The Black Woman's Gumbo Ya-ya Terri L. Jewell, 1993 Gumbo Ya Ya means rich words found words and here Terri Jewell has collected the words thoughts observations poems lyrics and proverbs from 350 black women worldwide Authors like Toni Morrison and Sonia Sanchez appear alongside African proverbs blues singers and political figures in a book that affirms the strength and unity of black women A useful resource for libraries and writers Terri Jewell writes Here are Black woman s words you can use Give them to your enemies stitch them into blankets sip them with your tea Argue about them think about them Gumbo Ya Ya ,1995 GUMBO YA-YA Robert Tallant, Lyle Saxon, 1987-05-31 The living folklore of Louisiana returns in this new edition of the classic Gumbo Ya Ya Long considered the finest collection of Louisiana folk tales and customs Gumbo Ya Ya chronicles the stories and legends that have emerged from the bayou country Meet the Krewe of Zulu New Orleans most colorful all black Carnival club and the many tribes of Indians who help celebrate Mardi Gras with their fierce pageantry Listen to the street criers entice customers to buy their goods Produce peddlers hawk watermelon cantaloupe snap and butter beans and strawberries The charcoal man sells fuel to stoke the wash day fires while the kindling man offers to saw two cords for a dollar and dinner Zabette and Rose Gla dispense the choicest coffee available in the French Quarter of New Orleans The bottle man collects old bottles rags and bones driving a hard bargain with the children who expect handfuls of peppermints whistles horns and rattles for their hoards of treasure All aspects of society are detailed in this wonderful album of Louisiana tradition the Vieux Carr Creoles with their strict codes of family honor the burly Irish Channel immigrants the lively Italians who still honor St Joseph and St Rosalia with all the pomp of the Old Country and the fun loving Cajuns with their curious family names and spirited fais do do There s no escaping superstition and voodoo in Louisiana Several sections explain the customs and beliefs that have sprung up over the centuries Always burn onion peels to ensure a steady supply of money Sprinkle nutmeg in a woman s left shoe every night at midnight to drive her crazy Kiss your elbow to change your sex Gumbo Ya Ya Everybody Talks at Once is a charming look at the legends and practices of Louisiana particularly New Orleans Originally written as part of the WPA s Louisiana Writers Program it has endured as a classic of its genre and is again available in a beautiful Pelican edition Black Sexualities Juan Battle, Sandra L. Barnes, 2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge and how is it manifested How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism Contributors seek resolution to Blacks understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance The

Black Woman's Gumbo Ya-ya Terri L. Jewell, 1993      Wisdom for the Soul Larry Chang, 2006 Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing      All Bound Up Together Martha S. Jones, 2009-11-30 The place of women's rights in African American public culture has been an enduring question one that has long engaged activists commentators and scholars All Bound Up Together explores the roles black women played in their communities social movements and the consequences of elevating women into positions of visibility and leadership Martha Jones reveals how through the nineteenth century the woman question was at the core of movements against slavery and for civil rights Unlike white women activists who often created their own institutions separate from men black women Jones explains often organized within already existing institutions churches political organizations mutual aid societies and schools Covering three generations of black women activists Jones demonstrates that their approach was not unanimous or monolithic but changed over time and took a variety of forms from a woman's right to control her body to her right to vote Through a far ranging look at politics church and social life Jones demonstrates how women have helped shape the course of black public culture      After Modernism Pelagia Goulimari, 2023-03-31 While celebrating the centenary of the annus mirabilis of modernism we now encounter modernism after postmodernist poststructuralist postcolonial critical race feminist queer and trans writing and theory Out of the figures narratives and concepts they have developed a less universal more global decentred context specific interconnected modernism emerges In after modernism the meanings of after include periodisation homage and critique This book attends to neglected genealogies and intertexts high and low yet offering unacknowledged ontological epistemological conceptual and figurative resources How have artists of the Global South negotiated the hierarchical division of art capital into Western high art vs Global South culture Modernity's location has been the Western metropolis but other origin stories have been centring slavery colonialism the nation state If modernity did not originate once why not multiple and still to come modernities Instead of a universalizable Western modernity vs local non Western traditions the contributors to this book discern multiple modern traditions Rather than reifying their heterogeneity the authors tunnel for lost transnational connections The nation state and the citizen have together defined Western modernity and the civilized Yet they have required the gender binary gender and sexual normativity assimilation exclusion forced migration partition segregation In between the public and the private humans and the natural world this book explores a multiple relational modern subjectivity collectivity and cosmic interconnectivity whose space is indivisible entangled ever folding and unfolding It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki      Wisdom for the Soul of Black Folk Roderick Terry, 2007 Another book of quotations Indeed there are numerous excellent extant anthologies of quotations but these tend to be very broad with a bias toward classical and well known authors those works which document the contributions of Black authors have tended to focus on African Americans considerable as their output is Undeniable recognition of this prevalence is reflected in the title of the present volume which pays homage to W E B Du Bois classic work and in the preponderance of entries from

