Annie John:

Caribbean Genesis Jana Evans Braziel, 2009-01-05 By exploring the breadth of Jamaica Kincaid's writings this book reveals her work's transmutations of genre specifically those of autobiography biography and history in relation to the forces of creation and destruction in the Caribbean. Jana Evans Braziel examines Kincaid's preoccupation with genealogy genesis and genocide in the Caribbean her adaptations of biblical texts for her literary oeuvre and her authorial deployments of the diabolic as frames for both rethinking the boundaries of genre and altering notions of subjectivity objectivity self and other.

The Sexual Demon of Colonial Power Greg Thomas, 2007 Interrogates the language of body politics in the context of neo-colonialist domination. Understanding Jamaica Kincaid Justin D. Edwards, 2007 Understanding Jamaica Kincaid introduces readers to the prizewinning author best known for the novels Annie John Lucy and The Autobiography of My Mother. Justin D. Edwards surveys Jamaica Kincaid's life career and major works of fiction and nonfiction to identify and discuss her recurring interests in familial relations Caribbean culture and the aftermath of colonialism and exploitation. In addition to examining the haunting prose rich detail and personal insight that have brought Kincaid widespread praise, Edwards also identifies and analyzes the novelist's primary thematic concerns: the flow of power and the injustices faced by people undergoing social economic and political change. Edwards chronicles Kincaid's childhood in Antigua her development as a writer and her early journalistic work as published in the New Yorker and other magazines. In separate chapters he provides critical appraisals of Kincaid's early novels her works of nonfiction including My Brother and A Small Place and her more recent novels including Mr. Potter colonization and neocolonization and warns her readers about the dire consequences of inequality in the era of globalization.

Jamaica Kincaid Moira Ferguson, 1994 As a writer who has been quoted as saying she writes to save her life that is she couldn't write she would be a revolutionary Antiguan novelist Jamaica Kincaid translates this passion into searing exhilarating prose. Her weaving of history autobiography fiction and polemic has won her a large readership. In this first book-length study of her work Moira Ferguson examines all of Kincaid's writing up to 1992 focusing especially on their entwinement of personal and political identity. In doing so she draws a parallel between the dynamics of the mother-daughter relationship in Kincaid's fiction and the more political relationship of the colonizer and the colonized. Ferguson calls this effect the doubled mother a conception of motherhood as both colonial and biological.

Annie John Jamaica Kincaid, 1986 Episodes from the young life of Annie John aged 10 to 17 as she grows up on the Caribbean island of Antigua. This is a magical coming-of-age tale ripe with the special ambience of its tropical setting and sustained by Annie's far from naive awareness of the world around her. Death illness and poverty intrude on the narrator's perceptive sensibility from time to time but even these experiences instruct her and expand her understanding of life and its shifting reality. Although Annie leaves Antigua at the end of the novel for a new role as a student in England the hollowness she feels at her departure is balanced by the new self that awaits her as she begins the search for her own identity. A poetic and intensely moving work.

from the author of At the Bottom of the River Reviewed April 1 1985 Booklist Review Jamaica Kincaid's Writings of History Antonia Purk,2023-09-18 Jamaica Kincaid's works consistently explore how colonial history affects contemporary everyday lives Throughout her novels short fiction and non-fictional essays Kincaid's texts engage with history through its medial representations which are starkly determined by colonial perspectives This study examines the entanglements of temporalities in current perceptions of the past and how literary text intervenes in historical consciousness With a focus on the media text image and the human body the chapters of this book demonstrate how Kincaid's poetics of impermanence counter colonial representations of history with strategies of ambiguity repetition and redirection Kincaid's texts repeat and revise aspects of colonial history a process that decenters the totality of historical colonial ideology and replaces it with self-determined versions of the past through a multiplication of perspectives and voices Jamaica Kincaid J. Brooks Bouson,2012-02-01 Haunted by the memories of her powerfully destructive mother Jamaica Kincaid is a writer out of necessity Born Elaine Potter Richardson Kincaid grew up in the West Indies in the shadow of her deeply contemptuous and abusive mother Annie Drew Drawing heavily on Kincaid's many remarks on the autobiographical sources of her writings J. Brooks Bouson investigates the ongoing construction of Kincaid's autobiographical and political identities She focuses attention on what many critics find so enigmatic and what lies at the heart of Kincaid's fiction and nonfiction work the mother mystery Bouson demonstrates through careful readings how Kincaid uses her writing to transform her feelings of shame into pride as she wins the praise of an admiring critical establishment and an ever-growing reading public Mother, She Wrote Yi-Lin Yu,2005 In this enjoyable and insightful book Yi-Lin Yu takes the heated and ongoing feminist debate over motherhood and maternal subjectivity onto a new plane in search of a new synthesis With its specific focus on the three-tiered matrilineal narratives Mother, She Wrote is distinguished by its complex and innovative deployment of psychoanalytic subject relations theories and a meticulous and detailed discussion of various literary texts which calls forth a powerful reformulation of these narratives One of the main strengths of this book is this simultaneous and tactful command of theory and literary practice Apart from advocating the burgeoning development of women's writing of matrilineal narratives the author also sheds new light on further research in the area of feminist motherhood and mothering Publisher's description Jamaica Kincaid Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2008-07-23 Changing her name early in her career because her parents disapproved of her writing Jamaica Kincaid crossed audiences to embrace feminist American postcolonial and world literature This book offers an introduction and guided overview of her characters plots humor symbols and classic themes Designed for students fans librarians and teachers the 84 A to Z entries combine commentary from interviewers feminist historians and book critics with numerous citations from primary and secondary sources and comparative literature The companion features a chronology of Kincaid's life West Indies heritage and works and includes a character name chart The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing

