Black Theology Removing The Veil:

Black Theology Kenneth L. Johnson, 1988 Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology James T. Murphy, Jr., 2012-08 An initial introduction to the study of Christian theology is both exciting and invigorating for students of its discipline One can become enameled in the classic perspectives of theology without any consideration of a possible alternative Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology is an exit from the classic conviction that trumpets the doctrine of soteriology attributing its substance to the posture of eternity while ignoring the importance of salvation in the existential Careful not to reject the question of eternal life but examining the nuances of the term salvation empowers this work to present the like manner essential that having salvation is just as much about now than it is in the here after My Sister, My Brother Karen Baker-Fletcher, Garth Baker-Fletcher, 2002-06-19 This fresh new approach to African American theology brings two creative theologians into a lively dialogue between womanist and Xodus thought Karen Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of womanism reflecting the interlocking issues of sex class and race that characterize the experience of African American women Garth KASIMU Baker Fletcher writes from the perspective of what he has termed Xodus theology With a name that resonates with reference both to the Exodus story the Cross and the self naming identity of Malcolm X Xodus reflects the perspective of a new generation of Black theology by males who have responded among other things to the challenges of womanist theology In successive chapters based on core themes of theology each author lays out his or her position They then engage in mutual critique and dialogue Both authors draw widely on the Bible and traditional theology as well as incorporating elements from both African and African American religious and cultural expression from the novels of Toni Morrison and Alice Walker to rap and hip hop My Sister My Brother weaves a bright theological tapestry that integrates female and male experience traditional and contemporary perspectives in an African American theology that promotes survival resistance healing liberation and transcendence CONTENTS Part I God God as Spirit and Strength of Life Xodus Intuitions of the Divine Part II Christ Immanuel Jesus as Dust and Spirit Jesus the Scandal of a God with a Body Part III Humanity Xodus Anthropology Womanhood A Way of Being Human Part IV Generations Unto All Generations Unto the Fathers Fathers Part V Church Spirit Church Having Church Part VI Last Things Future Now Xodus Eschatology Dust to Dust Spirit to Spirit A Womanist Eschatology The Cambridge Companion to Evangelical Theology Timothy Larsen, Daniel J. Treier, 2007-04-12 Evangelicalism a vibrant and growing expression of historic Christian orthodoxy is already one of the largest and most geographically diverse global religious movements This Companion first published in 2007 offers an articulation of evangelical theology that is both faithful to historic evangelical convictions and in dialogue with contemporary intellectual contexts and concerns In addition to original and creative essays on central Christian doctrines such as Christ the Trinity and Justification it breaks new ground by offering evangelical reflections on issues such as gender race culture and world religions This volume also moves beyond the confines of Anglo American perspectives to offer separate essays exploring evangelical theology in African Asian and Latin American contexts The contributors to this volume form an unrivalled list of many of today's most eminent evangelical theologians and important emerging voices Black Theology: 1980-1992 James H. Cone, Gayraud S. Wilmore, 1993 Volume II brings the development of Black Theology up to date covering the relevance of Black Theology to pastoral ministry Black biblical interpretation womanist theology and the increased dialogue with other third world theologies Midwifing—A Womanist Approach to Pastoral Counseling Myrna Thurmond-Malone, 2019-08-01 Midwifing A Womanist Approach to Pastoral Counseling Investigating the Fractured Self Slavery Violence and the Black Woman is an investigation of intergenerational trauma Exploring the impact of slavery violence racism sexism classism and other isms on the self of the Black woman This examination of the complexity of pain speaks to the multidimensional reality of some Black women and the necessity for a therapeutic technique that invites the fullness of the Black woman's historical narrative Dr Thurmond Malone's work exposes hidden pain in a safe and sacred space that speaks to the deep rooted anguish experienced through generations of Black women and invites her readers to understand the necessity for a rebirthing to occur This work also empowers women of African descent to become unarmored through the naming claiming and reauthoring of their story and empowers therapists to become midwives adept at empathizing with the intense pain carried by some Black women Lastly the book provides clinicians with insight into how to become midwives capable of holding the accounts of Black women while illustrating the author's approach as a method of interdependence communal and cultural competency Taking an analytical look at the counselee's past then births hope for their future as a whole and transformative self Lifting the Veil Phil Parshall, Julie Parshall, 2003-04-01 A heart wrenching and perplexing look at the dark world of Muslim women Gothic Elements and Religion in Nathaniel Hawthorne's Fiction Wendy C. Graham, 1999 More Than Chains and Toil Joan Martin, 2000-01-01 In More than Chains and Toil Joan Martin explores the experiences of enslaved women and the realities of their social world to uncover the interrelationships among moral agency work and human meaning She then reflects ethically on the implications such a distinct perspective on labor might have for women in contemporary African American communities and for broader discussions about the meaning of work in American society An Ex-colored Church Raymond R. Sommerville, 2004 The Christian Methodist Episcopal Church was an important part of the historic freedom struggles of African Americans from Reconstruction to the Civil Rights movement This fight for equality and freedom can be seen clearly in the denomination's evolving social and ecumenical consciousness The denomination's very name changed from Colored to Christian in 1954 but the denomination did not join the struggle late Rather the CME was a critical participant from the days following the Civil War At times the Church was at odds with their white Methodist counterparts and in solidarity with other African American denominations on issues of racial desegregation and the role of social protest in religion Raymond Sommerville's important book discusses the relationship between Martin Luther King Jr and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the CME While King and others received most of the headlines during the Civil Rights Era the CME proved to be involved at all levels and equally important in all they did With its strategic location in the South and its long history of ecumenical involvement the CME Church emerged as a leading advocate of ecumenical civil rights activism Previous interpretations asserted that the CME was apolitical and accomodationist or that it was more progressive than it was Sommerville presents a more nuanced account of how a church of largely former slaves emancipated itself from the constraints of white Methodist paternalism and Jim Crow racism to emerge as a progressive force of racial justice and ecumenism in the South and beyond Sommerville examines major centers of the CME Nashville Birmingham Memphis Atlanta and selected leaders inthe South in charting the gradual metamorphosis of the former CME as a largely nonpolitical body of former slaves in 1870 to a more politically active denomination at the apex of the modern Civil Rights movement in the 1960s

