Black Organizations Issues On Survival Techniques:

Building Health Coalitions in the Black Community , Black Organizations Lennox S. Yearwood,1980 Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm Jerome Schiele,Jerome H Schiele,2013-09-13 Discover how human services professionals can help to eliminate cultural oppression Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm presents a new way of understanding human behavior attacking social problems and exploring social issues This excellent guide shows that understanding the simultaneous forces of oppression and spiritual alienation in American society serves as a foundation for understanding the societal problems here The first book to offer a comprehensive exposition of how the Afrocentric paradigm can be used by human service professionals and community advocates Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm discusses why and how human service work is hampered by Eurocentric cultural values and will help you to offer fair and effective services to your clients Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm provides you with a concrete discription of how the Afrocentric model can be applied in human services to help people of all races and ethnicities You will expand and diversify your knowledge base in human services by understanding the cultural values traditions and experiences of people of African ancestry Some of the issues and concepts in the Afrocentric paradigm that you will explore are defining the Afrocentric worldview complete with a discussion of its philosophical assumptions and its shortcomings understanding traditional helping assumptions and methods of West African societies and how these have influenced the helping strategies of African Americans exploring the strengths and weaknesses of some early African American human service scholars with special concern placed on their rejection of traditional African methods in favor of Eurocentric ideas resolving youth violence and helping people with substance abuse problems examining Afrocentric assumptions about resource distribution morality and societal relationships identifying organizational and conceptual differences in Eurocentric and Afrocentric paradigms creating organizational empowerment and an enhanced work environment via the Afrocentric paradigm Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm will help you understand solve and prevent problems that are confronted by several races especially individuals of African descent This timely and relevant worldview is thoroughly explained to assist you in better serving people of color The Afrocentric paradigm will help human services practitioners administrators policy advocates analysts educators and black studies professors and students achieve educational and treatment objectives by showing you the importance of various cultural values and how to integrate them to make a difference Cultural Capital and Black Education V.P. Franklin,2004-12-01 A discussion of the contributions made by African Americans to public and private black schools in the USA in the 19th and 20th centuries It suggests that cultural capital from African American communities may be important for closing the gap in the funding of black schools in the 21st century African Americans in the South Hans A. Baer,Yvonne Jones,1992 This volume reflects a new commitment by American anthropologists to engage in what has been called the anthropology of racism the analysis of systems of inequality based on biological differences Comprising nine papers and related commentary African Americans in the South examines racism class stratification and sexism as they bear on the African American struggle for social justice equality and cultural identity in the South The essays fall into three broad categories economic survival strategies health and reproductive problems and religious responses to the larger society Essays in the first category discuss African American teen pregnancy and mutual aid societies The second group focuses on health practices and knowledge among blacks in a Georgia town African American midwifery in North Carolina an AIDS education program in a Tennessee city and eating habits in rural North Carolina The essays in the last category emphasize the diversity of the African American religious experience by focusing on black Pentecostals Jews and Mormons in the South Together these writings constitute an important concerted first engagement of issues crucial to an understanding of the history and social life of the South Color, Class & Country Gay Young, Bette Dickerson, 1994 On gender race and class

Racial Identity Theory Chalmer E. Thompson, Robert T. Carter, 2013-04-15 Racial identity theories have been in the psychological literature for nearly thirty years Unlike most references to racial identity however Thompson and Carter demonstrate the value of integrating RACE and IDENTITY as systematic components of human functioning The editors and their contributors show how the infusion of racial identity theory with other psychological models can successfully yield more holistic considerations of client functioning and well being Fully respecting the mutual influence of personal and environmental factors to explanations of individual and group functioning they apply complex theoretical notions to real life cases in psychological practice These authors contend that race is a pervasive and formidable force in society that affects the development and functioning of individuals and groups In a recursive fashion individuals and groups influence and indeed nurture the notion of race and societal racism Arguing that mental health practitioners are in key influential positions to pierce this cycle the authors provide evidence of how meaningful change can occur when racial identity theory is integrated into interventions that attempt to diminish the distress people experience in their lives The interventions illustrated in this volume are applied in various contexts including psychotherapy and counseling supervision family therapy support groups and organizational and institutional environments This book can serve the needs and interests of advanced level students and professionals in all mental health fields as well as researchers and scholars in such disciplines as organizational management and forensic psychology It can also be of value to anyone interested in the systematic implementation of strategies to overcome problems of race The NAACP's Legal Strategy Against Segregated Education, 1925-1950 Mark V.

Tushnet, 1987 Mark Tushnet presents the story of the NAACP's legal campaign against segregated schools as a case study in public interest law which in fact began in the United States with that very campaign Building Health Coalitions in the Black Community Ronald L. Braithwaite, Sandra E. Taylor, John N. Austin, 1999-11-30 Examines a wide range of problems and issues associated with the phenomenon of coalition building for health promotion List of Publications on American Indians/Alaskan Natives, Asian/Pacific Americans, Blacks, and Hispanics Resulting from ADAMHA-supported Research on

