addresses the core issue in contemporary Asian politics the rise of China The contributors expertly evaluate China's rise and the impact it has had on the dynamics of regional relations in North East and South East Asia It demonstrates that China's economic development and its regional and international ambition increasingly conflict with the existing consensus based regional arrangements like the ASEAN Regional Forum and the East Asian Summit mechanism As a consequence smaller states in the region increasingly resort to hedging and balancing strategies in an attempt to mitigate Chinese hegemony This leaves the region in the grip of a complex and potentially destabilizing security dilemma The book offers a compelling analysis of the problem that China presents for its region that will enlighten undergraduate students of regional political studies and international relations Postgraduate and Master's students on courses addressing East and South East Asia will also find plenty of information in this invaluable book

China's Power and Asian Security Mingjiang Li, Kalyan M.
