth Stenbock-Fermor,1975

When criticized about the lack of architecture in Anna Karenina connecting the themes of Levin and Anna Karenina Tolstoj disagreed The arches of the vault are brought together in such a way that it is even impossible to notice where the keystone is This book explores the architecture attempting to trace the pattern of the invisible pillars that support the arches on both side of the vault leading to the discovery of the keystone which Tolstoj tried so hard to keep invisible Dostoevsky's The

Idiot Liza Knapp,1998 This book is designed to guide readers through Dostoevsky s The Idiot first published in 1869 and generally considered to be his most mysterious and confusing work Tolstoi and the Evolution of His Artistic World

,2021-08-09 Joe Andrew and Robert Reid assemble thirteen analytical discussions of Tolstoi s key works written by leading scholars from around the world The works studied cover almost the entire length of Tolstoi s creative career from some of his earliest stories of the 1850s The Sevastopol Stories to those of his last period including posthumous publications The Kreutzer Sonata and Father Sergius Particular attention is paid to his two masterpieces War and Peace and Anna Karenina All the studies are based on the most recent developments in cultural theory The reader of this work will gain new and unique insights into this unparalleled genius of world literature especially into the methods used to create the works that retain immense importance for us today Contributors Joe Andrew Eric de Haard Rose France Helena Goscilo Jane Gary Harris Katalin Kro Irina Makoveeva Deborah Martinsen Robin Feuer Miller Robin Milner Gulland Audun M rch Donna Tussing Orwin Olga Sobolev Diane Oenning Thompson Erotic Faith Robert M. Polhemus,1995-03 In this profoundly original and far reaching study Robert M Polhemus shows how novels have helped to make erotic love a matter of faith in modern life Erotic faith Polhemus argues is an emotional conviction ultimately religious in nature that meaning value hope and even the possibility of transcendence can be found in love Drawing on a wide range of disciplines Polhemus shows the reciprocity of love as subject the novel as form and faith as motive in important works by Jane Austen Walter Scott the Bront s Dickens George Eliot Trollope Thomas Hardy Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett Throughout Polhemus relates the novelists representation of love to that of such artists as Botticelli Vermeer Claude Lorrain Redon and Klimt Juxtaposing their paintings with nineteenth and twentieth century texts both reveals the ways in which novels develop and individualize common erotic and religious themes and illustrates how the novel has influenced our perception of all art

Estrangement and the Somatics of Literature Douglas Robinson,2008-04-28 Drawing together the estrangement theories of Viktor Shklovsky and Bertolt Brecht with Leo Tolstoy s theory of infection Douglas Robinson studies the ways in which shared evaluative affect regulates both literary familiarity convention and tradition and modern strategies of alienation depersonalization and malaise This book begins with two assumptions both taken from Tolstoy s late aesthetic treatise What Is Art 1898 that there is a malaise in culture and that literature s power to infect readers with the moral values of the author is a possible cure for this malaise Exploring these ideas of estrangement within the contexts of earlier contemporary and later critical theory Robinson argues that Shklovsky and Brecht follow Tolstoy in their efforts to fight depersonalization by imbuing readers with the transformative guidance of collectivized feeling Robinson's somatic approach to literature offers a powerful alternative to depersonalizing structuralist and poststructuralist theorization without simply retreating into conservative rejection and reaction Both a comparative study of Russian and German literary theoretical history and an insightful examination of the somatics of literature this groundbreaking work provides a deeper understanding of how literature affects the reader and offers a new perspective on present day problems in poststructuralist approaches to the human condition

Leo Tolstoy John Bayley,1997 John Bayley concentrates in this short introductory study on Tolstoy's two great works and the ancillary texts and tales that relate to them

Framing Anna Karenina Amy Mandelker,1993 Mandelker's revisionist analysis begins with the contention that Anna Karenina rejects the textual conventions of realism and the stereo typical representation of women especially in Victorian English fiction In Anna Karenina Tolstoy uses the theme of art and visual representation to articulate an aesthetics freed from gender bias and class discrimination

Art in Doubt Tatyana Gershkovich,2022-10-15 Leo Tolstoy's and Vladimir Nabokov's radically opposed aesthetic worldviews emanate from a shared intuition that approaching a text skeptically is easy but trusting it is hard Two figures central to the Russian literary tradition Tolstoy the moralist and Nabokov the aesthete seem to have sharply conflicting ideas about the purpose of literature Tatyana Gershkovich undermines this familiar opposition by identifying a shared fear at the root of their seemingly antithetical aesthetics that one's experience of the world might be entirely one's own private and impossible to share through art Art in Doubt Tolstoy Nabokov and the Problem of Other Minds reconceives the pair's celebrated fiction and contentious theorizing as coherent lifelong efforts to reckon with the problem of other people's minds Gershkovich demonstrates how the authors shared yearning for an impossibly intimate knowledge of others formed and deformed their fiction and brought them through parallel logic to their rival late styles Tolstoy's rustic simplicity and Nabokov's baroque complexity Unlike those authors for whom the skeptical predicament ends in absurdity or despair Tolstoy and Nabokov both hold out hope that skepticism can be overcome not by force of will but with the right kind of text one designed to withstand our impulse to doubt it Through close readings of key canonical works Anna Karenina The Kreutzer Sonata Hadji Murat The Gift Pale Fire this book brings the twin titans of Russian fiction to bear on contemporary debates about how we read now and how we ought to
