The 1980s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Philip Tew,Emily Horton,Leigh Wilson,2014-02-27 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1980s shape contemporary British fiction Setting the fiction squarely within the context of Conservative politics and questions about culture and national identity this volume reveals how the decade associated with Thatcherism frames the work of Kazuo Ishiguro Martin Amis and Graham Swift of Scottish novelists and new diasporic writers How and why 1980s fiction is a response to particular psychological social and economic pressures is explored in detail Drawing on the rise of individualism and the birth of neo liberalism contributors reflect on the tense relations between 1980s politics and realism and between elegy and satire Noting the creation of a heritage industry during the decade the rise of the historical novel is also considered against broader cultural changes Viewed from the perspective of more recent theorisations of crisis following both 9 11 and the 21st century financial crash this study makes sense of why and how writers of the 1980s constructed fictions in response to this decade s own set of fundamental crises

Speaking Truths Valerie Chepp,2022-02-11 The twenty first century is already riddled with protests demanding social justice and in every instance young people are leading the charge But in addition to protesters who take to the streets with handmade placards are young adults who engage in less obvious change making tactics In Speaking Truths sociologist Valerie Chepp goes behind the scenes to uncover how spoken word poetry and young people s participation in it contributes to a broader understanding of contemporary social justice activism including this generation s attention to the political importance of identity well being and love Drawing upon detailed observations and in depth interviews Chepp tells the story of a diverse group of young adults from Washington D C who use spoken word to create a more just and equitable world Outlining the contours of this approach she interrogates spoken word activism s emphasis on personal storytelling and truth the strategic uses of aesthetics and emotions to politically engage across difference and the significance of healing in sustainable movements for change Weaving together their poetry and personally told stories Chepp shows how poets tap into the beautiful emotional personal and therapeutic features of spoken word to empathically connect with others advance intersectional and systemic analyses of inequality and make social justice messages relatable across a diverse public By creating allies and forging connections based on friendship professional commitments lived experiences emotions artistic kinship and political views this activist approach is highly integrated into the everyday lives of its practitioners online and face to face Chepp argues that spoken word activism is a product of and a call to action against the neoliberal era in which poets have come of age characterized by widening structural inequalities and increasing economic and social vulnerability She illustrates how this deeply personal and intimate activist approach borrows from builds upon and diverges from previous social movement paradigms Spotlighting the complexity and mutual influence of modern day activism and the world in which it unfolds Speaking Truths contributes to our understanding of contemporary social change making and how neoliberalism has shaped this political generation's experiences with social injustice Black Women's Writing Gina Wisker, 1992-12-18 This book contains a lively and wide ranging collection of critical essays on Black women's writing from Afro American African South African British and Caribbean novelists poets short story writers and a dramatist The contributors are black and white female and male academics and readers who chart their engagement with and enjoyment of the texts of some of the key figures in black women's writing across several continents Poets Talk Pauline Butling, Susan Rudy, 2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry Using the relaxed format of the personal interview Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub literary forms Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan African liberation movements Annharte explains her use of humour to de program Native people Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world

Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain, 2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry

African-American Poets Harold Bloom, 2010 This volume examines contemporary African American poets from the well known writers of the late 20th century to the newly established and emerging voices of today Lesbian and Gay Writing Mark Lilly, 2016-01-07 Part of a series which looks at contemporary criticism on neglected literary and cultural areas this book examines the conventional academic view of lesbian gay writing and has essays on lesbian writers as well as a section on gay men's writing All the critical essays are by lesbians or gay men Ebony, 1972-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Postcolonial Perspectives on Women Writers from Africa, the Caribbean, and the US Martin Japtok, 2003 Combining postcolonial perspectives with race and culture based studies which have merged the fields of African and black American studies this volume concentrates on women writers exploring how the post colonial condition is reflected in women's literature The essays are united by their focus on attempts to create alternative value systems through the rewriting of history or the reclassification of the woman's position in society By examining such strategies these essays illuminate the diversity and coherence of the postcolonial project Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley, Renée Brenda Larrier, Joseph McLaren, 1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe Invisibility Blues Michele Wallace, 2016-11-08 First published in 1990 Michele Wallace's Invisibility Blues is widely regarded as a landmark in the history of black feminism Wallace's considerations of the black experience in America include recollections of her early life in Harlem a look at the continued underrepresentation of black voices in politics media and culture and the legacy of such figures as Zora Neale Hurston Toni Cade Bambara Toni Morrison and Alice

Walker Wallace addresses the tensions between race gender and society bringing them into the open with a singular mix of literary virtuosity and scholarly rigor Invisibility Blues challenges and informs with the plain spoken truth that has made it an acknowledged classic The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Women on Stage Jan Sewell, Clare

Smout, 2020-04-29 This book brings together nearly 40 academics and theatre practitioners to chronicle and celebrate the courage determination and achievements of women on stage across the ages and around the globe The collection stretches from ancient Greece to present day Australasia via the United States Soviet Russia Europe India South Africa and Japan offering a series of analytical snapshots of women performers their work and the conditions in which they produced it Individual chapters provide in depth consideration of specific moments in time and geography while the volume as a whole and its juxtapositions stimulate consideration of the bigger picture underlining the challenges women have faced across cultures in establishing themselves as performers and the range of ways in which they gained access to the stage Organised chronologically the volume looks not just to the past but the future it challenges the very notions of history stage and even the definition of women itself Gendered Resistance Valérie Baisnée, 2023-04-24 Four major women s autobiographies of the twentieth century are discussed together here for the first time Val rie Baisn e reinterprets the autobiographical writing of Simone De Beauvoir Maya Angelou Janet Frame and Marguerite Duras finding some striking similarities in these women s resistance to a conservative order Deploying a variety of theoretical approaches from linguistic to Marxist Baisn e endeavours to break the restrictive patterns of author centred studies to go beyond simple oppositions between truth and fiction and to dispense with the facile interpretation of these texts as confessional For Val rie Baisn e Autobiography is meant to represent not the true but the official version of a life signed by the author herself and revered as hagiography by the public Instead of analysing women s autobiographies as confessional it is possible to see this mode of discourse as a means to counteract the effect of exposure of women s private lives By revealing their past however painful it may be the four autobiographers studied in this book also enhance their present strength and therefore underline the political nature of the autobiography The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis, Leslie Sanders, 2024-12-09

The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies Including historical and contemporary analysis this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction poetry theatre and dub and spoken word It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints approaches and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary historical geographical and cultural analysis This book comprising 32 chapters is organized into five sections that chart the literature s development into a recognizable canon trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west delineate the literature's various genres and expressive forms and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field. This volume's range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers, researchers, and students from multiple disciplines including Canadian studies and literature, Caribbean studies, global Black studies, hemispheric studies, diaspora studies, history, and cultural studies.
