Asias Struggle For Full Humanity:

Asia's Struggle for Full Humanity Virginia Fabella,1980 The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Fernald,2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia Africa and Latin America Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies A Reader this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century Mission in the Spirit Julie C. Ma,Wonsuk Ma,2010 Encountering Christ in the Suffering Humanity (Mt 25:31-46) Cynthia Pinto,2011 Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot,2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider s role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development Asia's Struggle for Full Humanity: Documents, pt. 1, book A ,1979 Black Theology--Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins,2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures A History of the Ecumenical Movement, Volume 2 Harold C. Fey,2009-12-01 Volume 2 1948 1968 first appeared in 1970 It covers the history of the World Council of Churches from its first assembly at Amsterdam to its fourth assembly at Uppsala Sweden analyzes the development of regional ecumenical organizations and recounts the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ecumenical witness of the Roman Catholic Church Asian Theology of Liberation Aloysius Pieris, 1988-03-09 Pieris confronts two of the most urgent and complex questions facing Christians today so many poor people and so many religions He believes that the approaches of the Christian Churches to these questions will determine whether Christianity will continue to have any relevance for Asia or not The Study of Spirituality Cheslyn Jones, Geoffrey

Wainwright, Edward Yarnold, 1986-12-11 Written by contributors representing the Anglican Roman Catholic Free Church and Orthodox traditions this collection examines the nature and form of individual Christian devotion throughout the centuries

Postcolonial Theologies: Divinity and Empire P4011 R5050 Catherine Keller, 2004 A theology in tune with postcolonial theory has the potential to creatively inform and transform ecclesial practice Focusing on the relation of theology to postcolonial theory Postcolonial Theologies brings together a wide diversity of authors many of them fresh and exciting theological voices in essays that are stunningly creative and prophetically lucid All essays are theologically constructive not merely deconstructive or critical in their visions for Christianity Forming a sort of doctrinal landscape they emerge under the themes of theological anthropology shaped by ethnicity class and privilege a Christology that intersects the claims of Christ and empire and a Cosmology that imagines a postcolonial world Cultural Afterlives of Jesus Gregory C.

Jenks, 2023-06-20 This collection of essays explores the impact of Jesus within and beyond Christianity including his many afterlives in literature and the arts social just and world religions during the past two thousand years and especially in the present global context This third volume focuses on the diverse afterlives of Jesus within contemporary culture and the arts Moving beyond the explicitly religious afterlives traced in the first two volumes this set of essay traces selected afterlives of Jesus within Indigenous cultures around the Pacific as well as in the arts and in the contested fields of gender and sexuality The contributors include religion scholars from diverse cultural contexts as well as faith practitioners reflecting on Jesus within their own particular context While the essays are all grounded in critical scholarship reflective practice or both they are expressed in nontechnical language that is accessible to interested nonspecialists Latin American Liberation

Theology David Tombs, 2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology The book is divided into five main sections the historical role of the church from Columbus's arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959 the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s the transitional decade of the 1970s the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s This book offers insights into liberation theology's profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details An Intercultural Theology of Migration

Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences. However, as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation, a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue. Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology, this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies. The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration.

The Cambridge Companion to Liberation Theology Christopher Rowland, 1999-03-13 Liberation theology is widely referred to in discussions of politics and religion but not always adequately understood. This Companion offers an introduction to the history and characteristics of liberation theology in its various forms in different parts of the world. Authors from four continents examine the emergence and character of liberation theology in Latin America, black theology, Asian theology, and the new situation arising from the end of the apartheid regime in South Africa. The major Christian Church's attitude to liberation theology and the extent of the movement's indebtedness to Marxism are examined, and a political theologian writing from another perspective of Christian theology offers an evaluation. Through a sequence of eleven chapters, readers are given a comprehensive description and evaluation of the different facets of this important theological and social movement. There is also an Introduction relating liberation theology to the history of theology and a Select Bibliography.

Journeys at the Margin Jung Young Lee, 1999 Being an immigrant is both being in between two cultures: that of the immigrant and that of the dominant group, and being in both of these cultures. It ultimately means being in beyond the two cultures together. In this book, a group of prominent Asian American Christian theologians reflect in an autobiographical form on how being an Asian and a North American has shaped the way they understand the Christian story. As the United States becomes increasingly multiethnic and multicultural, this book offers useful suggestions on how to meet the challenge of cultural diversity in both Church and society.

Leave the Temple Felix Wilfred, 2010-01-01 How can India, a land of intense poverty as well as unparalleled spirituality, be liberated? Where do the sources for its liberation lie? Leave the Temple brings together writings that weigh the practical and theoretical problems of hermeneutic pre-understandings of the socio-political situation in South Asia. Is the challenge of social transformation and human liberation one in which people must leave the temple to embrace the freeing insights of secularization? Or does leaving the temple to find God in the world of suffering humanity provide a richness and empowerment that secular models of the human future cannot replace? Contributors include Walter Fernandes on a socio-historical perspective for liberation theology in India and on bhakti; Yvon Ambrose on oppression and liberation in Indian society; Ignatius Puthiadam on trends in Hindu thought; T. K. John on liberation theology and Gandhian praxis; George M. Soares Prabhu on the liberative pedagogy of Jesus; Xavier Irudayaraj on interiority and liberation; Samuel Rayan on caste; Sebastian Kappen on social crisis and liberation; Michael Amaladoss on liberation as an interreligious project; and Felix Wilfred on the Catholic Church's participation in the liberation of India Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss, 2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation. As he shows, Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared. Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues, Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society. In Part One, Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea, the Philippines, and India. In two other chapters, he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance of sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia. In Part Two, Amaladoss discusses non-Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom, showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation. Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E. V. Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements. Gandhi's entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life. But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people. Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation. Similarly, Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole. In that construct, liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole. In Part Three, Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia.
