Aurora Jolene Kremers, 2022-08-03 Consequences follow actions Actions determine worthiness Worthiness costs more than believed When 118 year old warrior Aurora is banished to Earth from her home world the Gold Planet of Andorra she loses her powerful sword and Special Power the ability to control fire On Earth Aurora finds herself in the world of the Death Givers a superhero organization tasked with stopping the dreaded Disappearances kidnappings from overwhelming the nation of Blood Dawn formerly known as North America While helping the Death Givers stop the Disappearances Aurora struggles with keeping her true identity she is a vampire from Earth's humans and deciding where exactly a romance with one of the Death Givers fits into the life that she becomes a part of Will Aurora return home and regain her sword and her Special Power after her reckless actions ignite a deadly war Or will she fall victim to a sacrifice curse that will cost her everything including her worthiness and her life      Cobra Trevor Legate, 2006 This book tells the complex saga of a sports car that was created in the early 1960s as a result of an unlikely collaboration between a plain talking ex racing driver from Texas and a conservative British automobile manufacturer funded by one of the giants of the industry the Ford Motor Company Carroll Shelby AC Cars and Ford came together to create a car called the Cobra based on the AC Ace roadster that had been in production since 1954 When the Shelby Cobra was created it was far from state of the art but the use of a new series of Ford V8 engines saw the lightweight car annihilate the Chevrolet Corvette in American sports car racing By adding aerodynamic bodywork the Daytona Cobra Coupe arrived in Europe to contest the FIA World Championship and took victory in the GT category in 1965 making Shelby American the first and only USA based manufacturer to achieve this feat In order to capitalize on this success even greater power was required and the car was developed to take a huge 7 liter engine that proved to be a triumph of horsepower over handling thus the 427 Cobra became an overnight legend establishing new performance records and creating a reputation for being more than a little tricky to drive The era of the Cobra was brief production ended at Shelby American during 1966 and at AC Cars in 1968 where they built their own final version the AC289 Sports Just over 1000 Cobras were built during that time but the final cars proved difficult to sell their vintage qualities deterring potential owners Carroll Shelby closed his company and went to Africa while AC developed other models but the Cobra was not quite finished yet Within a matter of a few years a new market for the car was created as the demand for affordable kit cars grew The most popular model by far was the Cobra and many thousands were built with the result that both AC Cars and Carroll Shelby put their own versions back into production And then the arguments really started If it was an improbable car over forty years ago it is even more implausible today but the remarkable Cobra in one form or another is still with us It may be dead but it just won't lie down      Wellington's Cavalry and Technical Corps, 1800-1815 Gabriele Esposito, 2021-12-08 While artillery has been described as the queen of the Napoleonic battlefield this was an era when cavalry could still play a decisive role in battle as well as being vital on campaign This volume covers both British cavalry and artillery of the Napoleonic Wars as well as supporting units such as engineers Gabriele Esposito describes the history organization and uniforms of the various units in full detail following the evolution and combat history of each Mounted troops deployed in the various British colonies as well as foreign cavalry units in British service will be all covered in specific chapters The technical corps most notably the artillery both foot and horse and the engineers are given similar treatment Royal Marines naval infantry and some other auxiliary corps like the Yeomanry militia cavalry or the Sea Fencibles all very little known are also included The book is lavishly illustrated with dozens of color paintings      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,2010      MILITARY UNIFORMS IN EUROPE 1900 - 2000 Volume One R Spencer Kidd,2013-10-01 This book Volume One gives an historical overview of 36 countries whose armed forces served in Europe 1900 2000 together with uniform descriptions Includes 200 full colour paintings of the regular armies marines airforce and para military troops engaged in land exercises operations and warfare in Europe including non European troops serving in Europe Each entry is accompanied by a history and description of the uniforms illustrated The author and illustrator Ron Kidd has been interested in both police and military history uniforms and insignia since he was a school boy in the 1950 s He has visited over 300 police and military museums world wide and has written and illustrated a number of magazine articles on both police and military history and uniforms He is a member of both the Military Heraldry Society and the Military Historical Society It is anticipated that Volume Two will be published in 2013
