Black Lawyers White Courts Soul Of South African Law By Broun:

Black Lawyers, White Courts Kenneth S. Broun, 2000 Brown law U of North Carolina has traveled regularly to South Africa since 1986 to give trial advocacy training Based on and often quoting interviews he reveals the constraints black lawyers labored under during apartheid and their struggle to obtain justice for their clients Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa s foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar s cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa

The Struggle Over State Power in Zimbabwe George Hamandishe Karekwaivanane, 2017-11-09 This book examines the role of the law in the constitution and contestation of state power in Zimbabwean history It is for researchers interested in the history of the state in Southern Africa as well as those interested in African legal history

Systemic Racism in South Africa Rupert Taylor, 2024-12-06 This book takes a critical macro level political sociological perspective to understanding South African politics and society Applying systemic racism theory to South Africa the author argues that South African society through its exclusionary social mechanisms has assumed a systemically racist form that deeply compromises questions of truth and justice Constitutive of and embedded in the structure of South African society racism has a reach and a durability that runs deep through the successive stages of segregationism apartheid and liberal democracy Showing the limits of the rule of law in a racist society the author offers a theoretically informed interpretation as to why the national liberation struggle has fallen short of its promise to deliver a better life for all and as to why truth and justice remain so deeply compromised in South Africa today The arguments advanced are supported by over thirty semi structured interviews conducted by the author with high profile South African politicians jurists and intellectuals as well as by using Truth and Reconciliation Commission hearing transcripts both public and top secret This thought provoking book is driven by the imperative to offer a compelling and sustained argument for taking a systemic racism approach to interpreting South Africa for scholars and students of sociology political science race and ethnic studies law and South African history

Litigating Across the Color Line Melissa Lambert Milewski, 2018 In a largely previously untold story from 1865 to 1950 black litigants throughout the South took on white southerners in civil suits

Drawing on almost a thousand cases Milewski shows how African Americans negotiated the southern legal system and won suits against whites after the Civil War and before the Civil Rights struggle The Globalization of Legal Education

Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law

African Studies Series: The Struggle over State Power in Zimbabwe Karekwaivanane, George Hamandishe, Elites and the Politics of Accountability in Africa Wale Adebani, Rogers Oroch, 2021-05-24 Studying elites through the framework of accountability When Courts Do Politics Joseph Oloka-Onyango, 2017-06-23 Using the phenomenon of public interest litigation PIL as the primary focus of analysis this book explores the manner in which the judicial branch of government in the three East African states of Kenya Tanzania and Uganda has engaged with questions traditionally off limits to adjudication and court based resolution It is rooted in an incisive investigation of the history of politics and governance in the sub region accompanied by an extensive repertoire of judicial decisions It also provides a critical and informative account of the manner in which courts of law have engaged with State power in a bid to alternatively deliver or subvert justice to the socially marginalized and the politically victimized The focus of the book is on judicial struggles over sexual and gender based discrimination social justice and poverty and the adjudication of presidential elections Employing the device of case deconstruction and analysis the study uncovers the conceptual and structural factors which have witnessed public interest litigation emerge as a critical factor in the struggle for more inclusive and equitable structures of governance and social order Needless to say as judges battle with time honoured legal precedents received dogmas and contending and often antagonistic societal forces the struggle in the courts is neither straightforward nor necessarily always transformative The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10 Provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa The Politics of Principle Theunis Roux, 2013-03-28 Uses a single country case study to enrich research on the role of constitutional courts in new democracies Equality and

Non-discrimination in South Africa Shadrack Gutto, 2001 This study explores and critiques law and law making in the nascent constitutional democracy in the new South Africa with a focus on the complex roles of the executive parliament political parties the media and civil society The capacity and potential in the judiciary and the legal profession in promoting and protecting values and rights of equality and non discrimination is examined Substantive equality and non discrimination law in theory and in practice is considered critically from a broad historical and social context that highlights areas of race gender disability harassment and hate speech socio economic rights and legal services International human rights law and comparative law aspects are skillfully interwoven in this pioneering scholarly work Informality and Courts Björn Dressel, Raul Sanchez-Urribarri, 2024-12-31 This volume explores an understudied aspect of courts The extent to which informal institutions and relational networks e g professional clientelist family etc relations affect how courts are organised and operate For instance to what extent can good personal relations outweigh professional merits in judicial appointment processes Or in what ways do international or domestic judicial networks help protect courts against other branches of power Our relational institutional perspective allows us to better understand a variety of important processes for the comparative study of courts including judicial appointments judicial decision making judicial administration institutional development inter branch relations corruption and court reform among others More importantly an emphasis on informality sheds new light on the accountability role of courts in democratic regimes at a time when democracy worldwide is at risk and authoritarian regimes are on the rise Bringing together the thoughts of scholars with different levels of seniority and disciplinary expertise this volume offers cross national engagement with theory providing systematic analyses of the configuration operation and roles of informal institutions and relations and their importance in different socio political contexts and legal systems Acquisitions List, African-American Collection University of Pittsburgh. University Library System, 1997 The Best Books for Academic Libraries: Political science, law, education , 2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers The Journal of Legal Studies , 2000 G.K. Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 2000 The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa s bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey s death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss
