Black Eagle Child:

Black Eagle Child Ray Young Bear, 2015-10-27 Mixing prose and poetry ancient traditions and modern sensibilities this brilliant profane and poignant coming of age story is a masterpiece of Native American literature At a Thanksgiving party held in a Bureau of Indian Affairs gymnasium the elders of the Meskwaki Settlement in central Iowa sip coffee while the teenagers plot their escape Edgar Bearchild and Ted Facepaint too broke to join their friends for a night of drinking in a nearby farm town decide to attend a ceremonial gathering of the Well Off Man Church a tribal sect with hallucinogenic practices After partaking of the congregation's sacred star medicine Edgar receives a prophetic vision and comes to a newfound understanding of his people's past and present that will ultimately reshape the course of his life Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous 1960s Black Eagle Child is the story of Edgar's passage from boyhood to manhood from his youthful misadventures with Ted to his year at prestigious liberal arts college in California to his return to Iowa and success as a poet Deftly crossing genre boundaries and weaving together a multitude of tones and images from grief to humor grape Jell O to supernatural strobe lights it is also an unforgettable portrait of what it means to be a Native American in the modern world

Black Eagle Child Ray A. Young Bear, 1992-01-01 Unrevised page proofs Remnants of the First Earth Ray Young Bear, 2007-12-01 The American Indian author of Black Eagle Child paints a portrait of a writer struggling both to preserve his people's heritage and to turn it into art The New York Times Book Review Ray A Young Bear's work has been called magnificent by the New York Times and a national treasure by the Bloomsbury Review Dazzlingly original but with deep roots in his traditional Mesquakie culture Young Bear is a master wordsmith poised with trickster like aplomb between the ancient world of his forefathers and the ever encroaching blurred face of modernity Remnants of the First Earth continues the story of Edgar Bearchild Young Bear's fictionalized alter ego which began with Black Eagle Child a New York Times Notable Book for 1992 Young Bear revisits the Black Eagle Child Settlement and its residents including Ted Facepaint Rose Grassleggings Junior Pipestar Lorna Bearcap and Luciano Bearchild At the center of the novel is a murder investigation involving a powerful shaman holding court at the local Ramada Inn negligent white cops from nearby Why Cheer and corrupt tribal authorities This lyrical narrative swirls through the present and into the mysteries of the age old stories and myths that still haunt inform and enlighten this uniquely American community Young Bear's prose pulses with lyrical ferocity blending narrative verse and tribal myth in a seamless web Young Bear an acclaimed poet here emerges as a major Native novelist Publishers Weekly Postindian Aesthetics Debra K. Deep Waters Christopher B. Teuton, 2018-11-01 Weaving connections between indigenous modes of oral storytelling visual depiction and contemporary American Indian literature Deep Waters demonstrates the continuing relationship between traditional and contemporary Native American systems of creative representation and signification Christopher B Teuton begins with a study of Mesoamerican writings Din sand paintings and Haudenosaunee wampum belts He proposes a theory of how and why indigenous oral and graphic means of recording thought are interdependent their functions and purposes determined by social political and cultural contexts The center of this book examines four key works of contemporary American Indian literature by N Scott Momaday Gerald Vizenor Ray A Young Bear and Robert J Conley Through a textually grounded exploration of what Teuton calls the oral impulse the graphic impulse and the critical impulse we see how and why various types of contemporary Native literary production are interrelated and draw from long standing indigenous methods of creative representation Teuton breaks down the disabling binary of orality and literacy offering readers a cogent historically informed theory of indigenous textuality that allows for deeper readings of Native American cultural and literary expression

Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works

Why I Can't Read Wallace Stegner and Other Essays Elizabeth Cook-Lynn, 1996-09-01 This provocative collection of essays reveals the passionate voice of a Native American feminist intellectual Elizabeth Cook Lynn a poet and literary scholar grapples with issues she encountered as a Native American in academia She asks questions of critical importance to tribal people who is telling their stories where does cultural authority lie and most important how is it possible to develop an authentic tribal literary voice within the academic community In the title essay Why I Can't Read Wallace Stegner Cook Lynn objects to Stegner's portrayal of the American West in his fiction contending that no other author has been more successful in serving the interests of the nation's fantasy about itself When Stegner writes that Western history sort of stopped at 1890 and when he claims the American West as his native land Cook Lynn argues he negates the whole past present and future of the native peoples of the continent Her other essays include discussion of such Native American writers as Michael Dorris Ray Young Bear and N Scott Momaday the importance of a tribal voice in academia the risks to American Indian women in current law practices the future of Indian Nationalism and the defense of the land Cook Lynn emphasizes that her essays move beyond the narrowly autobiographical not just about gender and power not just focused on multiculturalism and diversity but are about intellectual and political issues that engage readers and writers in Native American studies Studying the Indian Cook Lynn reminds us is not just an academic exercise but a matter of survival for the lifeways of tribal peoples Her goal in these essays is to open conversations that can make tribal life and academic life more responsive to one another

