America's Commitment to South Korea Joo-Hong Nam,1986-03-27 The book analyses the strategic rationale of the American security commitment to South Korea in the light of the palpable failure of containment strategy in Indo China During the 1970s the dilemma confronting successive American administrations was that whilst wishing to maintain their old commitment to South Korea they had no desire to preside over another Vietnam Military commitment and political support were necessarily disengaged and the Nixon doctrine served as both the end and the means of containment strategy in Asia The study identifies the principal conditions that have influenced changing American perspectives on South Korea and examines some of the general problems of collective security in the region Unique in the direct engagement of China the Soviet Union and the United States the security position of South Korea bears directly upon the achievement of peace and stability throughout East Asia Neutrality and Neutralism in the Global Cold War Sandra Bott,Jussi M. Hanhimaki,Janick Schaufelbuehl,Marco Wyss,2015-12-22 This book sheds new light on the foreign policies roles and positions of neutral states and the Non Aligned Movement NAM in the global Cold War The volume places the neutral states and the NAM in the context of the Cold War and demonstrates the links between the East the West and the so called Third World In doing so this collection provides readers an alternative way of exploring the evolution and impact of the Cold War on North South connections that challenges traditional notions of the post 1945 history of international relations The various contributions are framed against the backdrop of the evolution of the Cold War international system and the decolonization process in the Southern hemisphere By juxtaposing the policies of European neutrals and countries of the NAM this book offers new perspectives on the evolution of the Cold War With the links between these two groups of countries receiving very little attention in Cold War scholarship the volume thus offers a window into a hitherto neglected perspective on the Cold War Via a series of case studies the chapters here present new viewpoints on the evolution of the global Cold War through the exploration of the ensuing internal and mainly external policy choices of these nations This book will be of much interest to students of Cold War Studies international history foreign policy security studies and IR in general Should the United States Significantly Increase Its Foreign Military Commitments? ,1980 U.S. Naval Forces United States. Congressional Budget Office,1978 Ocean Politics in Southeast Asia Peter Polomka, The task of avoiding in the oceans the last frontier of our planet the claims and rivalries that have caused endless conflict on land has thrust the ocean issues increasingly into the forefront of international affairs This book examines aspects of the interrelationship of diverse interests in the seas of Southeast Asia while suggesting scope for cooperative developments that might not only benefit the region but also have wider application in the emerging multipolar world Neutrality in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling,2016-10-04 This book analyses the notion of neutrality to the politics of the state in Southeast Asia Distinguishing among neutrality neutralism and neutralisation it asks what relation do the concepts bear to the independence of states and how do they relate to other forms of inter state relations and to participation in international organizations The author considers concepts of neutrality and the policy of non alignment as they were developed in South and Southeast Asia Using case studies of a variety of Asian countries including India Burma Cambodia and other countries in Southeast Asia he discusses the novel notion of a regional form of neutralisation as a means of decolonising the region and examines the relevance neutralism has in current international politics and what might it have in the future This new work by one of the most foremost historians on Southeast Asia is of interest to scholars in the field of Asian History Politics International Relations and Strategic Studies

China-Malaysia Relations and Foreign Policy Razak Abdullah,2015-08-11 When Malaysian Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak Hussein paid an official visit to China in May 1974 it secured Malaysia a place in the annals of regional diplomatic history as the first ASEAN country to establish full diplomatic relations with the People s Republic of China This book analyses the process of the establishment of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and China and provides a detailed explanation and understanding of the decision making process in Malaysia Shedding light on the roles played by the various principal actors in the process of foreign policy formulation and the influences both internal and external that shaped Malaysia s behaviour the book highlights why Malaysia decided to pursue a policy of normalisation with China culminating in the visit in 1974 and in particular why it became the first ASEAN country to establish diplomatic relations with the Chinese After Malaysia s recognition of Beijing two other ASEAN states followed suit namely Thailand and the Philippines and the book discusses whether there was some degree of policy coordination amongst ASEAN countries in dealing with China or if both these countries gave way for Malaysia to be the first The book also looks at the policy debates within some ASEAN countries regarding relations with China either conducted officially or unofficially bilaterally or otherwise This book will be of interest to scholars of Asian Politics Asian History International Relations and Foreign Policy U.S. Policy with Respect to Mainland China, Hearings Before the ... 89-2, March 8, 16, 18, 21, 28, 30, 1966 United States.
