Domestic Tourism in Asia Shalini Singh, 2009-06-30 Many countries have a rich tradition of domestic travel and holidaying which not only predates but exceeds mass international travel This is particularly the case in Asia where recent economic prosperity and trends in globalization have not merely spurred but continue to shape traditions in domestic tourism. This book is the first to address specifically the continuities and changes in domestic tourism in Asia. It explores the ethos of domestic travel and holiday making in order to understand the distinctive common strands that underlie conventional and contemporary tourism practices against the local and global backdrop. A considerable range of countries is covered in the case studies including those with patrimonial histories namely China and India, the economically developed nation state of Japan and the microstates of Taiwan, Singapore, Macao and Hong Kong, besides the coastal countries of Malaysia, Philippines, Laos and Vietnam as well as the landlocked countries of Kyrgyzstan and Mongolia. The book presents some of the many interfaces of Asian cultural and natural heritages with tourism while giving due considerations to today's political and economic realities.

Cinemas, Identities and Beyond D. H. Fleming, Cheung Ruby, 2020-07-13. Cinemas Identities and Beyond examines different modes of representing and constructing identities in and through the medium of film transcending the narrow confines of the local, national, regional and challenging spatial and temporal boundaries. It gathers fifteen essays that explore different dimensions of identities in contexts ranging from domestic spheres, urban milieus, socio-political environments, diasporic film making, issues, anthropology, film festivals and psychoanalysis to the examination of stardom in society. Engaging with cinematic representations, narrative conventions, film form, industry concerns and other socio-cultural, economic, political factors relating to the production, distribution, exhibition and consumption of film, Cinemas Identities and Beyond contributes to one of the most thought-provoking contemporary debates on cinemas and identities in film studies. Revisiting films such as Farewell My Concubine, The Matrix trilogy, The Straight Story, El Topo and Days of Being Wild, this anthology establishes a framework that actively queries stabilised ideological paradigms. The book discovers new frontiers and discourses to help us better understand ourselves and our surroundings when another decade of the new millennium is about to begin. Cinemas Identities and Beyond will prove to be of value to a broad range of scholars, critics and students who are interested in issues pertaining to identities and their construction in and beyond film.

Mobile Media in the Asia-Pacific Larissa Hjorth, 2008-10-13. This century has been marked by the rapid and divergent uptake of mobile telephony throughout the world. The mobile phone has become a poignant symbol for postmodernity and the attendant modes of global mobility and immobility. Most notably, the icon of the mobile phone is most palpable in the Asia-Pacific in which a diversity of innovation and consumer practices reflecting gender and locality can be found. Through the lens of gendered mobile media, Mobile Media in the Asia-Pacific provides insight into this phenomenon by focusing on case studies in Japan, South Korea, China and Australia. Despite the ubiquity and multi-layered nature of mobile media in the region, the patterns of female consumption have received little attention in the growing literature on mobile communication globally. Utilising ethnographic research conducted in the Asia-Pacific over a six-year period, this book investigates the relationship between gender, technology and various forms of mobility and immobility in the region. This book outlines the emerging modes of gender performativity that makes the Asia Pacific region so distinct to other regions globally Mobile Media in the Asia Pacific is a fascinating read for students and scholars interested in new media and gender in the Asia Pacific region A Companion to Wong Kar-wai Martha P. Nochimson, 2016-01-26 With 25 essays that embrace a wide spectrum of topics and perspectives including intertextuality transnationality gender representation repetition the use of music color and sound depiction of time and space in human affairs and Wong s highly original portrayal of violence A Companion to Wong Kar Wai is a singular examination of the prestigious filmmaker known around the world for the innovation beauty and passion he brings to filmmaking Brings together the most cutting edge in depth and interesting scholarship on arguably the greatest living Asian filmmaker from a multinational group of established and rising film scholars and critics Covers a huge breadth of topics such as the tradition of the jianghu in Wong s films queering Wong s films not in terms of gender but through the artist s liminality the phenomenological Wong Wong s intertextuality America through Wong s eyes the optics of intensities thresholds and transfers of energy in Wong s cinema and the diasporic presence of some ladies from Shanghai in Wong s Hong Kong Examines the political historical and sociological influence of Wong and his work and discusses his work from a variety of perspectives including modern post modern postcolonial and queer theory Includes two appendices which examine Wong s work in Hong Kong television and commercials Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum, 2020-05-15 This collection of essays brings together work by some of the most internationally acclaimed critics of Malaysian literature in English from different parts of the world including Australia Canada Japan Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the works of major writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on thematic and stylistic trends The book pays particular attention to issues such as gender ethnicity nationalism multiculturalism diaspora hybridity and transnationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English first introduced by the colonisers has experienced a mixed fate of ups and downs in the post independence period due to the changing and sometimes strikingly different policies adopted by the government The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature Southeast Asian studies and postcolonial literatures Ann Hui's Song of the Exile Audrey Yue, 2010-03-01 With due emphases on diasporic intimacies cine feminism and transcultural literacy Audrey Yue has written a sensitive and lucid study doing justice to a remarkable film by a remarkable director Rey Chow Duke University This book pushes the boundaries of existing studies on Hong Kong cinema studies Yue provides us with innovative ways of reading intimacy in the diaspora as nostalgia for the familiar or idealised as cultural memories that make up diasporic archives as modes of transformation of kinship Structures as affects produced through new media technologies The book concludes with a self reflexive exploration of teaching Song in Australia By situating the film under the rubric of critical multiculturalism Yue demonstrates how the teaching of postcolonial cinema can be sustained as a political pedagogy that resists the pluralist demands of a neoliberal curriculum This is a carefully researched rigorously analytical and intellectually profound study that will make its mark in the fields of diaspora transcultural communication and cinema studies Jacqueline Lo Australian National University The resolutely independent filmmaker Ann On wah Hui continues to inspire critical acclaim for her sensitive portrayals of numerous Hong Kong tragedies and marginalized populations In a pioneering career spanning three decades Hui has been director producer writer and actress for more than 30 films In this work Audrey Yue analyses a 1990 film considered by many to be one of Hui s most haunting and poignant works Song of the Exile The semi autobiographical film depicts a daughter s coming to terms with her mother s Japanese identity Themes of cross cultural alienation divided loyalties and generational reconciliation resonate strongly amid the migration and displacement pressures surrounding Hong Kong in the early 1990s Even now more than a decade after the 1997 Handover the film is a perennial favourite among returning Hong Kong emigrants and international cinema students This book examines how Hui challenges the myth of the original home as singular familial and romantic and constructs the second home as a new space for Hong Kong modernity Yue also discusses the teaching of the film in the diaspora demonstrating its potential as an affective and performative text of transcultural literacy and diasporic negotiations in the cross cultural classroom Reading Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum,2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i e Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of other Anglophone traditions The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature postcolonial literatures minority literatures gender studies and Southeast Asian studies
