Citizenship Education in Germany Stephanie Wilde, 2004-01-01 This volume focuses on cross curricular and extra curricular activities within the broader context of citizenship education in secondary schools in Germany It sets out the background and history of citizenship education in Germany before moving on to selected case studies of specific activities in secondary schools in different federal states in eastern and western Germany These case studies focus on activities centred on two main topics intercultural education and the National Socialist period in Germany These activities are not part of formal schooling but rather represent examples of young people and teachers engaging in citizenship education beyond the classroom or in a positive sense not doing it by the book Jews and Jewish Education in Germany Today Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Olaf Glöckner, Yitzhak Sternberg, 2011-02-14 In the context of their recent dispersion Russian speaking Jews have become the vast majority of Germany's longstanding Jewry An entity marked by permeable boundaries they show commitment to world Jewry including Israel but feeble identification with their hosts While Jewish singularity is understood here more as belonging than believing Jewish education is viewed as a must The Life of Anne Frank Laura Saari, 2022-10-29 Who was Anne Frank Why is she famous What happened to her This book is a perfect introduction for young readers to the life and diary of Anne Frank The topics covered include Anne's family history the rise of Nazism her time in hiding and what she wrote about in her famous diary Anne Frank's inspiring and important story is told in a concise and touching manner that is accessible to all Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff, 2022-12-06 In Making German Jewish Literature Anew Katja Garloff traces the emergence of a new Jewish literature in Germany and Austria from 1990 to the present The rise of new generations of authors who identify as both German and Jewish and who often sustain additional affiliations with places such as France Russia or Israel affords a unique opportunity to analyze the foundational moments of diasporic literature Making German Jewish Literature Anew is structured around a series of founding gestures performing authorship remaking memory and claiming places Garloff contends that these founding gestures are literary strategies that reestablish the very possibility of a German Jewish literature several decades after the Holocaust Making German Jewish Literature Anew offers fresh interpretations of second generation authors such as Maxim Biller Doron Rabinovici and Barbara Honigmann as well as of third generation authors many of whom come from Eastern European and or mixed religion backgrounds These more recent writers include Benjamin Stein Lena Gorelik and Katja Petrowskaja Throughout the book Garloff asks what exactly marks a given text as Jewish the author's identity intended audience thematic concerns or stylistic choices and reflects on existing definitions of Jewish literature The Diary of a Anne Frank Anne Frank, 1999-07 Journal of a Jewish teenager describes the joys and torments of daily life and typical adolescent thoughts throughout two years spent in hiding with her family during the Nazi occupation of Holland The International status of education about the Holocaust Carrier, Peter, Fuchs, Eckhardt, Messinger, Torben, Georg Eckert

Institute for International Textbook Research (Germany),2015-01-14 How do schools worldwide treat the Holocaust as a subject In which countries does the Holocaust form part of classroom teaching Are representations of the Holocaust always accurate balanced and unprejudiced in curricula and textbooks This study carried out by UNESCO and the Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research compares for the first time representations of the Holocaust in school textbooks and national curricula Drawing on data which includes countries in which there exists no or little information about representations of the Holocaust the study shows where the Holocaust is established in official guidelines and contains a close textbook study focusing on the comprehensiveness and accuracy of representations and historical narratives The book highlights evolving practices worldwide and thus provides education stakeholders with comprehensive documentation about current trends in curricula directives and textbook representations of the Holocaust It further formulates recommendations that will help policy makers provide the educational means by which pupils may develop Holocaust literacy

In Pursuit of German Memory Wulf Kansteiner,2006 Wulf Kansteiner shows that the interpretations of Germany's past proposed by historians politicians and television makers reflect political and generational divisions and an extraordinary concern for Germany's perception abroad

Holocaust education in a global context Fracapane, Karel,Haß, Matthias,Topography of Terror Foundation (Germany),2014-01-24 International interest in Holocaust education has reached new heights in recent years This historic event has long been central to cultures of remembrance in those countries where the genocide of the Jewish people occurred But other parts of the world have now begun to recognize the history of the Holocaust as an effective means to teach about mass violence and to promote human rights and civic duty testifying to the emergence of this pivotal historical event as a universal frame of reference In this new globalized context how is the Holocaust represented and taught How do teachers handle this excessively complex and emotionally loaded subject in fast changing multicultural European societies still haunted by the crimes perpetrated by the Nazis and their collaborators Why and how is it taught in other areas of the world that have only little if any connection with the history of the Jewish people Holocaust Education in a Global Context will explore these questions page 10

Citizenship Education and Global Migration James A. Banks,2017-06-23 This groundbreaking book describes theory research and practice that can be used in civic education courses and programs to help students from marginalized and minoritized groups in nations around the world attain a sense of structural integration and political efficacy within their nation states develop civic participation skills and reflective cultural national and global identities

