The Asian Gang Claire E. Alexander,2000 In recent years the British mass media have discovered a new and urgent social problem the Asian gang Images of urban deprivation and the Underclass have combined with fears of growing youth militancy and masculinities in crisis to position Asian and especially Muslim young men as the new folk devil This reimagination of Asian young men has focused on violence drug abuse and crime set against a backdrop of cultural conflict generational confusion and religious fundamentalism The Asian gang it seems is the inevitable product of these social forces But what is the reality Based on three years fieldwork with a group of Bangladeshi young men in inner city London this book attempts to explore the complex mythologies and realities of contemporary Asian youth experience Taking the gang as its starting point the study examines the interaction of representation and reality ethnicity and masculinity in a textured in depth and personal perspective that challenges traditional views on Asian communities and identities Bloomsbury Publishing

Un/settled Multiculturalisms Barnor Hesse,2000-11 This anthology reconsiders the social political and intellectual meanings of multiculturalism in the West particularly Britain It introduces a conceptual language for thinking about multiculturalism and casts the surrounding debates in the contexts of globalization post colonialism and what Barnor Hesse calls multicultural transruptions The contributors consider a variety of diaspora formations ranging from the Muslim Umma and Black Britain to the Chinese foodscape and Transatlantic Black sporting performances They examine the transnational impact on how cultural differences are lived and pose questions for how we participate in and think about Western societies The material on cultural entanglements focuses on media constructions of the Asian Gang in Britain gender and sexuality in ragga music and the ambivalence of identities in post apartheid South Africa

Order and Disorder Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, Fernanda Pirie, 2007 Order is said to depend upon justice yet injustice legitimates disruptive protest

Male, Failed, Jailed David Maguire, 2020-11-02 The profile of prisoners across many Western countries is strikingly similar 95% male predominantly undereducated and underemployed from the most deprived neighbourhoods This book reflects on how similarly positioned men configure masculinities against global economic shifts that have seen the decimation of traditional manual heavy industry and with it the disruption of long established relations of labour Drawing on life history interviews and classical ethnography the book charts a group of men s experiences pre during and post prison Tracking the development of masculinities from childhood to adulthood across impoverished streets failing schools and inadequate state care the book questions whether this proved better preparation for serving prison time than working in their local service dominated labour markets It integrates theories of crime geography economics and masculinity to take into account structural and global economic shifts as well as individual long term perspectives in order to provide a broad examination on pathways to prison and post prison Children and Young People's Worlds Montgomery, Heather, Kellett, Mary, 2009-07-08 This comprehensive reader combines post graduate level theory with contemporary case studies to illustrate and analyse the complications of children and young people s lived experiences in the UK and worldwide in the early 21st century Authors in several fields of childhood and youth studies apply their expertise to areas such as young people and the law children's rights child protection sexuality participation politics and family life Using the voices of the children and young people themselves key topics illustrate important contemporary issues in the study of childhood and youth and show how these impact on policy initiatives and practical interventions in children's lives Routledge Handbook of Youth and Young Adulthood Andy Furlong, 2016-10-14 The second and completely revised edition of the Routledge Handbook of Youth and Young Adulthood draws on the work of leading academics from four continents in order to introduce up to date perspectives on a wide range of issues that affect and shape youth and young adulthood It provides a multi disciplinary overview of a dynamic field of study that offers unique insights on social change in advanced societies It is aimed at researchers policy makers and advanced students on a global level The Handbook introduces the main theoretical perspectives used within youth studies and sets out future research agendas Each of the ten sections covers an important area of research from education and the labour market to youth cultures health and crime discussing change and continuity in the lives of young people introducing readers to some of the most important work in the field while highlighting the underlying perspectives that have been used to understand the complexity of modern youth and young adulthood Religion, Human Rights and International Law Javaid Rehman, Susan Breau, 2007-07-30 Freedom of religion is a subject which has throughout human history been a source of profound disagreements and conflict In the modern era religious based intolerance continues to provide lacerative and tormenting concern to the possibility of congenial human relationships As the present study examines religions have been relied upon to perpetuate discrimination and inequalities and to victimise minorities to the point of forcible assimilation and genocide The study provides an overview of the complexities inherent in the freedom of religion within international law and an analysis of the cultural religious relativist debate in contemporary human rights law As many of the chapters examine Islamic State practices have been a major source of concern In the backdrop of the events of 11 September 2001 a considerable focus of this volume is upon the Muslim world either through the emergent State practices and existing constitutional structures within Muslim majority States or through Islamic diasporic communities resident in Europe and North America Geographies of Muslim Identities Peter Hopkins, 2016-04-15 In recent years geographies of identities including those of ethnicity religion race and gender have formed an increasing focus of contemporary human geography The events of September 11th 2001 particularly illustrated the ways in which identities can be transformed across time and space by both global and local events of a social cultural political and economic nature Such transformations have also demonstrated the temporal and spatial construction of hate and fear and of increasing incidences of Islamophobia through the construction of Muslims as the Other As the social scientific study of religion continues to be marginalized within mainstream scholarship there remains an important gap in the literature This timely book addresses this gap by collecting a range of cutting edge contributions from the social cultural political historical and economic sub disciplines of geography together with writings from gender studies cultural studies and leisure studies where research has revealed a strong spatial dimension to the construction representation contestation and reworking of Muslim identities. The contributors illustrate the ways in which such identities are constructed represented negotiated and contested in everyday life in a wide variety of international contexts focusing upon issues connected with diaspora gender and belonging Hard Cop, Soft Cop Roger Hopkins Burke, 2013-01-11. This is a book about policing styles in the broadest sense looking at zero tolerance policing at one extreme and softer approaches to policing at the other It is particularly concerned to explore the dilemmas and moral ambiguities inherent in the tensions between different policing approaches Rather than seeking to juxtapose hard and soft policing styles the guiding thread of the book is the notion that policing is both pervasive and insidious Different policing styles whether conducted by the public police service private security or social work agencies are all part of a multi agency corporate crime control industry which provides the essential context for an understanding of these different approaches

