Black Parrot Green Crow:

Black Parrot, Green Crow Hushang Gulshīrī, Heshmat Moayyad, 2003 UNTIL NOW only a sparse selection of Golshiri's fiction has been available in English translation three short stories a novella written under a pseudonym and his novel Prince Ehtejab which was made into a film Now Black Parrot Green Crow brings together the largest collection of Golshiri's writings in any language eighteen short stories and three poems They span the arc of Golshiri's career as a writer from his days as a young student in Isfahan under the Pahlavi regime to the 1980s and 1990s and the disappointment of the Iranian people with the Islamic Republic Golshiri's stories crafted with a withering irony expose the fanatical and draconian political apparatus of tyrannical regimes while his wry humor and delicate sensitivity to the human condition tempers the blistering satire making the narratives short but nonetheless harrowing and touching tragedies The tales are filled with the uncertainty of life in a culture undergoing drastic change and hauntingly etch the plight of the individual in a climate of political oppression Fiction writer critic and editor HOUSHANG GOLSHIRI was born in Isfahan in 1937 He was one of the first Iranian writers to use modern literary techniques and is recognized as one of the most influential writers of Persian prose of the twentieth century In 1965 Golshiri helped to found Iran's chief literary journal and in 1968 he established along with other writers protesting government censorship the Iranian Writers Association Golshiri's stories and efforts to establish basic rights for writers landed him in trouble including imprisonment and a ban on his books with both the Pahlavi regime and the Islamic Republic In 1999 he was awarded the Erich Maria Remarque Peace Prize for his struggle to promote democracy and human rights in Iran Golshiri died allegedly of meningitis on June 5 2000 in Tehran HESHMAT MOAYYAD has been Professor of Persian Literature at the University of Chicago since 1966 A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 2 Hamid Naficy, 2011-09-16 Social history of Iranian cinema that explores cinema's role in creating national identity and contextualizes Iranian cinema within an international arena Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari, Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak, 2012-01-13 When Arcade Publishing originally contracted this extraordinary collection of poetry and literature the Department of the Treasury was attempting to censor the publication of works from countries on America's enemies list Arcade along with the PEN American Center the Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division and the Association of American University Presses filed a lawsuit in federal court against the United States government Their landmark case forced the Office of Foreign Assets Control to change their regulations regarding editing and publishing literature in translation and Arcade is proud to reissue this anthology that showcases the developments in Iranian literature over the past quarter century Since the Iranian revolution of 1979 the United States has been virtually cut off from that country's culture Despite severe difficulties imposed by social political and economic upheavals as well as war repression and censorship a veritable cultural renewal has taken place in Iran over the past quarter century not only in literature but in music art and cinema Over forty writers from three generations contributed to this rich and varied collection or to use the Persian term golchine a bouquet one that provides a much needed window into a largely undiscovered branch of world literature In the wake of the Green Revolution and sweeping changes in the region this particular golchine is more relevant than ever and will bring literary enjoyment as well as a fuller understanding of a complex and ever shifting culture

An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951 Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil Twenty nine year old Ebrahim Golestan who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature encounters Dylan Thomas the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company's supposedly salutary role in the country But for a few hours Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry history philosophy and the perils of translation Published here for the first time is the English translation with facing pages in the original Persian of Golestan's unflinching portrayal of that encounter revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas's time in Iran written by Abbas Milani Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University together with Alina Utrata a Ph D candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar Based on the poet's letters journals and archival material in England and Wales it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan To mark the occasion Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan's life and work examining his pioneering approach to film and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times

students abroad to learn about this technology and then by purchasing equipment to set up a paper industry However during the 19th century domestic Iranian paper production came under increasing pressure from paper imports and the government abandoned its efforts to modernize the domestic paper industry The authors renowned scholar Willem Floor in collaboration with Am lie Couvrat Desvergnés a museum conservator of artworks on paper and books identify and illustrate the watermarks and or countermarks of the various paper producers and provide examples of the diversity of quality composition and nature of the different types of paper used by various strata of the Iranian society Also provided are detailed import data showing which country exported paper to Iran via which routes as well as their changing market position over time Finally the various end uses of paper from books and farmans to paintings and diverse packing and utilitarian paper are examined and where possible quantified data are presented This book will reward scholars and general readers alike

