Asias Struggle For Full Humanity Towards A Relevant Theology:

Asia's Struggle for Full Humanity Virginia Fabella,1980

Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot,2024-12-23

Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider s role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development The Encyclodedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth

Asian Contextual Theology for the Third Millennium Paul S Chung,Veli Matti Karkkainen,Kim

Kyoung-Jae,2010-03-25 In this volume an attempt is undertaken to highlight the genesis progress and transformation of Asian contextual theology of minjung introducing its historical point of departure its development and its transformation in light of younger Korean and Korean American scholars endeavors In this regard the new Asian contextual theology which is emerging strives to integrate both minjung and the wisdom of World Religions into its own framework and direction assuming the character of a public theology and remaining humble and open before God s mystery while featuring its association with minjung in a holistic way A Protestant Theology of Passion Volker Küster,2010 Minjung Theology is introduced here through theological biographical sketches of its main representatives They formulated a protestant liberation theology under the South Korean military dictatorship of the 1970s and 80s Their strong emphasis on the suffering han of the people minjung led them to the formulation of a genuine theology of the cross in Asia Volker K ster explores the reception of Minjung Theology and raises the question what happened to it during the democratization process and the rise of globalization in the 1990s Interpretations of art works by Minjung artists provide deep insights into these transformation processes Prologue and epilogue abstract from the Korean case and offer a concise theory of contextual theology in an intercultural framework Asia's Struggle for Full Humanity Ecumenical Association of Third World

offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus s arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology s profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto,2011 Mission in the Spirit Julie C. Ma,Wonsuk Ma,2010 The Cambridge Companion to Liberation Theology Christopher Rowland,1999-03-13 Liberation theology is widely referred to in discussions of politics and religion but not always adequately understood This Companion offers an introduction to the history and characteristics of liberation theology in its various forms in different parts of the world Authors from four continents examine the emergence and character of liberation theology in Latin America black theology Asian theology and the new situation arising from the end of the apartheid regime in South Africa The major Christian Church s attitude to liberation theology and the extent of the movement s indebtedness to Marxism are examined and a political theologian writing from another perspective of Christian theology offers an evaluation Through a sequence of eleven chapters readers are given a comprehensive description and evaluation of the different facets of this important theological and social movement There is also an Introduction relating liberation theology to the history of theology and a Select Bibliography Christ and Trauma Presston McDaniel Hill,2025-09-22 Christ and Trauma Theology East of Eden explores the intersection of Christian theology and the reality of trauma bringing the crucifixion of Christ into conversation with the lived experiences of trauma survivors This edited volume of essays illuminates how trauma reshapes our understanding of Christology atonement and the Christian community s response to suffering Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives from theologians psychologists and trauma survivors each essay examines how overwhelming violence impacts individuals and communities and how Christian theology can bear witness to and even participate in the process of healing The contributors engage deeply with the stories of trauma survivors uncovering how trauma theory can challenge and enrich traditional theological concepts like forgiveness redemption and the nature of God From the recognition of Jesus as a victim of abuse to the consideration of trauma informed Christology this collection offers an urgent compassionate and rigorous theological response to the reality of trauma For clergy therapists theologians and survivors alike Christ and Trauma invites readers to reimagine the relationship between faith and suffering in ways that are both theologically robust and deeply relevant to our modern context Kierkegaard and Political Theology Roberto Sirvent,Silas Morgan,2018-03-06 The nature of Kierkegaard s political legacy is complicated by the religious character of his writings Exploring Kierkegaard s relevancy for this political theological moment this volume offers trans disciplinary and multi religious perspectives on Kierkegaard studies and political theology Privileging contemporary philosophical and political theological work that is based on Kierkegaard this volume is an indispensable resource for Kierkegaard scholars theologians philosophers of religion ethicists and critical researchers in religion looking to make sense of current debates in the field While this volume shows that Kierkegaard s theological legacy is a thoroughly political one we are left with a series of open questions as to what a Kierkegaardian interjection into contemporary political theology might look like And so like Kierkegaard s writings this collection of essays is an argument with itself and as such will leave readers both edified and scratching their heads for all the right reasons Decolonization and the Remaking of Christianity Elizabeth A. Foster, Udi Greenberg, 2023-08-29 In the decades following the era of decolonization global Christianity experienced a seismic shift While Catholicism and Protestantism have declined in their historic European strongholds they have sustained explosive growth in Asia Latin America and Africa This demographic change has established Christians from the Global South as an increasingly dominant presence in modern Christian thought culture and politics Decolonization and the Remaking of Christianity unearths the roots of this development charting the metamorphosis of Christian practice and institutions across five continents throughout the pivotal years of decolonization The essays in this collection illustrate the diverse new ideas rituals and organizations created in the wake of Western imperialism s formal collapse and investigate how religious leaders politicians theologians and lay people debated and shaped a new Christianity for a postcolonial world Contributors argue that the collapse of colonialism and broader cultural challenges to Western power fostered new organizations theologies and political engagements across the world ultimately setting Christianity on its current trajectory away from its colonial heritage These essays interrogate decolonization s varied and conflicting impacts on global Christianity while also providing a novel framework for rethinking decolonization s modern legacies Taken together this book charts the relationship between decolonization and Christianity on a truly global scale Contributors Joel Cabrita Darcie Fontaine Elizabeth A Foster Udi Greenberg David Kirkpatrick Eric Morier Genoud Phi V n Nguyen Justin Reynolds Sarah Shortall Lydia Walker Charlotte Walker Said Albert Wu Gene Zubovich Doing Theology at the Grassroots Kalilombe, Patrick A., 2018-05-22 Patrick Kalilombe has been distinguished for more than twenty ve years as a pioneering theologian and ecclesiologist Circumstances have determined that much of his best work has been produced and published outside Malawi and through such diversity of outlets that it is very di cult for students and others to have access to his work as a whole Hence we are convinced that his collection of his essays will have a very wide appeal both in Malawi and beyond The chapters are quite varied in their origins and subjects but the reader will not take long to notice recurrent themes the author s missionary vocation the critical role of the grassroots in theological construction the integrity of Chewa traditional beliefs the combination of Catholic commitment with radical openness to all religious and cultural traditions Throughout the book is a series of photographs which lead progressively through the events of Bishop Kalilombe s 25th Jubilee celebration at Mua in 1997 The Origins and Development of African Theology Gwinyai H. Muzorewa, 2000-04-05 The Origins and Development of African theology is a very informative survey of African theology over approximately the last twenty years The author is widely read on the subject as far as English publications go and highlights the salient issues with balanced objectivity The literature both as discussed in the substance of the book and in the bibliography is also a valuable source for further study of African theology John Mbiti author of Prayers of African Religion Beyond Borders Virgilio