Multicultural Britain Kieran Connell,2024-09-01 A new history of personal and community relationships across post imperial Britain from 1940s Cardiff to the millennial Mid lands Faith, Ideology and Fear Gabriele Marranci,2009-12-24 Unique and soundly researched this book examines the delicate relationship between the experience of prison among Muslims and the formation of religious identity Race, Gangs and Youth Violence Anthony Gunter,2017-02-15 This book challenges current thinking about youth violence and gangs and their racialisation by the media and the police It highlights how the street gang label is unfairly linked to Black and urban youth street based lifestyles cultures and friendship groups

Muslims in Britain Sophie Gilliat-Ray,2010-06-10 Drawing upon sociology history anthropology and politics this book provides an informed understanding of the daily lives of British Muslims Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims Secrets and Silence Beatrix Campbell,2023-10-10 The child sexual abuse scandal in the English county of Cleveland in the 1980s was a defining moment but not the scandal we were led to believe it was Acclaimed journalist Beatrix Campbell has uncovered government documents that show how medical evidence of childhood rape identified by pioneering paediatricians was deemed credible but dangerous it was more important to save money than save children This book reveals how this secret has framed policy making and public opinion and the consequences it has had for children professionals justice and the state The deaths of national treasures Sir Jimmy Savile and Sir Cyril Smith led to a torrent of evidence of childhood suffering the discovery of widespread sexual exploitation and institutional abuse across the world all in plain sight The Cleveland children have remained in the shadows Now for the first time a Cleveland child delves into her records and shares her story Explaining Ethnic Differences David Race, Racism and Sports Journalism Neil Farrington, Daniel Kilvington, 2012 Mason.2003-07-23 Includes statistics Beginning with a theoretical discussion of race sport and media this book critically examines issues of race racism and sports journalism and offers practical advice on sports reporting including a discussion of guidelines for ethical journalism In a series of case studies representations of race will be explored through historical and contemporary analysis of international media coverage including online and digital platforms. The background and impacts of these representations will also be discussed through interviews with athletes and sports journalists Subjects covered include cricketin the UK Australian and Asian media with particular focus on Pakistan athletics and media representations of athletes including a study of the reporting of South African runner Caster Semenya footballand the under representation of British Asians with an analysis of how race is constructed in the digital arena boxingwith particular reference to Muhammad Ali America and Islam Formula One and analysis of the media reporting international spectator response and racism towards Lewis Hamilton described in the media as the first black driver Finally the book will analyse the make up of sports journalism examining the causes and consequences of a lack of diversity within the profession Researching Race and Racism Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2004 This new work brings together contributions from some of the leading researchers in the field using the benefit of their experience to explore the practical and ethical issues involved in researching in this often controversial field

Immigrant Lives Edward Shizha, Edward Makwarimba, 2023 Voluntary and involuntary human mobility in the form of migration is a natural human phenomenon which has been a central feature from the ancient times into the modern times. While the boundaries between voluntary and involuntary migrants are blurred voluntary migrants in the context of this book refer to those who migrate out of their own free choice based on socioeconomic considerations while involuntary migrants are forced to leave their country out of fear of persecution or insecurity caused by political violence or civil and military strife. In this book the terms newcomer foreign born and migrant and immigrant are used interchangeably and refer to those who were born in another country and later emigrated to another country as permanent residents later becoming citizens asylum seekers and refugees Migration is an increasing challenge faced by countries institutions and individuals in both sending and receiving countries. In countries where there is a large inflow of immigrants migration has created a multiple origin transnationally connected socio economically differentiated and legally stratified demographic landscape which lends itself to a description of superdiverse societies Jensen Vertovec 2007 Most industrialized countries mostly in the Global North are experiencing low birth rates and are dependent on immigrants to satisfy their job market and population growth while less developed nations mostly in the Global South are experiencing low economic growth inadequate socioeconomic opportunities. These social and economic challenges are presently the cornerstone of migration transnationalism and transnationality
