 combines psycho-social and literary perspectives to investigate the interdependency of shame and desire in Annie Ernaux's writing arguing that shame implies desire and desire vulnerability to shame and that the interplay between the two generates the energy for personal growth and creative endeavour Snakes and Ladders: Reviewing Feminisms at Century's End
 , 2001-12 This book reviews the current state of feminist thinking in the run up to the millennium its priorities and concerns drawing critical attention to the losses as well as the gains of contemporary feminist work French Prose in 2000
 , 2021-10-18 French Prose in 2000 stems in some important measure from work presented in September 1998 at the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990s held at Dalhousie University A good number of papers given at that time and since revisited in the light of exchanges join here certain others specifically written for the purposes of this book Together they constitute a wide-ranging and modally varied interrogation of the current state of French and francophone prose writing its multifaceted manners its richly divergent fascinations its many theoretical or philosophical groundings The book thus ceaselessly moves its attention from fictional biography to the roman noir from the writing of Glissant and Chamoiseau to that of the tonnants voyageurs from the powerful discourse of women such as Chawaf or Cond Ernaux or Germain Sallenave or Kristeva to that of writers as diverse in their modes as Le Clézio and Quignard Duras and Renaud Camus All chapters focus however in near-exclusive measure on the prose production of the last ten or twelve years Women Intellectuals in Post-68 France I. Long, 2013-10-30 Accounts of public intellectuals in France and French feminism have focused on a specific set of women thinkers overlooking some major women intellectuals This book aims redresses this balance by studying these forgotten intellectuals creating a cultural and theoretical re evaluation of the gendered phenomenon of the public intellectual in France

On Both Sides of the Tracks Morgane Cadieu, 2024-01-09 An analysis of social mobility in contemporary French literature that offers a new perspective on figures who move between social classes Social climbers have often been the core characters of novels Their position between traditional tiers in society makes them touchstones for any political and literary moment including our own Morgane Cadieu's study looks at a certain kind of social climber in contemporary French literature whom she calls the parvenant Taken from the French term parvenu which refers to one who is newly arrived a parvenant is a character who shuttles between social groups A parvenant may become part of a new social class but devises literary ways to come back constantly undoing any fixed idea of social affiliation Focusing on recent French novels and autobiographies On Both Sides of the Tracks speaks powerfully to issues of emancipation and class Cadieu offers a fresh critical look at tales of social mobility in the work of Annie Ernaux Kaoutar Harchi Michel Houellebecq douard Louis and Marie NDiaye among others shedding fascinating light on upward mobility today as a formal literary problem

French Fiction into the Twenty-First Century Simon Kemp, 2010-07-15 Explores the state of French fiction through an examination of the work of five major French writers Annie Ernaux Pascal Quignard Marie Darrieussecq Jean Echenoz and Patrick Modiano This book deals with some of the writers on British and American university French courses

Cultural Studies and Anti-Consumerism Sam Binkley, Jo Littler, 2014-02-25 Anti consumerism has become a conspicuous part of contemporary activism and popular culture from culture jams and actions against Esso and Starbucks through the downshifting and voluntary simplicity movements the rise of ethical consumption and organic and the high profile of films and books like Supersize Me and No Logo A rising awareness of labor conditions in overseas plants the environmental impact of intensified consumer lifestyles and the effects of neo liberal privatization have all stimulated such popular cultural opposition However the subject of anti consumerism has received relatively little theoretical attention particularly from cultural studies which is surprising given the discipline's historical investments in extending radical politics and exploring the complexities of consumer desire This book considers how the expanding resources of contemporary cultural theory might be drawn upon to understand anti consumerist identifications and practices how railing against the social and cultural effects of consumerism has a complex past as well as present and it pays attention to the interplays between the different movements of anti consumerism and the particular modes of consumer culture in which they exist In addition as well as using cultural studies to analyse anti consumerism it also asks how such anti consumerist practices and discourse challenges some of the presumptions and positions currently held in cultural studies This book was previously published as a special issue of Cultural Studies