Elizondo, 2009-05-01 A celebration of the theology of Virgilio Elizondo that brings together his significant essays previously unpublished in book form along with critical reflections by a range of scholars Beyond Borders is an indispensable treatment of the breadth of Virgilio Elizondo's theological and pastoral vision Contributors include Thomas H Groome Orlando O Espin Jeeanette Rodriguez Roberto S Goizueta Justo L Gonzalez John A Coleman Alejandro Garcia Rivera Rosino Gibellini Gloria Ines Loya Anita de Luna R Stephen Warner Carlos Mendoza and Jacques Audinet Power and Responsibility in Biblical

Interpretation Alissa Jones Nelson, 2014-10-14 Power and Responsibility in Biblical Interpretation addresses the interpretive challenges now facing much biblical interpretation Incorporating the methodologies of poststructuralism postcolonialism and liberation theology the study presents a possible methodology which integrates scholarly and vernacular hermeneutics The approach is based on the theories of Edward Said adapting his concept of contrapuntal reading to the interpretation of Job The book sets this study in the broader context of a survey of current work in the field The analysis of Job examines the possibilities for dialogue between those interpretations that view suffering as a key theme in the book and those that do not Interpretations of the Book of Job are then compared to the psychology of suffering as experienced in various contexts today The conclusion argues for pedagogical reform based upon the ethical and interpretive insights of contrapuntal hermeneutics

The Gospel According to the Marginalized Harvey J. Sindima, 2008 This series is named for Martin Luther King Jr because of his eminence in religion and society and promotes scholarly research in areas that reflect the interrelatedness of religion and social cultural political development both in the American society and in the world Examination of religion and socio cultural components such as race relations economic developments marital and sexual relations inter ethnic cooperation contemporary political problems and Black American issues are welcomed Postcolonial Theologies: Divinity and Empire

P4011 R5050 Catherine Keller, 2004 A theology in tune with postcolonial theory has the potential to creatively inform and transform ecclesial practice Focusing on the relation of theology to postcolonial theory Postcolonial Theologies brings together a wide diversity of authors many of them fresh and exciting theological voices in essays that are stunningly creative and prophetically lucid All essays are theologically constructive not merely deconstructive or critical in their visions for Christianity Forming a sort of doctrinal landscape they emerge under the themes of theological anthropology shaped by ethnicity class and privilege a Christology that intersects the claims of Christ and empire and a Cosmology that imagines a postcolonial world The End of the Schism Udi Greenberg, 2025-05-01 After centuries of enmity why did Europe's Catholics and Protestants reconcile Udi Greenberg argues that modern Christian cooperation arose not from tolerance but from fears of socialism feminism and Afro Asian liberation movements In seeking to preserve Christian life these former rivals forged a lasting alliance that remade the continent