American sources Nevertheless effort has been made to cast a wider net to capture under represented and unfamiliar voices Khemetic texts preserved in papyri and stelae are the earliest literature to have survived followed by the writings of North African Romans and Ethiopian philosophers and clerics and the lately recovered Timbuktu manuscripts from their repositories in the desert sands of Mali The Transatlantic slave experience gave rise to the slave narratives and abolitionist literature from both sides of the Atlantic which remained predominant right up to the 20th century Post Emancipation under colonial rule and white domination Black poetry and prose emerged adhering to prevailing standards evidenced typically in the work of Phillis Wheatley and the sonnets of Claude McKay With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements would come iconoclastic expressions of protest and identity There is a sizeable body of literature by Black authors from Africa and the diaspora who speak to universal values and eternal verities This anthology of their work focuses on the inner life on personal development and self actualization 3000 quotations have been selected to inspire enlighten and encourage they have been arranged in 200 psycho spiritual categories and in chronological order The resulting timeline of thought in itself is useful and instructive as it demonstrates very clearly the evolution of consciousness evident in the contemporary thinking on particular subjects Like its predecessor Wisdom for the Soul Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing this volume contains a full biographical index and bibliographical references Much of the material is anthologized here for the first time

Feminist Collections, 1993      Nourishing Networks Ashley Rose Young, American History Curator Rare Book and Special Collections Division Ashley Rose Young, 2025-10-31 Nourishing Networks illuminates the central role that food played in shaping one of the United States most captivating places New Orleans Ashley Rose Young weaves together the story of street food in the Big Easy and the development of the uniquely epicurean city      The Alchemy of Illness Kat Duff, 1993 Illness is a universal experience There is no privilege that can make us immune to its touch We are taught to assume health illnesses being just temporary breakdowns in the well oiled machinery of the body But illness has its own geography its own laws and commandments At a time when the attention of the whole nation is focused on health care Kat Duff inquires into the nature and function of illness itself Duff a counselor in private practice in Taos New Mexico wrote this book out of her experience with chronic fatigue syndrome but what she has to say is applicable to every illness and every one of us For those who are sick this book offers solace and recognition For those who care for them either physically or emotionally it offers inspiration and compassion Finally this fresh perspective on healing reveals how every illness is a crucible that tries our mettle tests our limits and provides us with an unparalleled opportunity to integrate its lessons into our lives      Critical Companion to Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2007 Toni Morrison winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1993 is perhaps the most important living American author This work examines Morrison s life and writing featuring critical analyses of her work and themes as well as entries on related topics and relevant people places and influences      States of Rage Renee R. Curry, Terry L. Allison, 1996 States of Rage permeate our culture and our daily lives From the anti Catholic protests of ACT

UP to the political posturing of Al Sharpton from the LA Riots to anti abortion gunmen murdering clinic personnel the unleashing of rage marginalized or institutional has translated into dead bodies on our campuses and city streets in our public buildings and in our homes Rage seems to have gained a currency in the past decade which it previously did not possess Suddenly we appear willing to employ it more often to describe our own or others mental states or actions Rage succinctly describes an ongoing emotional state for many residents and citizens of the United States and elsewhere States of Rage gathers for the first time a critical mass of writing about rage its function expression and utilities It examines rage as a cultural phenomenon delineating its use and explaining why this emotional state increasingly intrudes into our social artistic and academic existences What is the relationship between rage and power lessness How does rage relate to personal or social injustice Can we ritualize rage or is it always spontaneous Finally what provokes rage and what is provocative about it Essays shed light on the psychological and social origins of rage its relationship to the self its connection to culture and its possible triggers The volume includes chapters on violence in the workplace the Montreal massacre female murderers the rage of African American filmmakers rage as a reaction to persecution the rage of AIDS activists class rage and rage in the academy The WomanSource Catalog & Review Ilene Rosoff,1995 All Bound Up Together (Volume 1 of 2) (EasyRead Large Bold Edition) , Kalliope ,2003 Lesbians in Print Margaret Gillon,1995 Social Production and Reproduction at the Interface of Public and Private Spheres Marcia Texler Segal,Esther Ngan-Ling Chow,Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos,2012-07-27 Social Production and Reproduction at the Interface of Public and Private Spheres We Specialize in the Wholly Impossible Darlene Clark Hine,Wilma King,Linda Reed,1995-04 Essays by 30 authors attempt to reclaim and to create heightened awareness about individuals contributions and struggles that have made African American women s survival and progress possible
