Black Writing From New Guinea:

Pasifika Black Quito Swan, 2024-12-03 ASALH 2023 Book Prize Winner A lively living history of anti colonialist movements across the Atlantic Pacific and Indian Oceans Oceania is a vast sea of islands large scale political struggles and immensely significant historical phenomena Pasifika Black is a compelling history of understudied anti colonial movements in this region exploring how indigenous Oceanic activists intentionally forged international connections with the African world in their fights for liberation Drawing from research conducted across Fiji Australia Vanuatu Papua New Guinea Britain and the United States Quito Swan shows how liberation struggles in Oceania actively engaged Black internationalism in their diverse battles against colonial rule Pasifika Black features as its protagonists Oceania s many playwrights organizers religious leaders scholars Black Power advocates musicians environmental justice activists feminists and revolutionaries who carried the banners of Black liberation across the globe It puts artists like Aboriginal poet Oodgeroo Noonuccal and her 1976 call for a Black Pacific into an extended conversation with Nigeria s Wole Soyinka the Nuclear Free and Independent Pacific s Amelia Rokotuivuna Samoa s Albert Wendt African American anthropologist Angela Gilliam the NAACP s Roy Wilkins West Papua s Ben Tanggahma New Caledonia s D w Gorodey and Polynesian Panther Will Ilolahia In so doing Swan displays the links Oceanic activists consciously and painstakingly formed in order to connect Black metropolises across the Atlantic Pacific and Indian Oceans In a world grappling with the global significance of Black Lives Matter and state sanctioned violence against Black and Brown bodies Pasifika Black is a both triumphant history and tragic reminder of the ongoing quests for decolonization in Oceania the African world and the Global South      Black Writing from New Guinea Ulli Beier, 1973 A collection of poems and lyrics from several songs provides a look at our country from colonial times to the present

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide      Voices of Independence Ulli Beier, 1980-01-01      Imagining the Other Regis Tove Stella, 2007-04-30 Much has been written about Papua New Guinea over the last century and too often in ways that legitimated or served colonial interests through highly pejorative and racist descriptions of Papua New Guineans Paying special attention to early travel literature works of fiction and colonial reports laws and legislation Regis Tove Stella reveals the complex and persistent network of discursive strategies deployed to subjugate the land and its people      The Rise of Pacific Literature Matthew Hayward, Maebh Long, 2024-09-03 In the 1960s and 1970s the staff and students of two newly founded universities in the Pacific Islands helped foster a golden age of Oceanian literature At the University of Papua New Guinea and the University of the South Pacific bold experiments in curriculum design recentered literary studies around a Pacific modernity Rejecting the established British colonial model writer scholars placed Pacific oratory and a growing body of Oceanian writing at the heart of the syllabus From this local core students ventured outward to contemporary postcolonial literatures where they saw modernist techniques repurposed for a decolonizing world Only then did they turn to foundational modernist texts encountered at last as a set of creative tools rather than a canon to be copied or learned by rote The Rise of Pacific Literature reveals the transformative role and radical adaptations of global modernisms in this golden age Maebh Long and Matthew Hayward examine the reading and teaching of Pacific oral narratives European and American modernisms and African Caribbean and Indian literature tracing how Oceanian writers appropriated and reworked key texts and techniques They identify the local innovations and international networks that spurred Pacific literature s golden age by reading crucial works against the poetry prose and plays on the syllabi of the new universities Placing internationally recognized writers such as Albert Wendt Subramani Konai Helu Thaman Marjorie Crocombe and John Kasaipwalova alongside lesser known authors of works published in Oceanian little magazines this book offers a wide ranging new account of Pacific literary history that tells a fresh story about modernism s global itineraries and transformations Post Report ,1986 Series of pamphlets on countries of the world revisions issued Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 Kilivila Gunter Senft,2011-06-01 The series builds an extensive collection of high quality descriptions of languages around the world Each volume offers a comprehensive grammatical description of a single language together with fully analyzed sample texts and if appropriate a word list and other relevant information which is available on the language in question There are no restrictions as to language family or area and although special attention is paid to hitherto undescribed languages new and valuable treatments of better known languages are also included No theoretical model is imposed on the authors the only criterion is a high standard of scientific quality The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport,1999 Forty five contributors offer information on the physical environment history culture population economy and living environment of the Pacific islands The Empire Writes Back Bill Ashcroft,Gareth Griffiths,Helen Tiffin,2003-12-16 The experience of colonization and the challenges of a post colonial world have produced an explosion of new writing in English This diverse and powerful body of literature has established a specific practice of post colonial writing in cultures as various as India Australia the West Indies and Canada and has challenged both the traditional canon and dominant ideas of literature and culture The Empire Writes Back was the first major theoretical account of a wide range of post colonial texts and their relation to the larger issues of post colonial culture and remains one of the most significant works published in this field The authors three leading figures in post colonial studies open up debates about the interrelationships of post colonial literatures investigate the powerful forces acting on language in the post colonial text and show how these texts constitute a radical critique of Eurocentric notions of literature and language This book is brilliant not only for its incisive analysis but for its accessibility for readers new to the field Now with an additional chapter and an updated bibliography The Empire Writes

