Aspects Of Minimal Architecture II:

Aspects of Minimal Architecture II Maggie Toy, Bob Fear, Catherine Cooke, 1999 Minimal Architecture Ilka Ruby, Andreas Ruby, Angeli Sachs, Philip Ursprung, 2003 What is minimalism Or more specifically what isn't In this fascinating aesthetic voyage three experts in the field of architecture and art history trace the development of minimalism as a style and offer perspectives on the directions the movement is taking as it morphs towards the future In double page spreads filled with color photographs of the most innovative minimalist projects this book illustrates three principal movements the traditional as practiced by Herzog the ambiguous in which architects not commonly associated with minimalism such as OMA or Zaha Hadid use it for specific projects and the subversive which appropriates minimalist concepts across a variety of new fields as exemplified in the architecture of Shigeru Ban or Lacaton Vassal Minimalist Architecture Franco Bertoni, 2002-08 Minimalism as a concept was first used in the world of art to characterize the work of Donald Judd Sol Le Witt and several others Soon afterwards this creative approach began to take hold in architecture and the works of many contemporary architects are rooted in Minimalism to a greater or lesser degree This publication goes to the heart of this trend looking first at Loos Wittgenstein Mies van der Rohe and Asplund the definitive precursors of Minimalism Then the works of today's protagonists who include Tadao Ando Luis Barragan Alberto Campo Baeza A G Fronzoni Michael Gabellini John Pawson Claudio Silvestrin Eduardo Souto Moura and Peter Zumthor are covered extensively A selection of texts contributed by the featured architects conclude the volume With a clear even austere presentation this book not only reflects its contents but provides a comprehensive overview of Minimalism one of the dominant trends in contemporary architecture

The Transformable House Jonathan Bell,Sally Godwin,2000-12-27 For modern architects experimentation with space and the house plan provides the most fertile area of innovation allowing them to push established boundaries and question received conventions in domestic design As we enter the 21st century the incorporation of greater flexibility into housing has become a matter of urgency The traditional notion of the family unit is being exploded Small domestic groupings have become dispersed with the fragmentation of families and more people choosing to live alone At the same time the pressure put on space by multiple marriages and extended families means that the requirements for our home are never still as they constantly expand and contract The conventional layout for suburban housing can no longer sustain or cater for changing social needs This Architectural Design title fully explores the concept of transformability in house design Through a set of introductory essays by Iain Borden Catherine Croft James Gallie Dennis Sharp Stefan Muthesius and Miles Glendinning the roots of this phenomenon are examined in 20th century design It is however through the eleven case studies of contemporary architects projects that the concept of transformability is stretched to its full It is revealed to mean many things the integration of technology into the home the use of modular systems to facilitate construction and planning and the development of complex devices for modifying and customising architectural space on a day to day basis Young Blood Neil Spiller,2001-04-18 Established architects will be stunned by the design dexterity and creativity contained in Young Blood which brings together the speculative architectural projects of the very best young architects worldwide Guest edited by the cutting edge architect and passionate architectural educator Neil Spiller it features graduates of the premier architecture schools the Bartlett and the Architectural Association in London Sci arc and UCLA in Los Angeles Columbia in New York and RMIT in Australia Imaginative innovative and accomplished in their technical skills this generation of young blood exude a unique 21st century freshness and confidence It is a confidence that those currently at the top of their profession also share in their likely successors This is illustrated by the enthusiastic and supportive words from renowned architects that accompany each young designer s work
