Stories from the Camera Michele M. Penhall, 2016-03-15 The remarkable photography collection of the University of New Mexico Art Museum owes its unique character and quality to the directors curators scholars and artists who have taught worked and studied at the museum and in the university s Department of Art and Art History In this indispensable book these distinguished scholars and artists reflect on the pictures from the collection that hold significance to them Through their own professional and artistic practice they represent different generations of aesthetic voices and intellectual directions As one of the earliest collegiate institutions to begin collecting photography the University of New Mexico Art Museum holds a stunning array of images that span photography's 175 year history In addition to iconic works by famous photographers this book also features less familiar but equally masterful pictures Together these essays represent a unique history of photography and this renowned museum

The Victorian Idyll in Art and Literature Thomas Hughes, Emma Merklings, 2023-12-29 Resonating with contemporary ecological and queer theory this book pioneers the theorization of the Victorian idyll establishing its nature lineaments and significance as a formal mode widely practised in nineteenth century British culture across media and genre Chapters trace the Victorian idyll's emergence in the 1830s its flourishing in the 1860s and its evolution up to the century's close drawing attention to the radicalism of idyllic experiments with pictorial photographic dramatic literary and poetic form in the work of canonical and lesser known figures Approaching the idyll through three intersecting categories subject ecology and form this book remaps Victorian culture reshaping thinking about artistic form in the nineteenth century and recalibrating accepted chronologies In the representations by a host of Victorian artists and writers engaging with other than human forms and in the natures of the subjectivities animated by these encounters we find versions of Victorian ecology providing provocative imaginative material for ecocritics scholars writers and artists today This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history English literature Victorian studies British history queer and trans theory musicology and ecocriticism and will enliven debates pertaining to the environmental across periods

Littell's Living Age, 1898 Housing Capital Simone Derix, Margareth Lanzinger, 2017-10-23 Throughout history houses have been an economic resource as much as a means of social political and cultural agency From the early modern period to the 20th century the multifaceted capital of houses linked individuals families and societies in specific ways The essays collected here probe the material texture of past societies concerning the inheritance value sale or maintenance of houses as well as the symbolic meanings that houses conveyed

The Romance of a Shop Amy Levy, 2006-03-28 The Romance of a Shop is an early New Woman novel about four sisters who decide to establish their own photography business and their own home in central London after their father's death and their loss of financial security In this novel Amy Levy examines both the opportunities and dangers of urban experience for women in the late nineteenth century who pursue independent work rather than follow the established paths of domestic service By outfitting her characters as photographers Levy emphasizes the importance of the gendered gaze in this narrative of the modern city This Broadview edition prints for the first time since the 1880s Levy's essay on Christina Rossetti and a short story set in North London both published in Oscar Wilde's magazine The Woman's World Other appendices include poetry by Levy Michael Field Dollie Radford and A Mary F Robinson and essays on Victorian photography literary realism the woman question at the end of the nineteenth century and the plight of women working in London Victorian Celebrity Culture and Tennyson's Circle C. Boyce, P. Finnerty, A. Millim, 2013-10-31 Tennyson experienced at first hand the all pervasive nature of celebrity culture It caused him to retreat from the eyes of the world This book delineates Tennyson s reluctant celebrity and its effects on his writings on his coterie of famous and notable friends and on the ever expanding media led circle of Tennyson s admirers Julia Margaret Cameron Virginia Woolf, Julia Margaret Cameron, Roger Fry, 2018-10-30 Bringing together three of the most important early writings about Julia Margaret Cameron her own autobiographical fragment Annals of My Glass House the biographical essay by Virginia Woolf and the pathbreaking appreciation by Roger Fry this book is essential for anyone interested in Victorian culture and photography It is being published to coincide with the 200th anniversary of her birth the 150th anniversary of her most extensive exhibition and two major new exhibitions Julia Margaret Cameron at the Victoria Albert Museum and Art and Photography from the Pre Raphaelites to the Modern Age at Tate Britain Illustrated with over 40 of Julia Margaret Cameron s greatest photographs and with an introduction and notes by Tristram Powell Modern Women: Women Artists at The Museum of Modern Art Alexandra Schwartz, 2010 This text examines the collection of feminist art in the Museum of Modern Art It features essays presenting a range of generational and cultural perspectives Studios of Their Own Alex Johnson, 2024-09-17 Studios of Their Own travels around the world examining the unique spaces habits and rituals of over 50 famous artists From Picasso to Hockney to Caravaggio discover the eclectic creative spaces used by artistic visionaries brought to life with evocative illustrations Crossing centuries continents and genres Alex Johnson explores these artists workspaces and habits How do they practise their craft What do they look for in a studio Do they work in silence or with music in a shared space or in solitude How do they harness the light And how do their physical spaces affect and inspire their output This striking collection focuses on more than 50 international artists including Claude Monet who created an inspirational garden in which to work en plein air and paint his famous water lilies Frida Kahlo forced to work from her bed inspired by the lucky talismans she surrounded herself with Jean Michel Basquiat working in an old stable could turn anything into canvas walking and lying on his works as he created them Lee Krasner s art dramatically changed when she moved from her small studio into the larger light filled one that she took over when her husband Jackson Pollock died In looking at the working lives of our favourite artists readers will be transported to other worlds as well as gaining a deeper insight into the creative process Also in the series Rooms of Their Own Where Great Writers Write Julia Margaret Cameron Julian Cox, Colin Ford, 2003-03-20 According to one of Julia Margaret Cameron s great nieces we never knew what Aunt Julia was going to do next nor did anyone else This is an accurate summation of the life of the British photographer 1815 1879 who took up the camera at age forty eight and made more than twelve hundred images during a fourteen year career Living at the height of the Victorian era Cameron was anything but conventional experimenting with the relatively new medium of photography promoting her own art through exhibition and sale and pursuing the eminent personalities of her age Alfred Tennyson Charles Darwin Thomas Carlyle and others as subjects for her lens For the first time all known images by Cameron one of the most important nineteenth century artists in any medium are gathered together in a catalogue raisonné In addition to a complete catalogue of Cameron's photographs there is information on her life and times initial experiments artistic aspirations techniques small format images albums commercial strategies sitters and sources of inspiration Also provided are a selected bibliography of publications on Cameron a list of exhibitions of her work held both in her time as well as our own and a summary of important collections where her pictures can be found

