Black Enterprise Lessons From The Top Success Strategies From Americas Leading Black Ceos:

Black Enterprise Lessons from the Top Derek T. Dingle, 2002-06-21 PRAISE FOR LESSONS FROM THE TOP Lessons from the Top challenges the vintage profile of the entrepreneur by showcasing the impressive and dynamic careers of African American executives who surmounted social economic and political barriers to gain their deserved place in today's world of the business elite Kweisi Mfume President and CEO NAACP Lessons from the Top aptly documents the achievements of African American entrepreneurs who embody the legacy of the twentieth century and the hope of the twenty first century The principles espoused by these esteemed business leaders are essential to the future of the civil rights movement as we prepare our children for self reliance and our adults for economic self sufficiency in the next century Hugh B Price President National Urban League Lessons from the Top profiles eleven of the most powerful and influential CEOs of the nation's largest black owned businesses across a broad cross section of industries These compelling and motivating stories of personal triumph and business success will surely light the way for the next generation of great African American business leaders Don H Barden Emma C Chappell Mel Farr Sr Charles H James III John H Johnson Robert L Johnson Byron E Lewis Herman J Russell Simmons Clarence O Smith Percy E Sutton African American Entrepreneurs Philip Wolny, 2017-07-15 Starting a business is inherently risky but it has historically been much harder for African Americans due to the systemic racism they face in many different areas However many black entrepreneurs have overcome those barriers to create successful businesses working harder than their white counterparts to achieve similar results Readers will learn about the history of discrimination against African Americans in the business world and how it has been and still can be combated Historical and contemporary photographs and a comprehensive timeline shine a spotlight on many African American entrepreneurs who have changed the world Black Enterprise, 2006 News for All the People Joseph Torres, Juan González, 2012-09-11 From colonial newspapers to the Internet age America's racial divisions have played a central role in the creation of the country's media system just as the media has contributed to and every so often combated racial oppression This acclaimed book called a masterpiece by the esteemed scholar Robert W McChesney and chosen as one of 2011's best books by the Progressive reveals how racial segregation distorted the information Americans have received even as it depicts the struggle of Black Latino Asian and Native American journalists who fought to create a vibrant yet little known alternative democratic press Written in an exciting story driven style and replete with memorable portraits of journalists both famous and obscure News for All the People is destined to become the standard history of the American media News for All the People Juan Gonzalez, Joseph Torres, 2011-12-23 A new sweeping narrative history of American news media that puts race at the center of the story From the earliest colonial newspapers to the Internet age America's racial divisions have played a central role in the creation of the country's media system just as the media has contributed to and every so often combated racial oppression News for All the People reveals how racial segregation distorted the information Americans received from the mainstream media It unearths numerous examples of how publishers and broadcasters actually fomented racial violence and discrimination through their coverage And it chronicles the influence federal media policies exerted in such conflicts It depicts the struggle of Black Latino Asian and Native American journalists who fought to create a vibrant yet little known alternative democratic press and then beginning in the 1970s forced open the doors of the major media companies Written in an exciting story driven style and replete with memorable portraits of journalists both famous and obscure News for All the People weaves back and forth between the corporate and government leaders who built our segregated media system such as Herbert Hoover whose Federal Radio Commission eagerly awarded a license to a notorious Ku Klux Klan organization in the nation s capital and those who rebelled against that system Based on years of original archival research and up to the minute reporting and written by two veteran journalists and leading advocates for a more inclusive and democratic media system News for All the People should become the standard history of American media
