Lapidus,2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies revised and updated for this second edition first published in 2002 Middle East United States. Lawless,2016-03-22 The Middle East defined here as extending from Morocco to Iran and Turkey to Sudan lies at the crossroads of three continents Africa Asia and Europe With the largest reserves of petroleum in the world its importance is well beyond its physical size and population Rapid urban growth has radically transformed Middle Eastern society in recent decades but the associated problems are incompletely understood This volume first published in 1980 highlights some of the major issues of Middle Eastern urbanisation and provides a comprehensive statement about the current position of research Urban origins and the nature of urban growth are discussed to provide a background to considerations of migration employment housing and retailing The contributors suggest that planning strategies have hitherto proved inadequate with small towns being largely overlooked historic quarters rapidly disappearing and water in short supply Future research into all these problem areas is considered essential but the research must be coordinated and utilised Concentrating on practical problems achievements and challenges for research the contributions in this book specially commissioned from active researchers in the field will prove a valuable guide to recent ideas and developments in the Middle East Unpublished Research on Near East Completed and in Progress ,1953

Property, Social Structure, and Law in the Modern Middle East Ann Elizabeth Mayer, 1985-01-01 For too long the study of law and society in the modern Middle East has been left to specialists in narrow subcategories of law or the social sciences. Property Social Structure and Law in the Modern Middle East lays the groundwork for a new field of scholarship in which analysis of the social dimensions of law and the legal dimensions of social structure are integrated. It offers the stimulus of a variety of new models of scholarship by a distinguished international group of contributors whose work shares a common focus on regimes of property in the societies of the modern Middle East. The case studies examine the regulations of many kinds of property in relation to the social structures of selected Middle Eastern communities from the eighteenth century to the present. Most of the societies studied are subjected to pressures for rapid modernization and adjustment to major economic transformations. The book features comparisons of property rights and relations under regimes of Islamic and customary law as well as modern statutory law. Highlighted are new patterns of intervention by modern Middle Eastern states to alter traditional regimes of property and to transform the accompanying social structures. Their implications for development are also considered. The book's notes and bibliographies constitute a valuable resource for anyone interested in further research.

Perspectives on the History of Ancient Near Eastern Studies Agnès Garcia-Ventura, Lorenzo Verderame, 2020-10-20 The present volume collects eighteen essays exploring the history of ancient Near Eastern studies. Combining diverse approaches synthetic and analytic diachronic and transnational this collection offers critical reflections on the who why and how of this cluster of fields. How have political contexts determined the conduct of research? How do academic agendas reflect larger social economic and cultural interests? How have schools of thought and intellectual traditions configured and sometimes predetermined the study of the ancient Near East? Contributions treating research during the Nazi and fascist periods examine the interpenetration of academic work with politics while contributions dealing with specific national contexts disclose fresh perspectives on individual scholars as well as the conditions and institutions in which they worked. Particular attention is given to scholarship in countries such as Turkey Portugal Iran China and Spain which have hitherto been marginal to historiographic accounts of ancient Near Eastern studies. In addition to the editors the contributors are Selim Ferru Adali Silvia Alaura Isabel Almeida Petr Charv t Parsa Daneshmand Eva von Dassow Hakan Erol Sebastian Fink Jakob Flygare Pietro Giammellaro Carlos Gon alves Katrien de Graef Steven W Holloway Ahmed Fatima Kzzog Changyu Liu Patrick Maxime Michel Emanuel Pfoh Jitka S korov Lud k Vac n and Jordi Vidal.
