Dusty! Annie J. Randall, 2008-11-17 Dubbed the White Queen of Soul singer Dusty Springfield became the first British soloist to break into the U S Top Ten music charts with her 1964 hit I Only Want To Be With You a pop classic followed by many others including You Don t Have to Say You Love Me and Son of a Preacher Man Today she is usually placed within the history of the Beatles led British Invasion or seen as a devoted acolyte of Motown In this penetrating look at her music and career Annie J Randall shows how Springfield s contributions transcend the narrow limits of those descriptions and how this middle class former convent girl became perhaps the unlikely of artists to achieve soul credibility on both sides of the Atlantic Randall reevaluates Springfield s place in sixties popular music through close investigation of her performances as well as interviews with her friends peers professional associates and longtime fans As the author notes the singer s unique look blonde beehive wigs and heavy black mascara became iconic of the mid sixties postmodern moment in which identity scrambling and camp pastiche were the norms in swinging London s pop culture Randall places Springfield within this rich cultural context focusing on the years from 1964 to 1968 when she recorded her biggest international hits and was a constant presence on British television The book pays special attention to Springfield s close collaboration and friendship with American gospel singer Madeline Bell the distinctive way Springfield combined US soul and European melodrama to achieve her own musical style and stage presence and how her camp sensibility figured as a key element of her artistry

The Rough Guide to Cult Pop Paul Simpson, 2003 This new Rough Guide is devoted to pop music the tacky catchy yet enduring music we grew up listening to when we should have been listening to something more profound We celebrate the hits the singers the impresarios and the songs which have made up the soundtrack to our lives So come along pop pickers put on your blue suede shoes or your tartan trousers or puffball skirt it s your call and take a stroll down Electric Avenue Not aarf Features include bull The Stars A celebration of those performers from Robbie Williams to Andy Williams and Madonna to Mungo Jerry who have had us singing along or in the case of Dean Friedman and Kajagoogoo left us wondering what the world is coming to
