Black Labor Chant and Other Poems David Wadsworth Cannon, 1974 Hampton Institute Best Books on, 1940 Compiled by Mentor A Howe and Roscoe E Lewis Afro-American Poetry and Drama, 1760-1975 William P. French, Geneviève Fabre, 1979 Dictionary Catalog of the Negro Collection of the Fisk University Library, Nashville, Tennessee Fisk University. Library, 1974 A Classified Catalogue of the Negro Collection in the Collis P. Huntington Library, Hampton Institute Collis P. Huntington Library (Hampton Institute), 1971 Rethinking Social Realism Stacy I. Morgan, 2004 The social realist movement with its focus on proletarian themes and its strong ties to New Deal programs and leftist politics has long been considered a depression era phenomenon that ended with the start of World War II This study explores how and why African American writers and visual artists sustained an engagement with the themes and aesthetics of social realism into the early cold war era far longer than a majority of their white counterparts Stacy I Morgan recalls the social realist atmosphere in which certain African American artists and writers were immersed and shows how black social realism served alternately to question the existing order instill race pride and build interracial working class coalitions Morgan discusses among others such figures as Charles White John Wilson Frank Marshall Davis Willard Motley Langston Hughes Sterling Brown Elizabeth Catlett and Hale Woodruff The Negro in American Literature Abraham Chapman, 1966 The Schomburg Center Guide to Black Literature Roger M. Valade, 1996 Cont On a general topic such as Discrimination a brief treatment is followed by a discussion of black authors who have written scholarly and popular works on discrimination and how the topic is reflected in creative works Literary terms and genres are defined and explained in the context of black literature Additional features include a chronology of events in black history and black literary history and an essay on the Schomburg Center An index lists titles names and subjects covered in the text Booklist Southern Black Creative Writers, 1829-1953, 1988-07-22 Some 230 writers are included and for each the compiler has provided in addition to a publication history a brief summary of educational background occupation and honors and awards obtained The most important feature of any work of this kind is the careful selection of those names to be included Foster has chosen well Inclusion of lesser known authors makes this volume useful Choice This new biobibliographical guide identifies known and little known Southern black writers to 1953 many of whom have received scant critical attention over the years A large number of the works of early Southern black creative writers did not reach a wide audience because they were privately printed or simply not considered worthy of note Yet their contributions form an important part of the Southern literary heritage Each of these writers is summarized in a brief biographical sketch that includes place of residence in the South vocation occupation and identification by genre as well as a listing of creative writings and publications in which they originally appeared An insightful introduction perspective Black World/Negro Digest, 1969-08 Founded in 1943 Negro Digest later Black World was the publication that launched Johnson Publishing During the most turbulent years of the civil rights movement Negro Digest Black World served as a critical vehicle for political thought for supporters of the movement
