Kurt Finsterbusch, 2004-03 The articles presented in this book were selected for their attention to important issues, the value of the information and ideas they present, and/or their ability to move the reader to concern and possibly even action toward correcting social problems. This book begins by defining social problems and presenting a general critique of American society. Next, the book examines some big issues in the political and economic systems that have society-wide impacts. Next, it examines issues of inequality and injustice that challenge basic American values. The book then considers how well the various institutions of society work and studies the traditional problem of crime and law enforcement. Finally, the book confronts the issues of sustainability in a world experiencing serious environmental decline. To the reader Annual Editions
Dorothy Klimis-Zacas, 2004 This sixteenth edition of Annual Editions Nutrition contains timely selections from the best of the public press. Sources such as Harvard Health Letter, Mayo Clinic Health Letter, Healthy Weight Journal, and The New England Journal of Medicine. Some of the issues discussed include the importance of nutrients and fibre, the affect of diet on health, weight management, food safety, and the world's food supply.

Publications Available for Selection by Depository Libraries, 1997-06 Be Very Afraid Robert Wuthnow, 2010-04-07 Disputes the view that fear of peril results in denial and argues that a more common response is to do things to overcome our sense of vulnerability even if these things are ineffective Peace Arch Port of Entry Redevelopment, Whatcom County, 2005

Media Bias Wm. David Sloan, Jenn Burleson Mackay, 2016-03-24 In this book scholars examine the many prevailing arguments about media bias from a non-polemical perspective. Essays cover individual forms of bias including ideology, politics, television, photography, religion, abortion, homosexuality, gender, race, crime, environment, region, military, corporate ownership, labor, and health. Each essay introduces the topic, presents arguments for and against the specific bias, assesses the evidence for all arguments, and includes a list of suggested readings. Two additional essays discuss the broader aspects of the bias debate and give a personal perspective on reporting the controversial Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Instructors considering

Back cover How the Market Is Changing China's News Xin Xin, 2012-09-14 This book provides a critical account of the transformations both structural and in terms of journalism practice undergone by Xinhua the top Party organ of the Communist regime in China since the start of the reform age in the late 1970s It sets out to answer a number of key questions How far has the most influential news organization in China been marketized How far has the marketization process changed the way in which Xinhua practices journalism What has the impact of marketization been on Xinhua s relationship with central local and global actors What does the case of Xinhua tell us about the transformation of Chinese media more generally The book draws on a wealth of empirical data derived from a combination of documentary research at Xinhua and Reuters together with more than 100 semi structured interviews with news executives journalists officials and academics in Beijing Shanghai Guangzhou Macau Hong Kong and London This book also offers A critical review of theories of globalization as they relate to media and communication studies as well as Chinese studies A discussion of the historical roots of Party journalism in China An authoritative guide to China's contemporary media and political environment The book will be an invaluable reference for students and academics in communication and media studies Chinese studies Asian studies international studies and development studies The Media and the Rwanda Genocide Allan Thompson, 2007-01-20 Explores the role of the media in the Rwandan genocide within the country and beyond Internationalization of the Chinese TV Sector Manfred Kops, Stefan Ollig, 2007 In this reader media experts discuss the prospects and problems of program exchange between German and Chinese Broadcasters They explain that program exchange is not the cockaigne one could assume with regard to the non rivalry of media content and the huge Chinese TV market more than 300 million TV households and an estimated 180 000 hours of weekly broadcast time across all TV platforms but that many economic peculiarities of the media that only can be read in the footnotes of economic text books are highly relevant in practice To trade TV programs with China thus requires a solid knowledge about the TV business in general but also about the Chinese media order and the Chinese society and the Chinese way of business The Phenomenon of Obama and the Agenda for Education - 2nd Edition Paul R. Carr, Brad J. Porfilio, 2015-02-01 Anyone who is touched by public education teachers administrators teacher educators students parents politicians pundits and citizens ought to read this book a revamped and updated second edition It will speak to educators policymakers and citizens who are concerned about the future of education and its relation to a robust participatory democracy The perspectives offered by a wonderfully diverse collection of contributors provide a glimpse into the complex multilayered factors that shape and are shaped by education institutions today The analyses presented in this text are critical of how globalization and neoliberalism exert increasing levels of control over the public institutions meant to support the common good Readers of this book will be well prepared to participate in the dialogue that will influence the future of public education in United States and beyond a dialogue that must seek the kind of change that represents hope for all students As for the question contained in the title of the book The Phenomenon of Obama and the Agenda for Education Can Hope Still Audaciously Trump Neoliberalism Second Edition Carr and Porfilio develop a framework that integrates the work of the contributors including Christine Sleeter and Dennis Carlson who wrote the original forward and afterword respectively and the updated ones written by Paul Street Peter McLaren and Dennis Carlson which problematize how the Obama administration has presented an extremely constrained conservative notion of change in and through education The rhetoric has not been matched by meaningful tangible transformative proposals policies and programs aimed at transformative change and now fully into a second mandate this second edition of the book is able to more substantively provide a vigorous critique of the contemporary educational and political landscape There are many reasons for this and according to the contributors to this book it is clear that neoliberalism is a major obstacle to stimulating the hope that so many have been hoping for Addressing systemic inequities embedded within neoliberalism Carr and Porfilio argue is key to achieving the hope so brilliantly presented by Obama during the campaign that brought him to the presidency International health regulations (2005): state party self-assessment annual reporting tool, 2021-12-14

Article 54 of the IHR request that States Parties and the Director General shall report to the World Health Assembly WHA on the implementation of these Regulations as decided by the WHA In 2008 the WHA through the adoption of Resolution WHA61 2 and later on 2018 with the Resolution WHA71 15 confirmed that that States Parties and the Director General shall continue to report annually to the WHA on the implementation of the International Health Regulations 2005 using the self assessment annual reporting tool The IHR State Party self assessment annual reporting tool SPAR is intended to support State Parties to fulfil these obligations The submission of IHR Annual Reports using the SPAR tool allows the WHO Secretariat to compile a consistent report for the WHA The second edition of SPAR 2021 has 15 capacities and 35 indicators compared to 13 capacities and 24 indicators in the previous version used from 2018 to 2020 reporting periods The summary of results from the annual reports have been used to report to the World Health Assembly since 64th WHA in 2010 and country profiles have been made available on the e SPAR platform the Strategic Partnership for Health Security and Emergency Preparedness SPH Portal and WHO Global Health Observatory GHO data web page The Theory and Practice of Corporate Communication Alan T. Belasen, 2008 Corporate communication is a dynamic interplay of complementary and often competing orientations This book offers a coherent integrative approach by examining the topic and tasks from the framework of the competing values perspective Britannica Book of the Year 2010 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2010-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2010 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again Journal of the Senate of the United States of America United States.
