Family Life in Black America Robert Joseph Taylor, James S. Jackson, Linda M. Chatters, 1997-08-13 Most studies of Black families have had a problem focus offering a narrow view of important issues such as out of wedlock births single parent families and childhood poverty Family Life in Black America moves away from this negative perspective and instead deals with a wide range of issues including sexuality procreation infancy adulthood adolescence cohabitation parenting grandparenting and ageing A fresh aspect of this book is the amount of diversity it reveals within black families and the forces that shape limit and enhance them

A Different Vision Thomas D Boston, 2002-01-04 This work brings together for the first time the ideas philosophies and interpretations of North America's leading African American economists demonstrating that racial inequality has had an immense impact on African Americans daily lives

Afrocentric Traditions James L. Conyers, Jr., 2011-12-31 Ever since the first contacts between Europe and Africa African people have operated from the fringes of Eurocentric experience in the Western mind Much of what we have studied in African history and culture or literature and linguistics or politics and economics has been orchestrated from the standpoint of Europe's interests Whether it is a matter of economics history politics geographical concepts or art Africans have been seen as peripheral This volume reviews the past in order to evaluate the present and move ahead with appropriate policies for the future The articles in this volume the first in a new serial publication in Africana studies cover a broad range of subject matter and methodology Topics range from the W E B DuBois Booker T Washington schism that led to the formation of the Niagara movement to the popular dissemination of black hip hop culture It opens with a description of Afrocentricity by Molefi K Asante Kobi K Kambon and Reginald Rackley discuss the construct that produces European cultural misidentification among Africans Nell Irvin Painter in discussing the Shoah and Southern history parallels the rhetoric of hate that permeated the late nineteenth and early twentieth century German diatribes against Jews with that of the Southern white supremacists against blacks Anthony B Pinn notes similarities that tie together slavery and colonialism in a bond of existential and ontological destruction Anthony J Lemelle Jr examines critical issues about black masculinity James B Stewart elaborates on the development of Africana studies Julius E Thompson explores the historical importance of the African American writer in Mississippi history Cary DeCordova Wintz the basis of the conflict between W E B DuBois and Booker T Washington in an effort to expose its underlying causes James L Conyers Jr summarizes social and cultural movements in particular the popular black hip hop culture Rounding out the presentations Lea Redmond and Charles P Henry trace the roots of black studies in the United States Afrocentric Traditions will have particular interest for scholars in the fields of American studies cultural studies historians sociologists and specialists in African American studies James L Conyers Jr is a University Professor of African American Studies and director African American studies program University of Houston The Housing Status of Black Americans Wilhelmina A. Leigh, 2021-10-18 This text tracks the chain of events since the civil rights movement that have led to the current uncertain situation In comprehensive overviews and case studies covering seven metropolitan areas this volume provides an examination of prevailing housing conditions and their effect on special populations within the black community and assesses judicial and legislative means of improving the status of both homeowners and renters The Housing Status of Black Americans James Benjamin Stewart, In comprehensive overviews and case studies covering seven metropolitan areas this volume provides an examination of prevailing housing conditions and their effect on special populations within the black community and assesses judicial and legislative means of improving the status of both homeowners and renters The 11 articles were originally published in the The Review of Black Political Economy v 19 nos 3 4 Winter Spring 1991 No index Annotation c by Book News Inc Portland Or Why America Needs Religion Guenter Lewy, 1996 In this trenchant analysis of the moral decline of modern America Lewy describes the moral crisis caused by secular modernity and points to the role of religiousness as a necessary bulwark against today's social ills

Introduction to African American Studies Talmadge Anderson, James Benjamin Stewart, 2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d Children of Color Hiram E. Fitzgerald, Barry M. Lester, 2019-09-16 By the year 2050 the population of the United States is projected to be approximately half white and half non white Yet the knowledge of child development within ethnic minority groups lags markedly behind knowledge of child development for white Americans and it is increasingly clear that the rich diversity within minority groups is masked by studies focusing on between group comparisons Children of Color Research Health and Public Policy Issues a collection of original essays brings together researchers from the fields of education family and child ecology nursing psychology sociology pediatrics anthropology and social work to explore the rich cultural familial and individual diversity of all ethnic minority groups The essays were generated by round table discussions sponsored by the Society for Research in Child Development and the Irving Harris Foundation and they cover a broad range of topics including immigration policy social policy health status of immigrant infants children and families and educational policies related to minority children A Guide to the Clinical Care of Women with HIV Jean Anderson (Gynecologist),2001 After
