Conaway, 2022-11-21 A new edition of a landmark work on Black women's intellectual traditions An astonishing wealth of literary and intellectual work by nineteenth century black women is being rediscovered and restored to print In Kristin B Waters's and Carol B Conaway's landmark edited collection Black Women's Intellectual Traditions sophisticated commentary on this rich body of work chronicles a powerful and interwoven legacy of activism based on social and political theories that helped shape the history of North America Black Women's Intellectual Traditions meticulously reclaims this American legacy providing a collection of critical analyses of the primary sources and their vital traditions Written by leading scholars this book is particularly powerful in its exploration of the pioneering thought and action of the nineteenth century Black woman lecturer and essayist Maria W Stewart abolitionist Sojourner Truth novelist and poet Frances Ellen Watkins Harper educator Anna Julia Cooper newspaper editor Mary Ann Shadd Cary and activist Ida B Wells The volume will interest scholars and readers of African American and women's studies history rhetoric literature poetry sociology political science and philosophy This updated edition features a new preface by the editors in light of current scholarship

Hope in the Holler Anna Elaine Brown Crawford, 2002-01-01 For more than three hundred years black women have embodied a theology of hope which has enabled them to overcome a history of abuse and violence While a theology of hope has been widely discussed in twentieth century theology it was born in slavery long before Jurgen Moltmann introduced it to America in 1967 Even womanist notions of hope have not explored the theological character of hope in abused black women's narratives A Elaine Brown Crawford argues that hope is the theological construct that moves black women beyond endurance and survival to transformation of their personal and communal realities This book identifies and analyzes the theological vision of hope voiced within the narratives of enslaved emancipated and contemporary black women and brings that vision into discussion with contemporary womanist theologies

Standing Before Us Dorothy May Emerson, June Edwards, Helene Knox, 2000 Letters essays stories speeches and poems by women who were social reformers from 1776 to 1936

Women of Ideas Dale Spender, 2024-11-20 Originally published in 1982 with characteristic energy humour and learning Dale Spender traces three hundred years of women's ideas She uncovers not only the ways and words of women but the methods of men While men control knowledge she argues they are in a position to take women's ideas If they like them they use them if they don't they lose them Every fifty years women are required to reinvent the wheel for every generation of women is initiated into a world in which women's traditions have been denied and buried Providing convincing evidence that women's absence from the record as creative intellectual beings is not women's fault but men's Dale Spender claims at least 150 women from the past and suggests how such erasure can be avoided in the future Given that men take what they want from women's ideas Dale Spender advocates that women withdraw their labour that they go on a knowledge strike for if women cannot control the knowledge they produce at least they can ensure that it cannot be used as evidence against them Exposing the inadequacies of much modern male scholarship the author provides the readers with the opportunity to share in her own discoveries excitement and mistakes in the process of researching and writing this book The result is that Women of Ideas And What Men Have Done to Them is an ambitious and provocative book which will be used as a reference for many years to come and which is also from beginning to end a stimulating read

The Political Work of Northern Women Writers and the Civil War, 1850-1872 Lyde Cullen Sizer, 2003-06-19 This volume explores the lives and works of nine Northern women who wrote during the Civil War period examining the ways in which through their writing they engaged in the national debates of the time Lyde Sizer shows that from the 1850 publication of Uncle Tom's Cabin through Reconstruction these women as well as a larger mosaic of lesser known writers used their mainstream writings publicly to make sense of war womanhood Union slavery republicanism heroism and death Among the authors discussed are Lydia Maria Child Harriet Beecher Stowe Sara Willis Parton Fanny Fern Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Mrs E D E N Southworth Mary Abigail Dodge Gail Hamilton Louisa May Alcott Rebecca Harding Davis and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Although direct political or partisan power was denied to women these writers actively participated in discussions of national issues through their sentimental novels short stories essays poetry and letters to the editor Sizer pays close attention to how these mostly middle class women attempted to create a rhetoric of unity giving common purpose to women despite differences in class race and politics This theme of unity was ultimately deployed to establish a white middle class standard of womanhood meant to exclude as well as include

Feminism June Hannam, 2014-06-11 The sheer number of publications on Feminism make it difficult for students who approach the subject for the first time to gain a sense of what the main issues and interpretations are This book addresses this by offering students an overview of feminism and its history across several countries and time periods along with an annotated guide to direct them in their further reading Feminism by June Hannam provides comprehensive coverage right from how feminists began to write the history of their movement as early as the late nineteenth century to the impact feminism has had on higher education The text also looks in depth at propaganda and the cult of the heroine in suffrage campaigning and how first wave feminists constructed their own history which then affected future generations of historians and activists

The Abolitionist Sisterhood Jean Fagan Yellin, John C. Van Horne, 2018-05-31 A small group of black and white American women who banded together in the 1830s and 1840s to remedy the evils of slavery and racism the antislavery females included many who ultimately struggled for equal rights for women as well Organizing fundraising fairs writing pamphlets and giftbooks circulating petitions even speaking before promiscuous audiences including men and women the antislavery women energetically created a diverse and dynamic political culture A lively exploration of this nineteenth century reform movement The Abolitionist Sisterhood includes chapters on the principal female antislavery societies discussions of black women s political culture in the antebellum North articles on the strategies and tactics the antislavery women devised a pictorial essay presenting rare graphics from both sides of abolitionist debates and a final chapter comparing the experiences of the American and British women who attended the 1840 World Anti Slavery Convention in London     African American Women During the Civil War Ella Forbes,2013-01-11 This study uses an abundance of primary sources to restore African American female participants in the Civil War to history by documenting their presence contributions and experience Free and enslaved African American women took part in this process in a variety of ways including black female charity and benevolence These women were spies soldiers scouts nurses cooks seamstresses laundresses recruiters relief workers organizers teachers activists and survivors They carried the honor of the race on their shoulders insisting on their right to be treated as ladies and knowing that their conduct was a direct reflection on the African American community as a whole For too long black women have been rendered invisible in traditional Civil War history and marginal in African American chronicles This book addresses this lack by reclaiming and resurrecting the role of African American females individually and collectively during the Civil War It brings their contributions in the words of a Civil War participant Susie King Taylor in history before the people     Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Racial Nationalist Imagination Teshale Tibebu,2012 A critical study of Edward Wilmot Blyden whose voluminous writings laid the groundwork for some of the most important African and black diasporic thinkers of the twentieth century     Lugenia Burns Hope, Black Southern Reformer Jacqueline Anne Rouse,2004-01-01 From the turn of the century until her death in 1947 Lugenia Burns Hope worked to promote black equality in Atlanta as the wife of John Hope president of both Morehouse College and Atlanta University and on a national level in her discussions with such influential leaders as W E B Du Bois and Jessie Daniel Ames Highlighting the life of the zealous reformer Jacqueline Anne Rouse offers a portrait of a seemingly tireless woman who worked to build the future of her race     Pioneer African American Educators in Washington, D.C.: Anna J. Cooper, Mary Church Terrell, and Eva B. Dykes Marina Bacher,2018 Anna J Cooper Mary Church Terrell and Eva B Dykes shaped the educational landscape in Washington D C in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries These three pioneer educators serve as examples to describe the societal circles they were involved in The many facets of their educational achievements are analyzed in the context of the educational elite of Washington Cooper Terrell and Dykes not only had to live with race discrimination but also with gender discrimination Unpublished archive material is used to illustrate how they interacted and how they treated each other Marina Bacher is a scholar author and educator Series American Studies in Austria Vol 18 Subject Education Sociology History     Race, Gender, and Work Teresa L.