Extremities Nancy K. Miller, Jason Daniel Tougaw, 2002 How do we come to terms with what can t be forgotten How do we bear witness to extreme experiences that challenge the limits of language This remarkable volume explores the emotional political and aesthetic dimensions of testimonies to trauma as they translate private anguish into public space Nancy K Miller and Jason Tougaw have assembled a collection of essays that trace the legacy of the Holocaust and subsequent events that have shaped twentieth century history and still haunt contemporary culture Extremities combines personal and scholarly approaches to a wide range of texts that bear witness to shocking and moving accounts of individual trauma Toni Morrison s Beloved Sylvia Plath s Daddy and Lady Lazarus Kathryn Harrison s The Kiss Tatana Kellner s Holocaust art Ruth Kluger s powerful memoir Still Alive and Benjamin Wilkomirski s controversial narrative of concentration camp suffering Fragments The book grapples with the cultural and social effects of historical crises including the Montreal Massacre the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and the medical catastrophes of HIV AIDS and breast cancer Developing insights from autobiography psychoanalysis feminist theory and gender studies the authors demonstrate that testimonies of troubling and taboo subjects do more than just add to the culture of confession they transform identities and help reimagine the boundaries of community Extremities offers an original and timely interpretive guide to the growing field of trauma studies The volume includes essays by Ross Chambers Sandra M Gilbert Susan Gubar Marianne Hirsch Wayne Koestenbaum Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and others

Re-hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity Stacey Weber-Fève, 2010-01-05 Re hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity examines the problems of voicing the personal when considering the role and place of women in the home Analyzing a collection of first person cinematic and literary narratives by Assia Djebar Annie Ernaux Simone de Beauvoir Raja Amari Coline Serreau Le la Sebbar and Yamina Benguigui Weber F_ve explores the transnational processes of identity formation gender performance and construction of culture and society Through a closer look at contemporary representations of French Algerian and Tunisian women on the page and on the screen this study discusses the ways in which homemaking nation and gender are intricately bound to one another and situated in personal history Working within as well as beyond so called national systems of visual and written representation these women artists challenge inherited and monolithic performances definitions and discourses of femininity In doing so they create re hybridized subjects that begin to recognize and embrace the differences within themselves The authors and filmmakers in this study through their female protagonists the protagonists homes and homemaking acts and the investigative lens of the interrogation of the personal are interested in exploring how the process of uncovering or articulating new and other identities and subjectivities ushers in new and re hybridized ways of seeing knowing and being female

Contemporary Encounters in Gender and Religion Lena Gemzöe, Marja-Liisa Keinänen, Avril Maddrell, 2016-11-16 The fields of gender and religious studies have often been criticized for neglecting to engage with one another and this volume responds to this dearth of interaction by placing the fields in an intimate dialogue Taking a multi disciplinary approach and drawing on feminist scholarship the book undertakes theoretical and empirical explorations of relational and co constitutive encounters of gender and religion Through varied perspectives the chapters address three interrelated themes religion as practice the relationship between religious practice and religion as prescribed by formal religious institutions and the feminization of religion in Europe

Exposing Lifestyle Television Gareth Palmer, 2016-04-15 In the last decade lifestyle television has become one of the most dominant television genres with certain shows now global brands with formats exploited by producers all over the world What unites these programmes is their belief that the human subject has a flexible malleable identity that can be changed within television friendly frameworks In contrast to the talk shows of the eighties and nineties where modest transformation was discussed as an ideal advances in technology combined with changing tastes and demands of viewers have created an appetite for dramatic transformations This volume presents case studies from across the lifestyle genre considering a variety of themes but with a shared understanding of the self as an evolving project driven by enterprise Written by an international team of scholars the collection will appeal to sociologists of culture and consumption as well as to scholars of media studies and media production throughout the world

Critical Terrorism Studies since 11 September 2001 David Miller, Jessie Blackburn, Helen Dexter, Rani Dhanda, 2016-04-08 Academic studies of terrorism grew exponentially in number after the September 11 attacks The problem was that much of this work of orthodox terrorism studies was biased often shoddily researched and was too closely identified with the power centres of Western states Its denizens were often former and sometimes current officials or officers in the military intelligence services or the security industry or were funded by them In response the project of Critical Terrorism Studies was intended to give a more rounded account of political violence in the world It focuses on neglected issues like state terrorism Western counterinsurgency propaganda and misinformation More than a decade since the founding of the critical project this book asks what has been learned It showcases leading examples of critical terrorism studies and presents an agenda for the expansion of an evidence based approach to political violence and terrorism With chapters by leading authorities such as Joseba Zulaika Michael Stohl Mary Hickman and Richard Jackson the book evaluates how far the critical project has come and where it is going next This book was published as a special issue of Critical Studies on Terrorism