Culturally Responsive School Leadership CRSL as a way to recognize and address the historical examples and barriers to practitioner social justice activism These chapters center the school setting and graduate coursework using practitioner scholarship as a way to cultivate critical consciousness and the use of counter narratives to combat racism settler colonialism and classism among school staff Section III engages practitioner scholarship as a revolutionary approach through case study auto ethnography review of literature mental models and phenomenological study This section fosters the value of practitioner voice as agency to disrupt oppressive ideologies and beliefs that sustain inequitable and unequal school environments Section IV provides curriculum instruction and parent involvement as examples of practitioner advocacy via personal and collective identity development Black Crit Inquiry Based Learning IBL and engagement strategies These final chapters provide details of policy and practice transformation methods that empower practitioner sustainability of student and parent access to equitable and inclusive school experiences

Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy

Afro-Christianity at the Grassroots G.C. Oosthuizen, M.C. Kitshoff, S.W.D. Dube, 2023-12-28 The spontaneous and rapid growth of indigenous African Christianity especially in South Africa has undermined the appropriateness of the term mainline for the traditional denominational churches in the area Some of these churches lost more than twenty five percent of their membership in the period 1980 1990 while membership of the indigenous churches increased by a similar percentage in the same period The contributions to this volume are based on grassroots research and each one treats some significant aspect within the life and work of this vast self motivating movement a movement largely ignored for over a century by western oriented Christianity The work of these researchers clearly indicates how it is that African Indigenous Churches with their holistic approach to religion a feature of traditional African religion serve as such a dynamic vehicle in effectively addressing the needs of their flocks A further focus of the essays is on issues faced by these churches within their own church context
