Black Frenchmen The Political Integration Of The French Antilles

William F. S. Miles

Black Frenchmen The Political Integration Of The French Antilles:

Black Frenchmen Arvin Murch,1972 In Search of a National Identity: Creole and Politics in Guadeloupe

Ellen M. Schnepel,2025-05-15 Guadeloupe gehört zu den französischen Altkolonien die nicht in die Unabhängigkeit entlassen wurden sondern seit 1946 als Départements d'outre mer ein Teil des Mutterlandes geworden sind Die Departementalisierung sollte nach der Vorstellung ihrer Verfechter darunter Aim C saire in eine sprachliche und kulturelle Assimilation an Frankreich einmünden Die Aufgabe der antillischen Identität und der kreolischen Sprache fand jedoch keineswegs einhellige Zustimmung Nicht zuletzt bestimmt durch die ausbleibenden wirtschaftlichen und politischen Erfolge der Departementalisierung bildeten sich seit den 1960er Jahren vor allem in Martinique und Guadeloupe Bewegungen zur Rückbesinnung auf die eigene Identität zuerst als antillanisch dann als kreolisch bezeichnet die mit der Aufwertung des Kreolischen seiner Standardisierung sowie der zunehmenden Verwendung im öffentlichen Leben einhergehen Diese Studie über das mouvement kreole in Guadeloupe ab den 1970er Jahren erhält besondere Aktualität vor dem Hintergrund der zu T sehr polemisch geführten Debatte die 2001 durch die Einführung eines Examens für Kreolischlehrer im Sekundarbereich in Frankreich und in den überseeischen Departements ausgelöst wurde Damit wurde der Forderung Rechnung getragen das Kreolische den anderen Regionalsprachen in Frankreich im Erziehungswesen gleichzustellen Schnepel's fascinating account is a must read for anyone concerned with language politics in the French Caribbean It will be of a great interest to many others as well including those who study language politics and language planning in general language revival and Caribbean literature of French expression aus Journal of Pidgin and Creole Languages 21 2 2006 French Urbanism in Foreign Lands Ambe J. Njoh,2015-12-10 This book will seek to close the gaps on the role of France in exporting Eurocentric spatial and environmental design principles and practice It does so by analyzing the major spatial and physical development projects that French colonial authorities implemented in France's colonial empire and elsewhere from the 15th to the 20th century French urban planning ideology principles and practice were not exported exclusively to territories under French colonial suzerainty Accordingly the book focuses on major physical and spatial planning schemes inspired by French planning thought in territories without a history of French colonialism Ruling Emancipated Slaves and Indigenous Subjects Olukunle P. Owolabi,2023 An examination of the divergent developmental legacies of forced settlement and colonial occupation on both sides of the Black Atlantic world The European powers that colonized much of the world over the last few hundred years created a variety of social systems in their various colonies In Ruling Emancipated Slaves and Indigenous Subjects Olukunle P Owolabi explores the divergent developmental trajectories of Global South nations that were shaped by forced settlement where European colonists imported African slaves to establish large scale agricultural plantations or by colonial occupation which resulted in the exploitation of indigenous non white populations Owolabi shows that most forced settlement colonies emerged from European domination with higher levels of education attainment greater postcolonial democratization and favorable human development outcomes relative to Global South countries that emerged from colonial occupation after 1945 To explain this paradox he examines the distinctive legal administrative institutions that were used to control indigenous colonial subjects and highlights the impact of liberal reforms that expanded the legal rights and political agency of former slaves following abolition Spanning three centuries of colonial history and postcolonial development this is the first book to systematically examine the distinctive patterns of state building that resulted from forced settlement and colonial occupation in the Black Atlantic world Seeking Imperialism's Embrace Kristen Stromberg Childers, 2016 This book explores France's complex history of integration and national identity by tracing the unique and historically significant political journey of the Caribbean islands of Martinique and Guadeloupe the French Antilles Provided by publisher Self-help Housing, the Poor, and the State in the Caribbean Robert B. Potter, Dennis Conway, 1997 This collection of essays represents the first in depth scholarly treatment of housing policies and conditions throughout the Caribbean The contributors consider both the performance of the state and the autonomous activities of the poor making this volume an invaluable contribution to future planning and debate The essays each dealing with a specific island or group of islands collectively address four main themes the history of housing provision since colonization current housing conditions state policies toward housing provision and the changing relationships between governments international funding agencies the private housing sector and the peoples responses These investigations not only highlight the often alarming problems that Caribbean nations face in providing adequate housing for the poor but also implicate governments in past and present failures and poor performances However the essays are also filled with useful insights about the ways in which progressive housing policies can be formulated and implemented For example the volume suggests that the Caribbean's rich heritage of folk and vernacular architectural styles should be taken into serious account in future planning efforts In a concluding synthesis chapter the volume editors argue that a more progressive future is attainable if all parties exhibit the political will that the poor have already demonstrated

Scars of Partition William F. S. Miles, 2014-07-01 Based on three decades of fieldwork throughout the developing world Scars of Partition is the first book to systematically evaluate the long term implications of French and British styles of colonialism and decolonization for ordinary people throughout the so called Third World It pays particular attention to the contemporary legacies of artificial boundaries superimposed by Britain and France that continue to divide indigenous peoples into separate postcolonial states In so doing it uniquely illustrates how the distinctive stamps of France and Britain continue to mark daily life along and behind these inherited borders in Africa Asia Oceania and the Caribbean Scars of Partition draws on political science anthropology history and geography to examine six cases of indigenous indentured and enslaved peoples partitioned by colonialism in West Africa West Indies South Pacific Southeast Asia South India and the Indian Ocean William F S Miles demonstrates that sovereign nations throughout the developing world despite basic differences in culture geography and politics still bear the underlying imprint of their colonial pasts Disentangling and appreciating these embedded colonial legacies is critical to achieving full decolonization particularly in their borderlands