Education Pack Pat Brander,Rui Gomes,Council of Europe,2004-01-01 This publication updates the 1995 edition as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism anti semitism xenophobia and intolerance It provides a reference source for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people in Europe and beyond The pack itself offers a series of different methodologies including role plays simulation exercises case studies and cooperative group work which can be adapted by trainers teachers and youth workers in their educational programmes Teaching German in Twentieth-century America David P. Benseler, Craig W. Nickisch, Cora Lee Nollendorfs, 2001 Teaching a foreign language and culture is always a challenge but it has been especially problematic to teach the German language and culture in the United States in the twentieth century The tradition of Germany's great poets and thinkers of the past has been joined by a starker legacy Through explorations of such topics as the world wars the Holocaust women in the language teaching profession Jewish contributions and technology's impact on scholarship this volume inspects the fascination and frustrating relationships of the two cultures as they interact through the teaching of German in American educational systems from small liberal arts colleges to large and famous universities This volume resulted from a conference Shaping Forces in American Germanics held in Madison Wisconsin in September 1996

Holocaust Icons Oren Baruch Stier, 2015-11-01 The Holocaust has bequeathed to contemporary society a cultural lexicon of intensely powerful symbols a vocabulary of remembrance that we draw on to comprehend the otherwise incomprehensible horror of the Shoah Engagingly written and illustrated with more than forty black and white images Holocaust Icons probes the history and memory of four of these symbolic relics left in the Holocaust's wake Jewish studies scholar Oren Stier offers in this volume new insight into symbols and the symbol making process as he traces the lives and afterlives of certain remnants of the Holocaust and their ongoing impact Stier focuses in particular on four icons the railway cars that carried Jews to their deaths symbolizing the mechanics of murder the Arbeit Macht Frei work makes you free sign over the entrance to Auschwitz pointing to the insidious logic of the camp system the number six million that represents an approximation of the number of Jews killed as well as mass murder more generally and the persona of Anne Frank associated with victimization Stier shows how and why these icons an object a phrase a number and a person have come to stand in for the Holocaust where they came from and how they have been used and reproduced how they are presently at risk from a variety of threats such as commodification and what the future holds for the memory of the Shoah In illuminating these icons of the Holocaust Stier offers valuable new perspective on one of the defining events of the twentieth century He helps readers understand not only the Holocaust but also the profound nature of historical memory itself As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross, E. Doyle Stevick, 2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical Th is book provides exactly that

Holocaust Education in Primary Schools in the Twenty-First Century Claus-Christian W. Szejnmann, Paula Cowan, James Griffiths, 2018-07-09 This collection is the first of its kind bringing together Holocaust educational researchers as well as school and museum educators from across the globe to discuss the potentials of Holocaust education in relation to primary school children Its contributors are from countries that have a unique relationship with the Holocaust such as Germany Israel neutral Switzerland and Allied countries outside the UK Their research provides new insight into the diverse ways in which primary aged students engage with Holocaust education Chapters explore the impact of teaching the Holocaust to this age group school and museum teaching pedagogies and primary students perspectives of the Holocaust This book will appeal to school and museum educators of primary aged students whose work requires them to teach the Holocaust Citizenship or Civics or Human Rights Education Since the turn of the twenty first century there has been a transformation in school and museum based Holocaust education This book clearly demonstrates that primary education has been included in this transformation The Routledge Companion to Modern European History since 1763 Chris Cook, John Stevenson, 2004-11-10 The Routledge Companion to Modern European History since 1763 is a compact and highly accessible work of reference covering the broad sweep of events from the last days of the ancient regime to the ending of the Cold War and from the reshaping of Eastern Europe to the radical expansion of the European Union in 2004 Within the broad coverage of this outstanding volume particular attention is given to subjects such as the era of the Enlightened Despots the Revolutionary and Napoleonic era in France and the revolutions of 1848 nationalism and imperialism and the retreat from Empire the First World War the rise of the European dictators the coming of the Second World War the Holocaust and the post war development of Europe the Cold War the Soviet Union and its break up the protest and upheavals of the 1960s as well as social issues such as the rise of the welfare state and the changing place of women in society throughout the period With a fully comprehensive glossary a biographical section a thorough bibliography and informative maps this volume is the indispensable companion for all those who study modern European history Jewish Studies and Holocaust Education in Poland Lynn W. Zimmerman, 2014-01-23 This volume examines how people in Poland learn about Jewish life culture and history including the Holocaust The main text provides background on concepts such as culture identity and stereotypes as well as on specific topics such as Holocaust education as curriculum various educational institutions and the connection of arts and cultural festivals to identity and culture It also gives a brief overview of Polish history and Jewish history in Poland as well as providing insight into how the Holocaust and Jewish life and culture are viewed and taught in present day Poland

This background material is supported by essays by Poles who have been active in the changes that have taken place in Poland since 1989 A young Jewish Polish man gives insight into what it is like to grow up in contemporary Poland and a Jewish Polish woman who was musical director and conductor of the Jewish choir Tslil gives her view of learning through the arts Essays by Polish scholars active in Holocaust education and curriculum design give past present and future perspectives of learning about Jewish history and culture
