Two years ago, I would have bet a bazillion dollars I would never read a girl's book. But at 71 years of age, I found myself in a house full of books, only one of which I had not read. I am terribly addicted to reading, so in desperation, I started Anne of Green Gables. It is a marvelous book with a main character I wish I could meet every day in real life. Again, to feed my addiction, I bought the Anne of Green Gables series. Each book was a delight, and I soon forgot that they were girls' books. Maud created a character we all need in our life. She turns the mundane magical and believable. Reading them all in nearly a continuous setting makes Anne wearying, to quote Marilla, since unbounded child-like wonder is hard to maintain. I wish I had read these books decades ago so Anne could have helped me through some less-than-happy times. Anne of Green Gables L. M.
