Black Swan A Memoir:

The Black Swan Jerome Charyn, 2000 Continues the enchanting saga begun in The Dark Lady From Belloruse in a memoir that contains remembrances from a quasi surreal childhood in the Bronx during and just after World War II The Black Swan Anne Batterson, 2001-10-05 Set against a spontaneous cross country road trip following the migrating birds this passionate lyrical memoir is one woman's reflections on midlife her important personal relationships her kaleidoscopic past and her uncertain future To fifty six year old Anne Batterson a woman whose life has been filled with adventure as a commercial pilot an international skydiving champion a trekking guide in Nepal her husband's decision to retire felt like a death sentence Yearning for some way to reconcile herself to the future that was rapidly unfolding before her she packed up her VW camper and hit the road with maps bird guides and little else except the desire to follow the fall migration and the bone deep hunch that birds had something important to teach her In this beautifully written narrative of that extraordinary trip Batterson writes movingly not only about her experiences with the birds but also about the people she loves has lost and connects with along the way Events from the present trigger vivid stories from the past In the chapter The Journey Within the Journey a long lonely night in a deserted campground in Virginia conjures up the ghosts of a desperate solo road trip she made when she was twenty one A towering cumulus cloud in Illinois brings back a breathtaking free fall into a similar cloud in My Time as a Bird An encounter with a great blue heron summons a compelling account of her mother's last afternoon in the world Bears in the Woods describes a run in with two Deliverance type men in West Virginia which brings back the murder of a dear friend in the woods of Connecticut By the end of the journey the ghosts of the past like the author herself have become part of a more fluid more spiritual reality wild and spare and elegant and timeless one that is always out there quickening on the far side of reality A unique mix of memoir and nature writing The Black Swan is a charming story of a woman's odyssey Memoirs Harvard University. Museum of Comparative Zoology, 1884 The Sonic Color Line Jennifer Lynn Stoeve, 2016-11-15 Race is a visual phenomenon the ability to see difference At least that is what conventional wisdom has lead us to believe Yet The Sonic Color Line argues that American ideologies of white supremacy are just as dependent on what we hear voices musical taste volume as they are on skin color or hair texture Reinforcing compelling new ideas about the relationship between race and sound with meticulous historical research Jennifer Lynn Stoeve helps us to better understand how sound and listening not only register the racial politics of our world but actively produce them Through analysis of the historical traces of sounds of African American performers Stoeve reveals a host of racialized aural representations operating at the level of the unseen the sonic color line and exposes the racialized listening practices she figures as the listening ear New York University Press Memoirs Read Before the Anthropological Society of London Anthropological Society of London, 1870 List of members appended to each volume Popular Zoology, comprising memoirs and anecdotes of the quadrupeds, birds and reptiles, in the Zoological Society's Menagerie, with figures.