The Native American Renaissance Alan R. Velie, A. Robert Lee, 2013-11-11 The outpouring of Native American literature that followed the publication of N Scott Momaday's Pulitzer Prize winning House Made of Dawn in 1968 continues unabated Fiction and poetry autobiography and discursive writing from such writers as James Welch Gerald Vizenor and Leslie Marmon Silko constitute what critic Kenneth Lincoln in 1983 termed the Native American

Renaissance This collection of essays takes the measure of that efflorescence The contributors scrutinize writers from Momaday to Sherman Alexie analyzing works by Native women First Nations Canadian writers postmodernists and such theorists as Robert Warrior Jace Weaver and Craig Womack Weaver's own examination of the development of Native literary criticism since 1968 focuses on Native American literary nationalism Alan R Velie turns to the achievement of Momaday to examine the ways Native novelists have influenced one another Post renaissance and postmodern writers are discussed in company with newer writers such as Gordon Henry Jr and D L Birchfield Critical essays discuss the poetry of Simon Ortiz Kimberly Blaeser Diane Glancy Luci Tapahonso and Ray A Young Bear as well as the life writings of Janet Campbell Hale Carter Revard and Jim Barnes An essay on Native drama examines the work of Hanay Geiogamah the Native American Theater Ensemble and Spider Woman Theatre In the volume's concluding essay Kenneth Lincoln reflects on the history of the Native American Renaissance up to and beyond his seminal work and discusses Native literature's legacy and future The essays collected here underscore the vitality of Native American literature and the need for debate on theory and ideology

The Heart as a Drum Robin Riley Fast,1999 An accessible introduction to a wide range of contemporary poetry by Native Americans New Indians, Old Wars Elizabeth Cook-Lynn,2023-12-11 Challenging received American history and forging a new path for Native American studies Addressing Native American Studies past present and future the essays in New Indians Old Wars tackle the discipline head on presenting a radical revision of the popular view of the American West in the process Instead of luxuriating in its past glories or accepting the widespread historians view of the West as a shared place Elizabeth Cook Lynn argues that it should be fundamentally understood as stolen Firmly grounded in the reality of a painful past Cook Lynn understands the story of the American West as teaching the political language of land theft and tyranny She argues that to remedy this situation Native American studies must be considered and pursued as its own discipline rather than as a subset of history or anthropology She makes an impassioned claim that such a shift not merely an institutional or theoretical change could allow Native American studies to play an important role in defending the sovereignty of indigenous nations today The American Midwest Andrew R. L. Cayton,Richard Sisson,Chris Zacher,2006-11-08 This first ever encyclopedia

Robert Dale Parker, 2018-08-06 In an original widely researched and accessibly written book Robert Dale Parker helps redefine the study of Native American literature by focusing on issues of gender and literary form Among the writers Parker highlights are Thomas King John Joseph Mathews D Arcy McNickle Leslie Marmon Silko and Ray A Young Bear some of whom have previously received little scholarly attention Parker proposes a new history of Native American literature by reinterpreting its concerns with poetry orality and Indian notions of authority He also addresses representations of Indian masculinity uncovering Native literature's recurring fascination with restless young men who have nothing to do or who suspect or feel pressured to believe that they have nothing to do The Invention of Native American Literature reads Native writing through a wide variety of shifting historical contexts In its commitment to historicizing Native writing and identity Parker's work parallels developments in scholarship on other minority literatures and is sure to provoke controversy

Indians in Unexpected Places Philip Joseph Deloria, 2004 Despite the passage of time our vision of Native Americans remains locked up within powerful stereotypes That's why some images of Indians can be so unexpected and disorienting What is Geronimo doing sitting in a Cadillac Why is an Indian woman in beaded buckskin sitting under a salon hairdryer Such images startle and challenge our outdated visions even as the latter continue to dominate relations between Native and non Native Americans Philip Deloria explores this cultural discordance to show how stereotypes and Indian experiences have competed for ascendancy in the wake of the military conquest of Native America and the nation's subsequent embrace of Native authenticity Rewriting the story of the national encounter with modernity Deloria provides revealing accounts of Indians doing unexpected things singing opera driving cars acting in Hollywood in ways that suggest new directions for American Indian history Focusing on the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a time when according to most standard American narratives Indian people almost dropped out of history itself Deloria argues that a great many Indians engaged the very same forces of modernization that were leading non Indians to reevaluate their own understandings of themselves and their society He examines longstanding stereotypes of Indians as invariably violent suggesting that even as such views continued in American popular culture they were also transformed by the violence at Wounded Knee He tells how Indians came to represent themselves in Wild West shows and Hollywood films and also examines sports music and even Indian people's use of the automobile an ironic counterpoint to today's highways teeming with Dakota pick ups and Cherokee sport utility vehicles Throughout Deloria shows us anomalies that resist pigeonholing and force us to rethink familiar expectations Whether considering the Hollywood films of James Young Deer or the Hall of Fame baseball career of pitcher Charles Albert Bender he persuasively demonstrates that a significant number of Indian people engaged in modernity and helped shape its anxieties and its textures at the very moment they were being defined as primitive These secret histories Deloria suggests compel us to reconsider our own current expectations about what Indian people should be how they should act and even what they should look like More important he shows how such seemingly harmless even if unconscious expectations contribute to the racism and injustice that still haunt the experience of many Native American people today