The Darkroom

Anne Marsh, 2003 Anne Marsh's treatise on the art of photography traces its theoretical underpinning from the early debates between the rationalists and the fantasists through psychoanalytical interpretations to the theatre of desire She investigates the role of photography in ghostly performances the masking of desire and high camp aesthetics through to performance art and the role of the photographer as a gender terrorist as in the work of Del LaGrace Volcano The study concludes with notable examples of postmodern photography as they have occurred in the Australian context This ground breaking work by a leading Monash University academic will interest all students of photography and followers of recent trends in art and art theory

Crafting Feminism from Literary Modernism to the Multimedia Present Amy E. Elkins, 2022 Crafting Feminism develops a dynamic study of craft and art making in modern and contemporary feminist writing In evocative readings of literary works from Virginia Woolf to Zadie Smith this book expands our sense of transartistic modernist scholarship to encompass process oriented and medium specific analyses of textile arts digital design collage photography painting and sculpture in literary culture By integrating these craft practices into the book's enlightening archive Elkins's theoretical argument extends a reading of craft metaphors into the material present Crafting Feminism demonstrates how writers have engaged with handiwork across generations and have undertaken the crafting of a new modernity one that is queer and feminist threaded messy shattered cut up pasted together preserved repaired reflected and spun out An avant garde work of scholarship this book interweaves queer research methods and interdisciplinary rigor with a series of surprising archival discoveries Making visible the collaborative creative features of craft Elkins captivates readers with generous illustrations and a series of Techné interchapters interludes between longer chapters which powerfully convey the symbiosis between feminist theory and method and detail the network of archival influences that underpin this volume's hybrid approach Foregrounding the work of decentering patriarchal and Eurocentric legacies of artistic authority Elkins champions the diverse intergenerational history of craft as a way to reposition intersectional makers at the heart of literary culture An original and compelling study Crafting Feminism breaks new ground in modernist and visual studies digital humanities and feminist queer and critical race theory

Photography and the Art of Chance

Robin Kelsey, 2015-05-26 As anyone who has wielded a camera knows photography has a unique relationship to chance It also represents a struggle to reconcile aesthetic aspiration with a mechanical process Robin Kelsey reveals how daring innovators expanded the aesthetic limits of photography in order to create art for a modern world Strange Sisters Francesca Orestano, 2009 This collection of essays stems from the conference Nineteenth Century Literature and Aesthetics which was held at the University of Milan in 2006 and organised by the editors of this volume The interface between word and image covered in these essays embraces the fields of literature architecture painting photography music and art criticism The authors stress the role of aesthetics in a number of contexts ranging from the early 1830s to the fin de siècle and beyond as far as the last influences of Victorian taste on the early years of the twentieth century During the nineteenth century the ancient interaction between literature and aesthetics was challenged and criticised by Martineau Rossetti Ruskin Pater Wilde Beardsley Cameron and Carroll among others their awareness of the complexity of visual perception problematised the existing categories of realism artistic conventions discourse of description translation and representation The essays cover almost a century of debate between literature and aesthetics They focus on the intersection of word and image by emphasising transgressions in art hierarchies forms and languages which restyle existing categories and project them into new aesthetic dimensions beyond the conventional idea of the sister arts