Qeshm: The History A Persian Gulf Island Floor Willem,Potts D.T.,2024-11-21 Located in the Straits of Hormuz the island of Qeshm has had a tumultuous history Qeshm The History of a Persian Gulf Island is the first serious book length study of the island s history From the fourteenth century onward the island was an important dependency of the Kingdom of Hormuz often providing drinking water to Hormuz The island remained critical as a source of water and foodstuffs for the Portuguese beginning in the early sixteenth century Throughout the seventeenth century Qeshm remained a bone of contention between Portugal the Dutch and the English East India Companies Later it was a coveted tile in the mosaic of Persian Gulf domination aspired to by the Sultans of Oman despite the pretensions of the Qajar court The natural resources of Qeshm include salt the purest in the Persian Gulf naphtha and firewood From Nader Shah s naval ambitions to the commercial competition of the early twentieth century Qeshm features in innumerable mini crises both local and international In 1935 the British abandoned their coaling station on the island at the insistence of Reza Shah Qeshm s history stands in stark contrast to the popular image of this staid somewhat sleepy island This book brilliantly researched by two of the foremost scholars of Iranian history is essential reading for anyone interested in a region whose strategic political economic and financial importance continues to grow

Transportation & Technology in Iran, 1800-1940: : Chapar, Carts, Carriages, Automobiles, Bicycles, Motor Cycles, Lodgings, Sewing Machines, Typewriters & Pianos Willem Floor,2023-08-21 Only 100 years ago the main means of transportation in Iran was by quadruped Transportation All these processes are detailed in the book Like cars bicycles and motorcycles also were increasingly used as of the 1920s thus increasing choice in people s mobility More road traffic also implied that travelers needed places to spend the night and eat The change from caravanserais to guest houses and hotels is discussed in part 3 These changes in transportation methods did not come alone for other modern tools of change such as the sewing machine and the typewriter also made their appearance and had a major impact on people s availability and use of time Finally the piano made its entry onto the Iranian musical scene and although not perfectly in tune with the traditional Iranian musical system it is now as much part of music making in Iran as the tar and santur part 4 of the book All these changes and new technologies did not happen overnight or without problems and slow adoption initially was limited to the upper class However with falling prices and changing needs and policies these new technologies eventually reached a larger public and the idea that they once were exotic and out of reach is now inconceivable to Iranians The studies in this book provide a new vantage point and understanding of the transfer of modern technology for scholars of the social economic and cultural history of the Middle East

Thinking like a Parrot Alan B. Bond,Judy Diamond,2019-07-02 From two experts on wild parrot cognition a close look at the intelligence social behavior and conservation of these widely threatened birds People form enduring emotional bonds with other animal species such as dogs cats and horses For the most part these are domesticated animals with one notable exception many people form close and supportive relationships with parrots even though these amusing and curious birds remain thoroughly wild creatures What enables this unique group of animals to form social bonds with people and what does this mean for their survival In Thinking like a Parrot Alan B Bond and Judy Diamond look beyond much of the standard work on captive parrots to the mischievous inquisitive and astonishingly vocal parrots of the wild Focusing on the psychology and ecology of wild parrots Bond and Diamond document their distinctive social behavior sophisticated cognition and extraordinary vocal abilities Also included are short vignettes field notes on the natural history and behavior of both rare and widely distributed species from the neotropical crimson fronted parakeet to New Zealand s flightless ground dwelling kakapo

This composite approach makes clear that the behavior of captive parrots is grounded in the birds wild ecology and evolution revealing that parrots ability to bond with people is an evolutionary accident a by product of the intense sociality and flexible behavior that characterize their lives Despite their adaptability and intelligence however nearly all large parrot species are rare threatened or endangered To successfully manage and restore these wild populations Bond and Diamond argue we must develop a fuller understanding of their biology and the complex set of ecological and behavioral traits that has led to their vulnerability Spanning the global distribution of parrot species Thinking like a Parrot is rich with surprising insights into parrot intelligence flexibility and even in the face of threats resilience Nage Birds Gregory Forth,2013-01-11 This unusual and richly illustrated book is the story of the relationship between the Nage people of eastern Indonesia and the birds alongside which they co exist Based on fieldwork carried out over a period of some fifteen years it aims for a total view of how a human community interacts with another zoological class giving birds a chosen place in human ideas and social practice As well as a fascinating ornithological study of Indonesian bird life Nage Birds offers a much needed critique of current theoretical argument on how non Western societies categorize and evaluate different species and modes of being

Masterpieces of Non-Western World Literature Thomas L. Cooksey,2007-10-30 Contains ten interpretive essays that discuss classical works of non Western world literature including the poetry of Li Po the Epic of Gilgamesh and The Tale of Genji The Museum of Natural History. With Introductory Essay on the Natural History of the Primeval World, Etc Sir John RICHARDSON,1869 The Aborigines of Victoria Smyth,1878