Inquiry and Reflection Diane DuBose Brunner,1994-01-01 Inquiry and Reflection shows how stories of schooling can elucidate difficult and unexamined problems facing teachers While professional texts tend to raise issues of power and its distribution and questions of culture and ideology often the manner of presentation is abstract and pre service teachers have difficulty making connections Yet literary film and video materials illuminate problems and suggest ideas to which teachers can actively respond This book offers teacher educators a variety of resources for articulating a critical pedagogy and suggests an alternative to the technical job training approach to teacher education by providing a unique educational curricula that illuminates issues of power ideology and culture

Know No Boundaries Lateral Collateral,2014-04 It is neither a thesis nor it is a novel Not it is a fantasy not even a fairy tale With an event of mass disobedience we start No shot is fired no one is physically hurt On a sunny day at every airport of the world People queue up for check in with no visa in hand One and all in all the classes economy first or business No one had a visa world citizenship each like to harness No international flight takes off From Wellington where the day starts From other airports of New Zealand too No other plane departs Nowhere in the world from any airport Took off any International flight Following day was no different And the following night All airlines give up No end of the tunnel no ushering light The main suspect behind these events was John John s identity is however very clear To all passengers he is very dear For questioning his role in mass disobedience Arrested was John and served punishing sentence He was punished to undergo forensic probes For extracting his memoir and his hopes To get the events that led him to his roles To his visions to cross boundary ropes contemporary novel Organized through the two sections of Theory and Practice Reading American Novels and Multicultural Aesthetics begins with a study of aesthetic form only to have it reveal the content of politics and history This presentation immediately offers a unified platform for an interchange between multiple cultural and aesthetic positions Romantic theory provides for an integrated examination of diversity one that metaphorically fosters a solid inclusive and democratic legitimacy for intercultural communication This politically astute cosmopolitan appreciation will generate an intriguing cross over audience from ethnic studies to American studies and from literary studies to romantic studies this book will interest a range of readers Mother Imagery in the Novels of Afro-Caribbean Women Simone A. James Alexander, 2001

Focusing on specific texts by Jamaica Kincaid Maryse Conde and Paule Marshall this study explores the intricate trichotomous relationship between the mother biological or surrogate the motherlands Africa and the Caribbean and the mothercountry represented by England France and or North America The mother daughter relationships in the works discussed address the complex conflicting notions of motherhood that exist within this trichotomy Although mothering is usually socialized as a welcoming nurturing notion Alexander argues that alongside this nurturing notion there exists much conflict Specifically she argues that the mother daughter relationship plagued with ambivalence is often further conflicted by colonialism or colonial intervention from the other the colonial mothercountry Mother Imagery in the Novels of Afro Caribbean Women offers an overview of Caribbean women s writings from the 1990s focusing on the personal relationships these three authors have had with their mothers and or motherlands to highlight links despite social cultural geographical and political differences among Afro Caribbean women and their writings Alexander traces acts of resistance which facilitate the re writing righting of the literary canon and the conception of a newly created genre and a womanist tradition through fictional narratives with autobiographical components Book Jacket Borderlands , 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of

Hundred In Praise of New Travelers Isabel Hoving, 2001 Approaching postcolonial theory through cultural analysis this book offers an accessible and concrete appraisal of current developments in postcolonial criticism Detailed readings of a range of Anglophone Caribbean migrant women s texts from the late 1980s and 1990s lead to sharp insights into three issues that are crucial to an understanding of the field place voice and silence The discussion of these issues allows us to trace current feminist postmodern and postcolonial debates about the nature of the speaking subject as it is emerging from today s postcolonial cultural practices Postcolonial criticism often understands this subject as hybrid and multiple This book shows how the specifics of this multiplicity must be acknowledged through analysis of the power structures and the violence through which this multiple subject is established The book is also a consistent inquiry into reading positions The argument about the differences between postcolonialist black and Caribbean feminist white feminist and postmodern criticism is conducted as a discussion about the effects insights and blindnesses produced by these different ways of reading Caribbean migrant women s writing Scrutinizing the grain of these texts encourages us to move beyond the kind of general statements for which postcolonial theory has been severely criticized The author also extends her critique of reading positions to issues of methodology using these approaches to direct her interpretation Narratology is supplemented by an analysis of the interdiscursive processes through which texts are created and psychoanalytic concepts are used to explore the ambiguous merits of postcolonial reading Above all In Praise of New Travelers celebrates the vigorous subversive and liberating creativity of an accomplished generation of Caribbean migrant women writers

The Poetics of Childhood Roni Natov, 2014-06-03 The Poetics of Childhood investigates the sensibility of childhood and the ways writers try to recapture it It explores the earliest conceptions of innocence and the development of literature about children through contemporary times It encompasses the pastoral the dark pastoral the anti pastoral it addresses picture books fantasy and realism It looks with originality at the literature of childhood inclusive of children s literature and literature about childhood so that the child and adult can be seen reflexively the child in the adult and the various stages of childhood as they are remembered and retained in adulthood It confronts issues of primal and socially constructed desire and the use of childhood to talk about desire It is a poetics a way of imagining the experience of childhood and explores childhood as a particular fluid and porous time it also addresses issues of creativity This is an essential reference for teachers parents artists and writers
