Asian Management Systems Chinese Japanese And Korean Styles Of Business:

Asian Management Systems Min Chen, 1995 Looks at four major management systems in the East Asian region Japanese mainland Chinese overseas Chinese and Korean Analyzes the organizational structures management techniques and styles competitive strategies and cultural influences

Asian Management Systems Min Chen, 2004 Asian Management Systems is the only text on the market that specifically addresses the Asian style of management in a comparative country context The text examines the four main management systems in the East Asian region Japanese mainland Chinese Overseas Chinese and Korean and compares and contrasts the management styles within Asia and with the western world Through a comparative analysis of organizational structures competitive strategies and cultural influences the workings of each system are made clear Practical guidelines make this book a vital guide for international executives and students alike The new edition has been updated and covers the Tiger economies before and since the crash It also looks at the rise of Islam as a force in Asian business and examines China's new role as a quasi capitalist economic system within a communist political system This is the core text for all students of Asian business and for all academics with a lively interest in international business

Handbook of Research on Asian Business Henry Wai-Chung Yeung, 2007 This volume is excellent Students who are interested in Asian business should read it and will find the comprehensive bibliography offered by the different contributors very helpful In light of the recent global financial crises it is time to re-examine the Asian miracles as well as the Western models of business organizations and regulations This volume offers great insights not just on Asian business but also on Western economies and business It is also time to adopt an integrative approach recommended by Yeung through comparative research of businesses and economies in different institutions and cultures Yifei Sun Economic Geography An absolute must have for college library reference shelves filled cover to cover with keen analyses that any businessperson seeking to make inroads in an Asian market needs to study at length Midwest Book Review This book serves as an important guide to the many fascinating research questions about Asian business waiting to be addressed The study of Asian business has reached equality in importance to the study of business in Europe and North America Researchers who study any of these regions have an incentive to follow the study of business in the other regions if for no other reason than that many global firms from each region operate in all regions now Nonetheless the more important reason for knowledge transfer among researchers of each region is that these exchanges can only advance everyone's research Henry Yeung and the contributors are to be thanked for setting out a rich agenda for research on Asian business that will elevate this study to equality with research elsewhere in the world Eurasian Geography and Economics This book is extremely comprehensive and well researched It will be of particular interest to scholars in the fields of international business development studies economic geography regional studies as well as international and national policymakers Science Technology Society The rise of Asia as an important region for global business has been widely recognized as one of the most significant economic phenomena in the new millennium This accessible and comprehensive Handbook brings together state of the art reviews of Asian business in an expansive range of areas including business organizations strategic management marketing state business relations business and development business policy issues It is argued that whilst academic studies on Asian business have been in existence for over two decades there is relatively little systematic integration of our knowledge and research on Asian business The contributors drawn from a variety of disciplines within the social sciences aim to redress the balance with their lively cutting edge discussion Serving as a timely overview of more than two decades of scholarly research this Handbook will be an essential resource for academics students and researchers interested in Asian business The

Handbook of Technology Management, Supply Chain Management, Marketing and Advertising, and Global Management Hossein Bidgoli,2010 The discipline of technology management focuses on the scientific engineering and management issues related to the commercial introduction of new technologies Although more than thirty U S universities offer PhD programs in the subject there has never been a single comprehensive resource dedicated to technology management The Handbook of Technology Management fills that gap with coverage of all the core topics and applications in the field Edited by the renowned Doctor Hossein Bidgoli the three volumes here include all the basics for students educators and practitioners Asian Management Matters: Regional Relevance And Global Impact Chung-ming Lau,Kenneth K

S Law,K David Tse,Chi-sum Wong,2000-07-24 With the increasing globalisation of business Asia has much to teach and to learn in the areas of management theory research and education The relevance and impact of Asian business practices are scrutinized in this volume which presents chapters written by international scholars on issues such as strategic management organisational behavior the performance of multinationals foreign investments and human resource management Advances in these areas within an Asian context can make a global contribution to the research on management theory This volume consists of the principal contributions from the inaugural conference of the Asia Academy of Management and will be of interest to business practitioners academics and students interested in Asian management Asian Management Systems Min Chen,1995-03

Leadership in East Asia Chris Rowley,Ingyu Oh,2020-06-29 This book compares and contrasts leadership in Japan South Korea and China examining the impact of globalization on leadership styles and trends Presenting some of the most recent findings in leadership studies in these three countries the collection explores the power relationship between political and business leaders employer employee relationships and pro social behaviour the measurement of effective leadership the relationship between leadership and corporate success the survival of private firms in a tightly controlled or socialist market and the evolution of leadership styles in the transition from state owned to semi private Although many studies have offered explanations of East Asian economic and corporate success this book presents empirical evidence to explain the leadership styles in Japan South Korea and China and provides a fresh outlook for those studying business and leadership in the region This book was originally published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Business

