Black Political Thought In The Making Of South African Democracy:

Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy C.R.D. Halisi, 1999 a comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa's politicization process. Choice Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots. This problem can be explained and surmounted but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa. Richard L Sklar from the Foreword. What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa. This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship, black consciousness, populism, racial proletarianization and their interaction with various political ideologies. Halisi's analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa.

African Political Thought Guy Martin, 2012-12-05. For most of its history the African continent has witnessed momentous political change, remarkable philosophical innovation and the complex cross fertilization of ideologies and belief systems. This definitive study surveys the concepts, values and historical upheavals that have shaped African political systems from the ancient period to the postcolonial era and beyond. Beginning with the emergence of indigenous political institutions, it traces the most important developments in African history including the Africanization of Islam, liberal democratic movements, socialism, Pan Africanism and Africanist Populist resistance to the neoliberal world order. The result is an invaluable resource on a region too often ignored in the history of political thought.

The German Political Foundations As Actors in Democracy Assistance Alexander Mohr, 2010. In Germany, political foundations (Stiftungen) play an important role in shaping civil society through political democracy education. The foundations, however, have also committed themselves to strengthening democratic political and societal structures abroad. Their joint mission abroad is the contribution to democratic structures, information and debate in the countries and regions they are working in. They complement the official German foreign policy but choose their own priorities and strategies. The focus of this thesis is the German political foundations as actors in democracy assistance. Democracy assistance focuses less on the aspects of technical assistance but much more on political parties and the promotion of civil society as the backbone of democracy. Democracy assistance is a relatively recent international development activity of governments and international organizations. In recent years, the international community has come to realize the importance of political parties and a well functioning political party system for the process of democratisation. Here, the German political foundations are working internationally as actors in democracy assistance, independent from the German government but at the same time fully state funded. The objectives of this dissertation are to understand the work and strategies of the German political foundations as actors in the context of democracy assistance abroad, research their partner spectrums on selected countries to identify their shortcomings and to give an outlook of the foundations' work in the future in the fast changing global political environment.

The Law and the Prophets Daniel R. Magaziner, 2010. No nation can win a battle without faith. Steve Biko wrote and as Daniel R Magaziner demonstrates in The Law and the Prophets the combination of ideological and theological exploration proved a potent force. The 1970s are a decade virtually lost to South African historiography. This span of years bridged the banning and exile of the country's best known anti-apartheid leaders in the early 1960s and the furious protests that erupted after the Soweto uprisings of June 16, 1976. Scholars thus know that something happened yet they have only recently begun to explore how and why. The Law and the Prophets is an intellectual history of the resistance movement between 1968 and 1977; it follows the formation, early trials, and ultimate dissolution of the Black Consciousness movement. It differs from previous anti-apartheid historiography however in that it focuses more on ideas than on people and organizations. Its singular contribution is an exploration of the theological turn that South African politics took during this time. Magaziner argues that only by understanding how ideas about race, faith, and selfhood developed and were transformed in this period might we begin to understand the dramatic changes that took place.

Publisher description African American Consciousness

James L. Conyers, Jr., 2011-01-31. African American Consciousness focuses on ideas of culture, race, and class within the interdisciplinary matrix of Africana Studies. Even more important, it uses a methodology that emphasizes interpretation and the necessity of interdisciplinary research and writing in a global society. Worldview, culture, analytic thinking, and historiography can all be used as tools of analysis, and in the process of discovery, use pedagogy and survey research of Africana history. Advancing the idea of Africana Studies, mixed methodology and triangulation, the contributors provide alternative approaches toward examining this phenomena with regard to place, space, and time. The essays in this volume include Reynaldo Anderson, Black History dot com; Greg Carr, Black Consciousness, Pan Africanism, and the African World History Project; Karanja Carroll, A Genealogical Review of the Worldview Concept and Framework in Africana Studies; Denise Martin, Reflections on African Celestial Culture; Serie McDougal, Teaching Black Males; Demetrius Pearson, Cowboys of Color; Pamela Reed Heirs, To Disparity; and Andrew Smallwood, Malcolm X's Leadership and Legacy. The researchers in this volume investigate, explore, and review patterns of functional, normative, and expressive behavior. The past and present of Africana culture is represented, showing how reflexivity can be an adjustable concept to organize process and interpret data. Moreover, humanism and social science demonstrate how researchers establish, extract, and identify the limitations and alternative approaches to research of the historic conditions of black Americans.

The Future We Chose Busani Ngcaweni, 2014-01-17 This book foregrounds emerging and different perspectives on the centenary of the ANC which was celebrated in February 2012 Differing in tenor methodology and style we present nineteen chapters that tackle various epochs and events in the making of the centenary of the oldest political organisation in Africa

The book offers new angles to our understanding of what sustained the ANC over one hundred years in spite of all the internal and external contradictions. There is arguably a view that part of what distinguishes the ANC from other revolutionary movements in the continent is that from the turn of the twentieth century its founders prioritised national unity across tribal, ethnic, linguistic, religious, gender and racial identities. This ideal of national unity informed their responses to the formation of the Union of South Africa in 1910 and the declaration of the South African Republic in 1961. In principle the leadership was opposed not to these manifestations of concrete nation state formation but to the practice of excluding the majority of South African citizens according to racial markers. As a contribution to the historiography of the ANC and that of South Africa which it was established to liberate, the book tackles the following critical questions: what traits in the ANC's genetic code have kept it alive for one hundred years? Is the ANC on course to meeting its historical mission of building an equitable, nonracial, non-sexist and socially democratic society as articulated in the Africans' Claims, the Freedom Charter and the Strategy and Tactics documents? Finally, would the ANC continue to retain relevance for a bicentenary especially as it now contends with new internal and external contradictions in an increasingly unequally society and unipolar world order? This new hypothetical architecture hopefully will be employed by many others engaged in the study of the rise and fall of political organisations.