Minorities 1972-1981 Vivian C. Kim,1984 Gendered Domains Dorothy O. Helly,Susan M. Reverby,2018-08-06 For over two centuries the notion that societies have been sharply divided into women s private and men s public spheres has been used both to describe and to prescribe social life More recently it has been applied and critiqued by feminist scholars as an explanation for women s oppression Spanning a rich array of historical contexts from medieval nunneries to Ottoman harems to Paris communes to electronics firms in today s Silicon Valley the twenty essays collected here offer a pathbreaking reassessment of the significance of the concept of separate spheres After a theoretical introduction by the editors certain essays reexamine historians definitions of public and private realms and show how the imposition of these categories often obscures the realities of power structures and the alterable nature of gender roles Other chapters consider how the concept of separate domains has been used to control women s actions Additional essays explore the limits of public private distinctions focusing on women s working lives the role of the state in the family and the ways in which women including Native North Americans African Americans in the birth control movement and participants in the lesbian bar culture have themselves reshaped the model of separate spheres Making available the best papers on the public private theme delivered at the 1987 Berkshire Conference on the History of Women Gendered Domains will be welcomed by anyone interested in women s studies including historians political scientists feminist theorists anthropologists sociologists and philosophers year of 1980 marked a pivotal turning point in the American political landscape the electoral victory of presidential candidate Ronald Reagan the beginnings of the public hysteria and eventual legislative dismantling of affirmative action and other civil rights initiatives the dawn of the ruthless reign of neo conservatism and in some ways serving as the glue the ascent of neo liberalism as the prevailing ideology and standard logic of viewing and ordering the world Some thirty five years later it is almost difficult to remember a world and more precisely a moment in United States history when these things were not so dominant When thinking about the lasting impact of that moment David Harvey writes Future historians may well look upon the years 1978 1980 as a revolutionary turning point in the world s social and economic history revolutionary impulses seemingly spread and reverberated to remake the world around us in a totally different image In short this was an instance of profound transformation it was the dawn of the counterrevolution By no means immune to the changes in the larger political landscape Black activists and intellectuals also felt the ground moving beneath their feet in 1980 as many would gradually shift from an all out advance towards liberation to a posture concerned with what James Turner described as the preservation of the modest gains made by African Americans over the last decade The previous decade witnessed an obvious waning in the Black liberation movement a slew of high profile manhunts arrests court cases and outright criminalizing of radical activists the unearthing of Cointelpro the blooming of the liberation movement in Southern Africa a taxing debate around various articulations of Marxism and Black nationalism the full swing of feminism and a full decade of Africana Studies which also meant institutionalized space to foster such discussions It was these changing times that provided the context for the important gathering of Black activists and intellectuals in Ithaca New York during September 1980 at the Africana Studies and Research Center at Cornell and the content for this book Bound together by the dual purposes of both assessing the road traveled and preparing for the journey ahead the ensemble in attendance gathered to ponder the Next Decade as the conference theme spelled out plainly A quick glance at the conference s list of attendees demonstrates the extraordinary sphere of activity that was the Africana Studies and Research Center at Cornell Participants and attendees at this historic meeting included Toni Cade Bambara Lerone Bennett Johnella Butler John Henrik Clarke Gayla Cook Louis Farrakhan Hoyt Fuller Ewart Guinier Vincent Harding Robert Harris Stephen Henderson Robert Johnson George Kent George Lamming Tilden Lemelle Bernard Magubane Manning Marable William Nelson William Sales Michael Thelwell Bettye Collier Thomas Eleanor Traylor Ivan Van Sertima Ronald Walters Shirley Weber Sylvia Wynter Howard Dodson William Strickland and two of the visual artists featured in this book David Bradford and Bertrand Phillips This book is both a contribution to the historiography of the Black African Studies movement and an intellectual treasure representing the ideas and visions of many of the best minds at a crucial juncture in the African world Ebony ,1980-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Passion and Power Kathy Lee Peiss,Christina Simmons,Robert A. Padgug,1989

Passion and Power brings together some of the most recent and innovative writings on the history of sexuality and explores the experiences ideas and conflicts that have shaped the emergence of modern sexual identities Arguing that sexuality is not an unchanging biological reality or a universal natural force the essays in this volume discuss sexuality as an integral part of the history of human experience Articles on sexual assault homosexuality birth control venereal disease sexual repression pornography and the AIDS epidemic examine the ways that sexuality has become a core element of modern social identity in the nineteenth and twentieth century United States It is only in recent years that historians have begun to examine the social construction of sexuality This is the first anthology that addresses this issue from a radical historical perspective examining sexuality as a field of contention in itself and as part of other struggles rooted in divisions of gender class and race Author note Kathy Peiss is Associate Professor of History and Women s Studies at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and author of Cheap Amusements Working Women and Leisure in Turn of the century New York Temple P Christina Simmons is Assistant Professor of History at the University of Cincinnati Raymond Walters College

Making a Place for Ourselves Vanessa Northington Gamble,1995-03-23 Making a Place for Ourselves examines an important but not widely chronicled event at the intersection of African American history and American medical history the black hospital movement A practical response to the racial realities of American life the movement was a self help endeavor immediate improvement of separate medical institutions insured the advancement and health of African Americans until the slow process of integration could occur Recognizing that their careers depended on access to hospitals black physicians associated with the two leading black medical societies the National Medical Association NMA and the National Hospital Association NHA initiated the movement in the 1920s in order to upgrade the medical and education programs at black hospitals Vanessa Northington Gamble examines the activities of these physicians and those of black community organizations local and federal governments and major health care organizations She focuses on three case studies Cleveland Chicago and Tuskegee to demonstrate how the black hospital movement reflected the goals needs and divisions within the African American community and the state of American race relations Examining ideological tensions within the black community over the existence of black hospitals Gamble shows that black hospitals were essential for the professional lives of black physicians before the emergence of the civil rights movement More broadly Making a Place for Ourselves clearly and powerfully documents how issues of race and racism have affected the development of the American hospital system
