Assessing Housing Needs and Policy Alternatives in Developing Countries Raymond J. Struyk, 1987      Assessing Housing Needs and Policy Alternatives in Developing Countries Raymond J. Struyk, 1988      Developing Community Housing Needs Assessments and Strategies Betty Jo White, 1992      Housing the Poor in the Developing World Graham Tipple, Kenneth G. Tipple, 2003-10-04 First Published in 2004 Housing policies and programmes tend to result from political expediency rather than a rational and informed analysis of the situation and the demands of individual households for housing Housing the Poor in the Developing World aims to show how methods of analysis can be used to improve efficacy and equity in housing projects and policies with analysis designed for local circumstances This book is aimed at satisfying the need to bring together methods of analysis from several disciplines which can be applied to housing Each method is presented and illustrated with a case study to show how it can be used to inform housing policy in a wide range of countries in all parts of the developing world      Microcomputer Model for Assessing National Housing Needs in Developing Countries Wendy Lynn Judy, 1989      Handbook of Regional and Urban Economics Peter Nijkamp, E.S. Mills, P.C. Cheshire, 1986 Fifteen essays in this handbook are divided into four parts Part I surveys basic spatial and spatially related research Part II surveys literature on specific urban markets Part III is devoted to studies of urban development and problems in developing countries Part IV contains papers on specific urban problems and sectors      Reforming Latin American Housing Markets, 2004      Preparing a National Housing Needs Assessment, 1984      The Urbanization Revolution R. May Jr., 2013-11-21 Illustrates some of the new approaches that will form the basis for planning and development assistance during the 1990s Articles are grouped under the following categories new commitments to shelter and national development policies mobilizing resources for housing infrastructure and finance      Housing Investment in Developing Countries Je-Hoon Lee, 1995      The Market for Shelter in Indonesian Cities Raymond J. Struyk, Michael L. Hoffman, Harold M. Katsura, 1990 This ambitious study of the urban housing market in Indonesia differs from previous analyses by addressing the urban housing market as a whole describing the processes of shelter supply as well as the stock and demand for housing and including an evaluation of the government sponsored subsidized housing lending program      Toward Ending Poverty Among the Elderly and Disabled Through SSI Reform Sheila R. Zedlewski, Jack A. Meyer, 1989      Living on the Margins: Social Access to Shelter in Urban South Asia Navtej K. Purewal, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The privatization of former social state housing through recent public private partnerships is becoming increasingly prevalent in Third World as well as in Western countries In most Third World countries this shift has had profound effects upon the patterns of access of shelter Drawing on studies of South Asian and other Third World contexts as well as original in depth empirical research from Amritsar a city in North West India this book offers an analysis of the withdrawal of state housing provision It develops and applies a unique model based on social status to analyze the new routes of access to housing and land by the urban poor Its conclusions argue that these new privatization policies largely rely upon already existing informal and self help settlements which continue to attract the poor and to be the largest housing providers in many cities thus providing a ready made safety net for such policies The inter linkages between the private state and the public market make up a highly diversified and complex picture of shelter arrangements being accessed by the poor which is reflected in the social differentiation and increasingly stratified housing market The book argues that these partnership policies therefore have long term implications upon social patterns of inclusion and exclusion which must be addressed

Providing Supportive Services to the Frail Elderly in Federally Assisted Housing Raymond J. Struyk,1989 Income Security in America John Logan Palmer,1988 After progress towards achieving major income security goals during the 1960s and 1970s economic slowdown and public reaction against the welfare state have curtailed direct intervention by the federal government for these purposes Absolute poverty and welfare dependency have increased in the 1980s especially among the young Major gaps also remain in affordable housing and health insurance coverage among the lower middle class and there is a growing need for long term care among the aged A resurgence of economic growth is needed to facilitate political consensus for income security policies to improve these conditions Data are presented on nine tables and figures Footnotes are included Author BJV Subsidizing Shelter Sandra J. Newman,Ann Burnet Schnare,1988 This study examines the relationship between income and housing assistance programs The welfare system through the explicit and implicit shelter allowances that welfare recipients receive as part of their public assistance benefits spends at least 10 billion a year on housing assistance roughly the same as the Department of Housing and Urban Development Yet the two streams of government financing for low income housing are uncoordinated and frequently overlapping Part 1 presents new evidence on both the nature and the impact of this tow pronged approach to providing shelter assistance to the poor It compares the level of benefits available to households receiving various combinations of aid and documents the housing outcomes that are produced by the two systems of shelter support Part 2 presents detailed statistics on estimated shelter allowances under Aid to Families with Dependent Children AFDC Supplemental Security Income SSI and General Assistance GA for each of the fifty states and the District of Columbia Subsequent reports will focus on alternative policy strategies for addressing weaknesses in the current system Abstract Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1991 African Urban Quarterly ,1987 A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts ,1987 Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1985
