The Development of Russian Evangelical Spirituality Gregory L. Nichols, 2011-11-09 Today many evangelicals in the Russian speaking world emphasize sanctification as a distinctive mark of their Christian faith This is a unique characteristic particularly in the European context Their historic tapestry has been woven from a number of threads that originated in the second half of the nineteenth century Missionary efforts of the German Baptists a revival sparked by a British evangelist and a pietistic awakening among the Mennonites in the South converged to form a tapestry that displays Protestant Baptist and Anabaptist heritage Ivan Kargel uniquely participated in the formation and ministry of each of these threads His life spans from Tsarist Russia to the Soviet Union Kargel refused to adhere to a systematic view of theology Instead he urged believers to go to Scripture and draw from the riches of a life united with Christ Kargel's influence today is keenly felt across the Russian speaking evangelical world as they seek to identify the roots of their spiritual identity This book examines the influences on Ivan Kargel and offers insights into how his life and work are expressed in the tapestry of Russian evangelical spirituality
