Black In White America Before 1865 Issues And Interpretations:

Blacks in White America Before 1865 Robert V. Haynes, 1972 The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America The Burden of Black Religion Curtis J. Evans, 2008-04-17 Religion has always been a focal element in the long and tortured history of American ideas about race In The Burden of Black Religion Curtis Evans traces ideas about African American religion from the antebellum period to the middle of the twentieth century Central to the story he argues was the deep rooted notion that blacks were somehow naturally religious At first this assumed natural impulse toward religion served as a signal trait of black people s humanity potentially their unique contribution to American culture Abolitionists seized on this point linking black religion to the black capacity for freedom Soon however these first halting steps toward a multiracial democracy were reversed As Americans began to value reason rationality and science over religious piety the idea of an innate black religiosity was used to justify preserving the inequalities of the status quo Later social scientists both black and white sought to reverse the damage caused by these racist ideas and in the process proved that blacks were in fact fully capable of incorporation into white American culture This important work reveals how interpretations of black religion played a crucial role in shaping broader views of African Americans and had real consequences in their lives In the process Evans offers an intellectual and cultural history of race in a crucial period of American history Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 The Palgrave Handbook of Africa and the Changing Global Order Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2021-11-22 This handbook fills a large gap in the current knowledge about the critical role of Africa in the changing global order By connecting the past present and future in a continuum that shows the paradox of existence for over one billion people the book underlines the centrality of the African continent to global knowledge production the global economy global security and global creativity Bringing together perspectives from top Africa scholars it actively dispels myths of the continent as just a passive recipient of external influences presenting instead an image of an active global agent that astutely projects soft power Unlike previous handbooks this book offers an eclectic mix of historical contemporary and interdisciplinary approaches that allow for a more holistic view of the many aspects of Africa s relations with the world Frederick Douglass Gregory P. Lampe, 2012-01-01 This work in the MSU Press Rhetoric and Public Affairs Series chronicles Frederick Douglass s preparation for a career in oratory his emergence as an abolitionist lecturer in 1841 and his development and activities as a public speaker and reformer from 1841 to 1845 Lampe s meticulous scholarship overturns much of the conventional wisdom about this phase of Douglass s life and career uncovering new information about his experiences as a slave and as a fugitive it provokes a deeper and richer understanding of this renowned orator s emergence as an important voice in the crusade to end slavery Contrary to conventional wisdom Douglass was well prepared to become a full time lecturer for the Massachusetts Anti Slavery Society in 1841 His emergence as an eloquent voice from slavery was not as miraculous as scholars have led us to believe Lampe begins by tracing Douglass s life as slave in Maryland and as fugitive in New Bedford showing that experiences gained at this time in his life contributed powerfully to his understanding of rhetoric and to his development as an orator An examination of his daily oratorical activities from the time of his emergence in Nantucket in 1841 until his departure for England in 1845 dispels many conventional beliefs surrounding this period especially the belief that Douglass was under the wing of William Lloyd Garrison Lampe s research shows that Douglass was much more outspoken and independent than previously thought and that at times he was in conflict with white abolitionists Included in this work is a complete itinerary of Douglass s oratorical activities correcting errors and omissions in previously published works as well as two newly discovered complete speech texts never before published Afroamerican History George H. Junne,1996 Black Folk Here and There St. Clair Drake,1987 A Different Vision Thomas D Boston,2002-01-04 This work brings together for the first time the ideas philosophies and interpretations of North America s leading African American economists demonstrating that racial inequality has had an immense impact on African Americans daily lives Bibliography on Racism, 1972-1975 Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.),1978 Women Making Meaning Lana F. Rakow,2015-10-23 Originally published in 1992 This book captures the dynamic confluence of feminist and communication scholarship by setting out some of the provocative questions that mark this intersection Several of the essays in the book are theoretical in nature and consider the changing complexion of the field in view of this cross fertilization other contributors tackle those individual forms of communication that pose certain challenges for women such as verbal harassment and pornography The final section of the book more ethnographic in nature presents a number of case studies written primarily by women of colour which recount the various ways that communication forms such as television journalism and spoken discourse construct and perpetuate racist and sexist stereotypes African American Religious Thought Cornel West,Eddie S. Glaude,2003-01-01 Believing that African American religious studies has reached a crossroads Cornel West and Eddie Glaude seek in this landmark anthology to steer the discipline into the future Arguing that the complexity of beliefs choices and actions of African Americans need not be reduced to expressions of black religion West and Glaude call for more careful reflection on the complex relationships of African American religious studies to conceptions of class gender sexual orientation race empire and other values that continue to challenge our democratic ideals A Companion to American Legal History Sally E. Hadden,Alfred L. Brophy,2013-02-22 A Companion to American Legal History presents a compilation of the most recent writings from leading scholars on American legal history from the colonial era through the late twentieth century Presents up to date research describing the key debates in American legal history Reflects the current state of American legal history research and points readers in the direction of future research Represents an ideal companion for graduate and law students seeking an introduction to the field the key questions and future research ideas Hunter of Dreams Steven Duff,2002 Hunter of Dreams is the story of the so called Underground Railroad the escape route to Canada of American slaves in the 1850s and early 60s The driving force behind Canadian involvement was Dr Alexander Milton Ross of Belleville Ontario an extraordinary character but one relatively unknown except to historians specializing in his era Alexander Ross travelled in the Deep South using his background in ornithology as a pretense at doing research In reality he was alerting slaves to the existence of the Underground Railroad and in the process faced a number of dangerous situations As well he was involved on the fringes of John Brown s famous raid on Harpers Ferry His work brought him to the attention of Abraham Lincoln who commissioned him as a special agent to monitor the Confederate activities in Canada during the Civil War Ross s work declared Lincoln shortened the Civil War by the better part of a year Hunter of Dreams reveals the story of the relatively unknown Alexander Ross based on his own memoirs and contemporary magazine and newspaper articles it is cast as a novel told through James Ramsay an imaginary friend of Dr Ross s Slavery and Slaving in World History: A Bibliography, 1900-91: v. 1 David Y Miller,2019-07-23 This bibliography of 20th century literature focuses on slavery and slave trading from ancient times through the 19th century It contains over 10 000 entries with the principal sections organizing works by the political geographical frameworks of the enslavers Interpretations of American History, 6th Ed, Vol. Gerald N. Grob,George Athan Billias,2010-06-15 This collection of essays on American history reflects recent scholarship Contributors new to this edition include Gary Nash Arthur Schlesinger Richard P McCormick Gerda Lerner Ellen C DuBois Vicki L Ruiz Nathan I Huggins John Lewis Gaddis Paul Kennedy and Kevin P Philips Edited by Gerald N Grob and George Athan Billias Our Land Before We Die Jeff Guinn,2005-01-13 In Our Land Before We Die Jeff Guinn traces the little known history of the runaway slaves who fled to the Florida Everglades to live alongside the Seminole Indians Deeply rooted in tribal oral history and based on extensive interviews with descendants this book describes the incredible circumstances of a people who sought shelter in the shadow of a tribe whose land and welfare already hung in the balance And yet in their tireless journey from Florida to Indian Territory in Oklahoma on the seven hundred mile flight from persecution that took them across the Rio Grande into Mexico and then back across the Rio Grande to Texas they never surrendered the hope of one day attaining land of their own Our Land Before We Die brings to life the largely forgotten history of a courageous people and the descendants for whom this story is their only legacy Resources in Education ,1987 Paperbound Books in Print ,1975 Understanding the American Experience: Recent Interpretations James M.