Back is essential for contemporary post colonial studies      Cultural History of Reading [2 volumes] Sara E. Quay, Gabrielle R. Watling, 2008-11-30      Writing Yourself Home Kimberly Snow, 1992-03-01 Writing Yourself Home features over seventy five readings by such noted authors as Maxine Hong Kingston Alice Walker Virginia Woolf Margaret Atwood and Simone de Beauvoir as well as more than 200 writing and visualization exercises on love relationships families language dreams and writing Designed as a guided journal these readings and writings will help clarify issues for women interested in personal growth and those who want to enhance their writing      Reading Across the Pacific Robert Dixon, Nicholas Birns, 2010 Reading Across the Pacific is a study of literary and cultural engagement between the United States and Australia from a contemporary interdisciplinary perspective The book examines the relations of the two countries shifting the emphasis from the broad cultural patterns that are often compared to the specific networks interactions and crossings that have characterised Australian literature in the United States and American literature in Australia In the 21st century both American and Australian literatures are experiencing new challenges to the very different paradigms of literary history and criticism each inherited from the 20th century In response to these challenges scholars of both literatures are seizing the opportunity to reassess and reconfigure the conceptual geography of national literary spaces as they are reformed by vectors that evade or exceed them including the transnational the local and the global The essays in Reading Across the Pacific are divided into five sections National literatures and transnationalism Poetry and poetics Literature and popular culture The Cold War and Publishing history and transpacific print cultures      Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature Jeffrey B. Leak, 2005 The portrayal of black men in our national literature is controversial complex and often contradictory In Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature Jeffrey B Leak identifies some of the long held myths and stereotypes that persist in the work of black writers from the nineteenth century to the present intellectual inferiority criminality sexual prowess homosexual emasculation and cultural deprivation Utilizing Robert B Stepto's call and response theory Leak studies four pairs of novels within the context of certain myths identifying the literary tandems between them and seeking to discover the source of our culture's psychological preoccupation with black men Calling upon interdisciplinary fields of study literary theory psychoanalysis gender studies legal theory and queer theory Leak offers groundbreaking analysis of both canonical texts representing the call of the call and response dyad and texts by emerging writers representing the response including Frederick Douglass and Charles Johnson Ralph Ellison and Brent Wade Richard Wright and Ernest J Gaines and Toni Morrison and David Bradley Though Leak does not claim that the response texts are superior to the call texts he does argue that in some cases the newer work such as Charles Johnson's Oxherding Tale can address a theme or offer a narrative innovation not found in preceding texts such as Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass In these instances argues Leak the newer texts constitute not only a response to the call text but a substantial revision Leak offers the first in depth criticism of black masculinity in a range of literary texts In a final chapter he expands his discussion to the emerging field of black masculinity studies pointing to future directions for study including memoir film drama and others Poised on the brink of exciting new trends in scholarship Racial Myths and Masculinity in African American Literature is a flagship work enhancing the understanding of literary constructions of black masculinity and the larger cultural imperatives to which these writers are reacting European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard,1986 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory e

Quay,Gabrielle R.

Watling,2008-11-30 What is it about some books that makes them timeless Cultural History of Reading looks at books from their earliest beginnings through the present day in both the U S and regions all over the world Not only fiction and literature but religious works dictionaries scientific works and home guides such as Mrs Beeton s all have had an impact on not only their own time and place but continue to capture the attention of readers today Volume 1 examines the history of books in regions throughout the world identifying both literature and nonfiction that was influenced by cultural events of its time Volume 2 identifies books from the pre colonial era to the present day that have had lasting significance in the United States History students and book lovers alike will enjoy discovering the books that have impacted our world Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt,1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature
