Christology Daniel Gustafsson, 2022-03-18 Luke has often been understood to transmit a variety of Christological traditions without reflecting on them in relation to each other In this study Daniel Gustafsson challenges such positions and demonstrates that when the Gospel of Luke is approached as a narrative a different picture emerges Presentations of Jesus as Messiah Son of God prophet and Son of Man are shown to conform to Luke's overall plot and significantly overlap each other The voices of characters with high authority the use of Scripture and Jesus's relationship to the Holy Spirit are examples of other factors that contribute to coherency in Luke's Christology *Elements of Christian Theology ... God's Wounds: Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering, Volume Two Jeff B. Pool,2010-01-01

This book constitutes the second volume of a three volume study of Christian testimonies to divine suffering God s Wounds Hermeneutic of the Christian Symbol of Divine Suffering vol 2 Evil and Divine Suffering The larger study focuses its inquiry into the testimonies to divine suffering themselves seeking to allow the voices that attest to divine suffering to speak freely then to discover and elucidate the internal logic or rationality of this family of testimonies rather than defending these attestations against the dominant claims of classical Christian theism that have historically sought to eliminate such language altogether from Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume of studies proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of this symbol those implicit attestations that provide the conditions of possibility for divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation as identified and examined in the first volume of this project an understanding of God through the primary metaphor of love God is love and an understanding of the human as created in the image of God with a life though finite analogous to the divine life the imago Dei as love The second volume then investigates the first two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies to divine suffering normally attest 1 divine grief suffering because of betrayal by the beloved human or human sin and 2 divine self sacrifice suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation Each divine wound thus constitutes a response to a creaturely occasion The suffering in each divine wound also occurs in two stages a passive stage and an active stage In divine grief God suffers because of human sin betrayal of the divine lover by the beloved human divine sorrow as the passive stage of divine grief and divine anguish as the active stage of divine grief In divine self sacrifice God suffers in response to the misery or bondage of the beloved human s infidelity divine travail focused on the divine incarnation in Jesus of Nazareth as the active stage of divine self sacrifice and divine agony focused on divine suffering in the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth as the passive stage of divine self sacrifice Symbols of the Capital Amory Dwight Mayo, 1859 Christianity Alister E.
