Black Sun Signs Thelma Balfour,1996 A new perspective on the stars tailored to the experience interests and culture of the African American community Black Sun Signs features profiles revealing the general positive and negative traits of each sign followed by specific descriptions of the man woman employee and child typical of that sun sign Black Love Signs Thelma Balfour,1999-02-11 An astrological guide to love relations is tailored to the experience interests and culture of the African American Yoruba Traditions and African American Religious Nationalism Tracey E. Hucks,2012-05-16 Exploring the Yoruba tradition in the United States Hucks begins with the story of Nana Oseijeman Adefunmi s personal search for identity and meaning as a young man in Detroit in the 1930s and 1940s She traces his development as an artist religious leader and founder of several African influenced religio cultural projects in Harlem and later in the South Adefunmi was part of a generation of young migrants attracted to the bohemian lifestyle of New York City and the black nationalist fervor of Harlem Cofounding Shango Temple in 1959 Yoruba Temple in 1960 and Oyotunji African Village in 1970 Adefunmi and other African Americans in that period renamed themselves Yorubas and engaged in the task of transforming Cuban Santer a into a new religious expression that satisfied their racial and nationalist leanings and eventually helped to place African Americans on a global religious schema alongside other Yoruba practitioners in Africa and the diaspora Alongside the story of Adefunmi Hucks weaves historical and sociological analyses of the relationship between black cultural nationalism and reinterpretations of the meaning of Africa from within the African American community Notable Black Memphians Miriam DeCosta-Willis,2008 The Greene Book of Black Knowledge Will EL M. STJ Heron,2022-05-04 What stake do we as Foundational Black Americans really have to claim in the history of this country this continent and the world if any When you think of Foundational Black Americans formerly misnomered as African Americans Negroes Coloreds Black what thought comes to mind and what accomplishments are we known for Were we slaves brought to this country by force low class citizens of a foreign nation with no home to call their own Or is there more to the story so much more that even the mere mention of our accolades would discredit the history of the masses What if I were to tell you that our history in this country from the perspective that everything we have been taught is but a half truth Who built the buildings roads and monuments in this country Where did those people come from and where did they go Where did the many science technology and artforms of the country and the world develop What is the hidden history behind what we are taught but most importantly why is this knowledge kept from us This book will capture some of the lesser known accomplishments and esoteric information that has been passed down word of mouth by some and systematically discredited by others Fortunately true knowledge can neither cease nor desist and this text will show what you can do to utilize that information today It is time that we take our own history by the rungs away from those who would paint an inaccurate picture of our past This will allow us to re introduce ourselves not for exposure and clout but for self vindication and reasonable doubt We Pursue

Our Magic Marina Magloire, 2023-08-29 Drawing on the collected archives of distinguished twentieth century Black woman writers such as Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde Toni Cade Bambara Lorraine Hansberry and others Marina Magloire traces a new history of Black feminist thought in relation to Afro diasporic religion Beginning in the 1930s with the pathbreaking ethnographic work of Katherine Dunham and Zora Neale Hurston in Haiti and ending with the present day popularity of Afro diasporic spiritual practices among Black women she offers an alternative genealogy of Black feminism characterized by its desire to reconnect with ancestrally centered religions like Vodou Magloire reveals the tension discomfort and doubt at the heart of each woman's efforts to connect with ancestral spiritual practices These revered writers are often regarded as unchanging monuments to Black womanhood but Magloire argues that their feminism is rooted less in self empowerment than in a fluid pursuit of community despite the inevitable conflicts wrought by racial capitalism The subjects of this book all model a nuanced Black feminist praxis grounded in the difficult work of community building between Black women across barriers of class culture and time