The Haunting Past Alvin O. Thompson, 2015-02-24 First Published in 2015 This book places in firm historical perspective the roots of Caribbean dependency highlighting the ways in which the region has been and continues to be a pawn in Great Power politics and economics The past is both haunting and daunting seriously hampering the region's capacity to pursue an autonomous path The author develops his argument by focusing on how politics economics and race have shaped Caribbean history and contemporary life Discussions and analysis include examples from the Anglophone Spanish French and Dutch speaking Caribbean islands and countries Thompson also attempts to provide prescriptions that would free the region from the shackles of the past and place the countries on the path to independence

Hausaland Divided William F. S. Miles, 2015-08-20 How have different forms of colonialism shaped societies and their politics William F. S. Miles focuses on the Hausa speaking people of West Africa whose land is still split by an arbitrary boundary established by Great Britain and France at the turn of the century In 1983 Miles returned as a Fulbright scholar to the region where he had served as a Peace Corps volunteer in the late 1970s Already fluent in the Hausa language he established residence in carefully selected twin villages on either side of the border separating the Republic of Niger from the Federal Republic of Nigeria Over the next year and then during subsequent visits he traveled by horseback between the two places conducting archival research collecting oral testimony and living the ethnographic life Miles argues that the colonial imprint of the British and the French can still be discerned more than a generation after the conferring of formal independence on Nigeria and Niger Moreover such influences persist even in the relatively remote countryside in the nature of economic transactions in local education practices in the practice of Islam in the operation of chieftaincy In Hausaland as throughout the world the border illuminates the vital differences between otherwise similar societies

Race and Revolutionary Consciousness Ivar Oxaal, 1971-01-01 Journalistic account of racial conflict and Black nationalism in Trinidad and Tobago covers political aspects of race relations political opposition etc Illustrations

Migration in Comparative Perspective Margaret Byron, Stéphanie Condon, 2008-01-07 This book presents a comparative perspective on post war Caribbean migration to Britain and France Both migrations were responses to the link between former colonies and colonial powers However the movements of labor occurred within separately and differently evolving political contexts affecting the migration outcomes Today Caribbean communities in Europe display complex features of continuity and change Condon and Byron examine trends in migration patterns household and family structures social fields employment and housing trajectories in detail This systematic comparison with its innovative focus on gender and life course is an excellent addition to the existing literature on the Caribbean diaspora

Centring the Periphery Patrick L. Baker, 1994 The Modern Caribbean Franklin W. Knight, Colin A. Palmer, 2014-07-01 This collection of thirteen original essays by experts in the field of Caribbean studies clarifies the diverse elements that have shaped the modern Caribbean Through an interdisciplinary examination of the complexities of race politics language and environment that mark the region the authors offer readers a thorough understanding of the Caribbean s history and culture The essays also comment thoughtfully on the problems that confront the Caribbean in today s world The essays focus on the Caribbean island and the mainland enclaves of Belize and the Guianas Topics examined include the Haitian Revolution of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries labor and society in the nineteenth century Caribbean society and culture in the British and French West Indies since 1870 identity race and black power in Jamaica the February Revolution of 1970 in Trinidad contemporary Puerto Rico politics economy and society in twentieth century Cuba Spanish Caribbean politics and nationalism in the nineteenth century Caribbean migrations economic history of the British Caribbean international relations and nationalism nation and ideology in the evolution of Caribbean literature The authors trace the historical roots of current Caribbean difficulties and analyze these problems in the light of economic political and social developments Additionally they explore these conditions in relation to United States interests and project what may lie ahead for the region The challenges currently facing the Caribbean note the editors impose a heavy burden upon political leaders who must struggle to eliminate the tensions when the people are so poor and their expectations so great The contributors are Herman L Bennett Bridget Brereton David Geggus Franklin W Knight Anthony P Maingot Jay R Mandle Roberto M rquez Teresita Mart nez Vergne Colin A Palmer Bonham C Richardson Franciso A Scarano and Blanca G Silvestrini Latin America Review of Books Colin Harding, Christopher Roper, 1973 Background Notes, French Antilles and Guiana , 1989 Third World/Iowa: Latin America University of Iowa. Libraries, 1987 The Political Economy of Caribbean Development M. Bishop, 2013-09-12 Studies of the global political economy have rarely engaged with development in the Caribbean the thought of its indigenous intellectuals or the non sovereign territories of the region Matthew Bishop compares the development of the independent English speaking islands of St Lucia and St Vincent and their non sovereign French neighbours Martinique and Guadeloupe By explaining how distinctive patterns of British and French colonialism and decolonisation came to bear on them he investigates how very different patterns of development have subsequently ensued often with startling consequences in this era of globalization and crisis By engaging with the empirical reality of the Caribbean his study sheds light on a range of wider debates relating to development indigenous thought post colonial sovereignty small states and the contemporary evolution of the global political economy Elections and Ethnicity in French Martinique William F. S. Miles, 1986 The Publishers Weekly , 1973 Anthropology , 1986