The Gaze of the West and Framings of the East S. Nair-Venugopal, 2012-05-09

This volume explores Western attitudes towards the phenomenon of Easternization drawing upon Eastern perspectives and examining the impact upon contemporary culture to argue that Easternization is another type of globalization Handbook of East Asian Entrepreneurship Tony Fu-Lai Yu, Ho-Don Yan, 2014-10-03 With the shift of the global economic gravity toward emerging economies and the roaring economic growth of the past three decades in China East Asian catching up growth strategies have profound implications for latecomer economies While there are many handbooks on entrepreneurship in general there is no reference on East Asian entrepreneurship This is the first of its kinds in the market The volume provides a useful reference for those who want to know East Asian entrepreneurship and business systems It also provides many excellent cases and illustrations on the growth of entrepreneurial firms and the rise of branded products in East Asia Policy makers or scholars who are interested in entrepreneurship small and medium sized enterprises Asian business systems international business innovation and technology management economic development strategic management and East Asian studies would benefit from this volume The volume contains two parts The first part is the key concepts associate with entrepreneurship and East Asian firm growth and transformation The second part presents cases of entrepreneurial firms and their founders in East Asia including Japan South Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and China With the handbook scholars students and policy makers can grab some basic ideas how entrepreneurs and firms in East Asia compete and survive in the world market and understand why and how East Asia economies can emerge as one of the most dynamic regions in the world Part I concepts relating to Entrepreneurship Guanxi Catching up strategies Types of entrepreneurship Business System Strategic Management Leadership Part II cases cover variedly from manufacturing to services industries and specifically including traditional and newly corporations ranging from toys convenient stores fast fashion high tech to catering and service Written by experts in their respective areas Handbook of East Asia entrepreneurship is an excellent review of theories policies and empirical evidences on important topics in Entrepreneurship in East Asian economic development The book is both a superb teaching tool and a valuable handbook in development economics Rural Capitalists in Asia Mario Rutten, 2005-08-18 This is a comparative study of small capitalists and rural industrialists in three Asian countries Studies on the entrepreneurial class in South Asia tend to focus on the structural aspects of entrepreneurial behaviour while studies on this class in Southeast Asia tend to focus on cultural aspects of their behaviour In fact this book points to striking similarities between Indian overseas Chinese and Muslim businessmen in Asia similarities usually hidden under variations in analytical approaches Although this study emphasizes similarities within Asia it does not support the view of a specific Asian business pattern different to the rise of non Asian especially European entrepreneurs The findings are of major interest not just within the fields of anthropology and entrepreneurship but to all scholars working on South or Southeast Asia who will find much of interest in the author's observations of variable research results between the two regions Linking an Asian Transregional Commerce in Tea Jason Lim, 2010-07-12 Current historical work on the international tea trade has focused on the Sino British trade and the impact of capitalism and modern technology on tea production in India and Ceylon These studies have overlooked the changes that were afoot in the Fujian tea industry and the problems with conducting the trade with the overseas Chinese in Southeast Asia Using the Fujian Singapore trade as an illustration and drawing on Chinese language archival materials this book looks at the state of tea production in Fujian the overseas Chinese tea merchants and the fluctuations of the trade during the period of political instability in China the Sino Japanese War decolonisation in Singapore and the period of collectivisation in China and the Cold War Handbook of Research on Global Enterprise Operations and Opportunities Khosrow-Pour, D.B.A., Mehdi, 2017-03-31 Organizational applications and managerial implications of new technology resources require a forum for the discussion of issues of best business practice and success The Handbook of Research on Global Enterprise Operations and Opportunities is a valuable source for the latest research on global resource management with a focus on the managerial and organizational facets Featuring coverage on a range of topics and perspectives such as global enterprise systems IT diffusion and global data security this publication is ideally designed for researchers academics and practitioners seeking current research on approaches to successful business technology use in all countries Entrepreneurship and the Internationalisation of Asian Firms Henry Wai-Chung Yeung, 2002-01-01 Entrepreneurs engaging in international business face business environments that are fundamentally different from their home countries Despite decades of entrepreneurship research we know little about these entrepreneurs and their strategic behaviour in establishing and managing transnational operations Marketing Management in Asia. Stanley Paliwoda, Tim Andrews, Junsong Chen, 2013-01-04 Asia is no longer simply the continent to which the world turns for outsourcing and off shoring of production leaving retailing to Western countries Asia now contains many of the world's largest markets plus many emergent markets as well North America is fast ceding ground to China as the world's largest economic power Europe has been able to make productivity gains from trade fiscal and monetary harmonization to remain globally competitive while Africa whose nations practice free trade is largely ignored both in terms of forgiving debt and providing further credit Each chapter of this volume details the characteristics of an individual market in Asia and demonstrates the challenges that marketers are likely to face in these environments Covering not just production or consumption but trade as it is practiced now this book outlines the new norms conventions and service performance levels that these markets demand The Oxford Handbook of Contextual Approaches to Human Resource Management Emma Parry, Michael J. Morley, Chris Brewster, 2021 The Oxford Handbook of Contextual Approaches to Human Resource Management provides both conceptual and empirical analyses using a range of different lenses in order to provide a detailed examination of how context affects the design and implementation of HRM activities New Multinational Enterprises from Korea and Taiwan Roger van Hoesel, 2013-01-11 This volume represents the first substantive study of emerging multinationals MNEs from Asian economies drawing on the unique experiences of South Korea and Taiwan Combining an econometric investigation with detailed case studies of leading Korean and Taiwanese electronics companies it aims to demystify the nature and theoretical implications of these dynamic economic regions The author argues that many of these new multinationals do not possess the characteristics typically ascribed to MNEs such as technological leadership strong marketing positions or advanced managerial capabilities This is highlighted by documentation of recent developments in outward investment from Korea and Taiwan at both micro and macro level The implications of the recent Asian crisis for the internationalization of Korean and Taiwanese firms are also explored
