The Literary Mirroring of Aboriginal Australia and the Caribbean Dashiell Moore, 2025-05-15 The Literary Mirroring of Aboriginal Australia and the Caribbean challenges the structural opposition of indigeneity and creolisation through a historical and literary analysis of the connections between the First and Last of the New Worlds Australia and the Caribbean Dashiell Moore explores the continuities between indigenous and creole lifeworlds in the work of renowned Caribbean writers such as douard Glissant Wilson Harris Sylvia Wynter and Kamau Brathwaite and prominent Aboriginal Australian writers including Alexis Wright Ali Cobby Eckermann and Lionel Fogarty Common to these authors is their reimagining of the inter colonial other as a mirror image This image achieved through opacity and projection visualises in creative ways both the movement to indigenisation in post independence Caribbean literature and the inter indigenous encounters of Aboriginal Australian literature By upending the antipodean relationship of the Caribbean and Australia this groundbreaking study offers radically new perspectives on the world generated by literary relation

French Civilization and Its Discontents Tyler Edward Stovall, Georges Van den Abbeele, 2003-01-01 French Civilization and Its Discontents Nationalism Colonialism Race explores the ways in which considerations of difference especially colonialism post colonialism and race have shaped French culture and French studies in the modern era Rejecting traditional assimilationist notions of French national identity contributors to this groundbreaking volume demonstrate how literature history and other aspects of what is considered French civilization have been shaped by processes of creolization and differentiation

Robert Hayden Laurence Goldstein, Robert Chrisman, 2001-10-23 Vital perspectives from leading critics and scholars on one of the most distinguished African American poets of the twentieth century

The Fourth Century _douard Glissant, 2001-01-01 The Fourth Century tells of the quest by young Mathieu B luse to discover the lost history of his country Martinique Aware that the officially recorded version he learned in school omits and distorts he turns to a quimboiseur named Papa Longou This old man of the forest a healer seer and storyteller knows the oral tradition and its relation to the powers of the land and the forces of nature He tells of the love hate relationship between the Longou and B luse families whose ancestors were brought as slaves to Martinique Upon arrival Longou immediately escaped and went to live in the hills as a maroon B luse remained in slavery The intense relationship that had formed between the two men in Africa continued and came to encompass the relations between their masters or in the case of Longou his would be master and their descendants The Fourth Century closes the gap between the families as Papa Longou last of his line conveys the history to Mathieu B luse who becomes his heir

Multidisciplinary Representations of Home and Homeland in Diaspora Jean Amato, Kyunghhee Pyun, 2024-12-20 This collection explores our fascination with homes across time cultures and disciplines while unpacking the relationship between private yearning and public belonging illustrating the limitations and fluidity of identity and affiliation through the idea of homes and ancestral homelands While rooted in comparative literature and critical art history in the context of diaspora studies the book s approach intersects with cultural geography gender and sexuality studies critical race theory architecture urban studies film studies nationalism postcolonial theory sociology and migration studies Conceived as relational and changing the collection emphasizes that home homeland studies are plural and fluctuating concepts encompassing multi local affiliations places gender roles languages practices relations and power In this tangled site of contesting national discourses affiliations nostalgias and ideologies we can uncover valuable insight into how we construct the story of ourselves through traveling bodies spaces homes and mixed geographies

Emigration and Caribbean Literature Malachi McIntosh, Wana, 2016-04-29 During and after the two World Wars a cohort of Caribbean authors migrated to the UK and France Dissecting writers like Lamming C Saire and Glissant McIntosh reveals how these Caribbean writers were pushed to represent themselves as authentic spokesmen for their people coming to represent the concerns of the emigrant intellectual community

Rethinking Urbanism Garth Myers, 2020-06-03 This book provides new insights into popular understandings of urbanism by using a wide range of case studies from lesser studied cities across the Global South and Global North to present evidence for the need to reconstruct our understanding of who and what makes urban environments Myers explores the global hierarchy of cities the criteria for positioning within these hierarchies and the successes of various policymaking approaches designed specifically to boost a city's ranking Engaging heavily with postcolonial studies and Global South thinking he shows how cities construct one another's spaces and calls for a new understanding of planetary urbanism that moves beyond Western centric perspectives

Intimate Enemies Kathryn Batchelor, Claire Bisdorff, 2013 The concept of translation has become central to postcolonial theory in recent decades This volume draws together reflections by translators authors and academics working across Africa the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean areas where the linguistic legacies of French colonial operations are long lasting and complex
