Asie Centrale Des Origines a L'âge Du Fer Philip L. Kohl, Henri Paul Francfort, J.-C. Gardin (arkæolog), 1984

Russian Central Asia Henry Lansdell, 1885 Islamisation de l'Asie Centrale Étienne de La Vaissière, 2008 Cet ouvrage propose une approche interdisciplinaire de la question de l'islamisation de l'Asie centrale du milieu du VII^e siècle au XI^e siècle Il réunit des articles de spécialistes de domaines très divers de la philologie à l'archéologie en passant par toutes les déclinaisons de la méthode historique des champs iranologiques et turcologiques pré islamiques et islamiques Islamisation est compris ici au sens global et non pas principalement religieux comme une série de processus régionaux d'acculturation vers la culture musulmane médiévale d'Asie centrale This book dwells on the cultural change which took place in Central Asia from the middle of the VIIth century to the XIth century Its articles come from a wide range of fields history philology archaeology and are written by specialists of Pre Islamic and Islamic Central Asia in its Iranian and Turkic components in a demonstration of interdisciplinarity Islamisation is not to be understood in a mainly religious meaning but as a convenient way to name the regional process of acculturation towards the Central Asian Medieval Islamic culture L'Asie Lucien Lanier, 1889 Origins of the Bronze Age Oasis Civilization in Central Asia Fredrik Talmage Hiebert, 1994-11-28 In 1988 89 Fred Hiebert excavated part of Gonur in collaboration with the Ministry of Culture of Turkmenistan and the Institute of Archaeology in Moscow Published here the results provide a key to understanding the large corpus of material of the Bactro Margiana Archaeological Complex extracted over the past 30 years Chinese Central Asia Henry Lansdell, 1893 The Geography of Central Asia Igor Jelen, Angelija Bučienė, Francesco Chiavon, Tommaso Silvestri, Katie Louise Forrest, 2021-03-01 This book provides a profound geographical description and analysis of Central Asia The authors take a synthetic approach in a period of critical transformation in the post soviet time The monograph analyzes comprehensively the physical and human geography as well as human nature interactions of Central Asia with focus on Kazakhstan Uzbekistan Turkmenistan Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan Natural processes are described at a systemic scale focusing on ecological impacts and consequences and contemporary human adaptations and organization It also discusses in which ways the human organizations try to apply solutions for their needs such as security territorial management and resources renewability material and functional needs identity elaborations culture and communication The Geography of Central Asia appeals to scientists and students of regional geography and interested academics from other areas such as social political economic and environmental studies within the context of Central Asia The book is also a very useful resource for field trips into this area History of civilizations of Central Asia Adle, Chahryar, UNESCO, 2005-10-03 This major six volume project co published with Macmillan covers the historical experience of the peoples and societies of the Caribbean region from the earliest times to the present day The sixth volume brings this series to an end as it takes in the whole of the modern period from colonial conquest and domination to decolonization the Cold War from start to finish the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the renewed instability in certain areas Not only did the colonial regimes lay a new patina over the region but nationalism remoulded all old identities into a series of new ones That process of the twentieth century was perhaps the most transformative of all after the colonial subjugation of the nineteenth While it has been the basis of remarkable stability in vast stretches of the region it has been a fertile source of tension and even wars in other parts The impact and the results of such changes have been astonishingly variable despite the proximity of these states to each other and their being subject to or driven by virtually the same compulsions
