Black Paris The African Writers Landscape:

Black Paris Bennetta Jules-Rosette, 1998 Black Paris documents the struggles and successes of three generations of African writers as they strive to establish their artistic literary and cultural identities in France Based on long term ethnographic archival and historical research the work is enriched by interviews with many writers of the new generation Bennetta Jules Rosette explores African writing and identity in France from the early n gritude movement and the founding of the Pr sence Africaine publishing house in 1947 to the mid 1990s Examining the relationship between African writing and French anthropology as well as the emergence of new styles and discourses Jules Rosette covers French Pan Africanism and the revolutionary writing of the 1960s and 1970s She also discusses the new generation of African writers who appeared in Paris during the 1980s and 1990s

Afrique Sur Seine Odile Cazenave, 2006-09-01 Afrique sur Seine addresses the development since the 1950s of a new type of Francophone African novel created by first generation black African authors living in France Drawing parallels with other literatures like the beur and Antillean novels Odile Cazenave examines how these authors men and women are parting from mainstream African literature by exploring more personal avenues while retaining a shared interest in the community of African emigrants Cazenave deftly shows us how these writers maneuver between two cultures languages and spheres of being and how they struggle to appeal to their French audience without being untrue to the complex history and reality they portray Cazenave further discusses the stereotyping often promoted by French publishing houses to sell African authored texts and its impact At a time when immigration is an important issue in France and when post colonial identity and culture is the object of still increasing interest and attention Afrique sur Seine guides us through writing that surprises with its fresh insights into multiculturalism and integration

Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia Célrier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engag e literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature Odile Cazenave and Patricia C l rier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form Working across genres but focusing on the novel the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti Ousmane Semb ne and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop V ronique Tadjo Alain Mabanckou and L onora Miano among others

Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945, 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta The Cambridge Companion to the City in World Literature Ato Quayson, Jini Kim Watson, 2023-07-27 This book forges new ground in the relationship between cities and World Literature Through a series of essays spanning a variety of metropolises it shows how cities have given rise to key aesthetic dispositions acts of linguistic and cultural translation topographic conceptualizations global imaginaries and narratives of self fashioning that are central to understanding World Literature and its debates Alongside an introduction and three theoretical chapters each chapter focuses on a particular city in the Global North or Global South and brings World Literary debates on translation literary networks imperial and migrant imaginaries centers and peripheries into conversation with the urban literary histories of Beijing Bombay Mumbai Dublin Cairo Istanbul Johannesburg Lagos London Mexico City Moscow and St Petersburg New York Paris Singapore and Sydney African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa Francophone Afropean Literatures Nicki Hitchcott, Dominic Thomas, 2014-04-10 This volume explores the concept and possibility of a black European community by analysing the ways in which contemporary Francophone African writers articulate and interrogate their complex relationships with European society culture and history Choreographies of African Identities Francesca Castaldi, 2010-10-01 Choreographies of African Identities traces interconnected interpretative frameworks around and about the National Ballet of Senegal Using the metaphor of a dancing circle Castaldi s arguments cover the full spectrum of performance from production to circulation and reception Castaldi first situates the reader in a North American theater focusing on the relationship between dancers and audiences as that between black performers and white spectators She then examines the work of the National Ballet in relation to L opold S dar Senghor s N gritude ideology and cultural politics Finally the author addresses the circulation of dances in the streets discotheques and courtyards of Dakar drawing attention to women dancers occupation of the urban landscape Blackness and Sexualities Michelle M. Wright, Antje Schuhmann, 2007 With contributions from leading scholars from various disciplines this title offers analyses and critiques that span three continents and looks at topics such as the secret marketing of black female pornography to white American men and the eroticization of colonial legacies in contemporary German media Race and Sex across the French Atlantic Frieda Ekotto, 2012-07-10 Jean Genet s masterpiece Les N gres was first published in 1958 in the midst of the Algerian war and first performed at the Th tre de Lut ce in Paris in October 1959 Yet even though the play is more than 50 years old it remains a fundamental contribution to critical race theory as Genet unequivocally posits that no matter what a black person does or doesn t do simply to be black in our times is itself a tragedy Placing Genet in the context of Negritude movement Race and Sex across the French Atlantic equally reveals and examines blackness within the African American dialogue with a white French author s provocative questions about race Is a black man always black and even more fundamentally What is blackness Within this framework to question blackness therefore is to set out on an ontological quest as blackness has become a real living thing in its own right within European ideology social theory and historical consciousness even as Les N gres has taken its place as a major text in the francophone and philosophical tradition of writing on race In essence this book concentrates on the way in which language particularly the French language has shaped ideas about race within transatlantic discourses and with its companion continental philosophy has also shaped the historical understanding of discourse on race It navigates between multiple readings of race within the French Atlantic using Lorraine Hansberry s play Les Blancs Dany Laferri re s Comment faire l amour avec un N gre sans se fatiguer Genet s dialogue with the Black Panthers and different conceptions of the so called N word Race and Sex across the French Atlantic thus explores how Les N gres offered a groundbreaking reading of how race functioned and continues to function as an all pervasive discourse that provides a central principle around which society in general is organized The play stages a deeply self reflexive and critical examination of the very essence of Black France Dominic Thomas,2006-11-20 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub Saharan African origin Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders But recent violent events have raised questions about France s treatment of ethnic minorities Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization Who is French Who is an immigrant Who controls the networks of production Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy Afroeurpean Mobilities in Francophone African Literatures Anna-Leena Toivanen,2025-04-29 This open access book contributes to the mobility humanities from the perspective of postcolonial literary mobilities and aims at enhancing dialogue between mobilities research and postcolonial literary studies The study produces new perspectives on Afroeurpean mobilities in Francophone African and Afrodiasporic literatures from the mid twentieth century to the present covering a wide set of texts across literary genres Focusing on representations of educational travel tourism diasporic returns work related mobilities and clandestine migratory journeys Toivanen examines portrayals of mobility practices and modes of transport to map out the meanings of embodied im mobilities in the Afroeurpean context In addition to thematic analysis the volume also explores the manifestations of mobility in literary form Africa and France Dominic Richard David Thomas,2013 This stimulating and insightful book reveals how increased control over immigration has changed cultural and social production in theatre literature and even museum construction Dominic Thomas s analysis unravels the complex cultural and political realities of long standing mobility between Africa and Europe Thomas questions the attempt to place strict limits on what it means to be French or European and offers a sense of what must happen to bring about a renewed sense of integration and global Frenchness Race on Display in 20th- and 21st-century France Katelyn E. Knox,2016 Race on Display in 20th and 21st Century France argues that the way France displayed its colonized peoples in the twentieth century continues to inform how minority authors and artists make immigrants and racial and ethnic minority populations visible in contemporary France Emerging African Voices , Finding Monte Cristo Eric Martone,2018-08-29 During his lifetime Alexandre Dumas 1802 1870 grandson of a Caribbean slave and author of The Three Musketeers and The Count of Monte Cristo faced racial prejudice in his homeland of France and constantly strove to find a sense of belonging For him Monte Cristo was a symbol of this elusive quest It proved equally elusive for those struggling to overcome slavery and its legacy in the former French colonies Exiled to the margins of society 19th and 20th century black intellectuals from the Caribbean and Africa drew on Dumas work and celebrity to renegotiate their full acceptance as French citizens Their efforts were influenced by earlier struggles of African Americans in the decades after the Civil War who celebrated Dumas as a black American hero

Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza, 2024-01-24 Anticolonial Form Literary Journals at the End of Empire addresses the relationship between culture and politics in two journals published in Europe by African writers Pr sence Africaine launched in Paris in 1947 and Mensagem published between 1948 and 1964 in Lisbon Grounded in extensive archival work the book argues for a comparative and transnational approach to postcolonial literary studies for the significance of the literary journal as a key form in the development of African writing in French Portuguese and English and for a historically and geographically contingent understanding of the relationships between literature culture and politics This book takes up the idea of articulation to bring forward the contingent and fugitive connections that networks of literary journals fostered between francophone anglophone and lusophone writers in the conjuncture of decolonization in the 1950s and 1960s It argues that comparison as a praxis and a method was central to the anticolonial charge of those journals on whose pages we see an iterative back and forth between writing from and about different parts of the colonial world a recursive effort to establish how ideas and analyses developed in one part of the colonial world could travel and be adopted and adapted in others Many scholars have argued convincingly that the institutionalized practice of comparison in the academic field of comparative literature is itself imbricated with histories of colonialism Reza s argument takes on a particular significance in the context of that critique as the anticolonial comparison on which she focuses offers a different tradition of relational praxis from which to think about connection and comparison itself
