Black Expressions 2003 Calendar Celebrating Black Heritage And Culture:

Urbanization and African Cultures Toyin Falola, Steven J. Salm, 2005 Urbanization and African Cultures affirms the centrality of African cities in the modernization of African cultures showing how many have become firmly established in their settings and reflecting the impact of globalization Cities are presented as centers of culture and power and as powerful agencies that provide opportunities to generate new ideas The book shows how cities empower Africans with the opportunity to assert themselves to use culture to assert individual freedom and dignity to articulate ideas of ethnicity and group solidarity to portray class and even to show off poverty Valuable attention is paid to cities and urban phenomena off the paths beaten by most Western trained scholars African Studies Review This book successfully introduces readers to a range of cases that show the creative translocal processes taking place on the ground in African cities The International Journal of African Historical Studies

Hypersexuality and Headscarves Damani J. Partridge, 2012-02-17 In this compelling study Damani J Partridge explores citizenship and exclusion in Germany since the fall of the Berlin Wall That event seemed to usher in a new era of universal freedom but post reunification transformations of German society have in fact produced noncitizens non white and foreign Germans who are simultaneously portrayed as part of the nation and excluded from full citizenship Partridge considers the situation of Vietnamese guest workers left behind in the former East Germany images of hypersexualized black bodies reproduced in popular culture and intimate relationships and debates about the use of the headscarf by Muslim students and teachers In these and other cases which regularly provoke violence against those perceived to be different he shows that German national and European projects are complicit in the production of distinctly European noncitizens

The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions Patrick Taylor, Frederick I. Case, 2013-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions is the definitive reference for Caribbean religious phenomena from a Caribbean perspective Generously illustrated this landmark project combines the breadth of a comparative approach to religion with the depth of understanding of Caribbean spirituality as an ever changing and varied historical phenomenon Organized alphabetically entries examine how Caribbean religious experiences have been shaped by and have responded to the processes of colonialism and the challenges of the postcolonial world Systematically organized by theme and area the encyclopedia considers religious traditions such as Vodou Rastafari Sunni Islam Sanatan Dharma Judaism and the Roman Catholic and Seventh day Adventist churches Detailed subentries present topics such as religious rituals beliefs practices specific historical developments geographical differences and gender roles within major traditions Also included are entries that address the religious dimensions of geographical territories that make up the Caribbean Representing the culmination of more than a decade of work by the associates of the Caribbean Religions Project The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions will foster a greater understanding of the role of religion in Caribbean life and society in the Caribbean diaspora and in wider national and transnational spaces
