Black Education In Alabama 1865 1901 Library Of Alabama Classics:

Black Education in Alabama, 1865-1901 Robert G. Sherer, 1997 This history of black education in post Civil War Alabama serves several functions it collects and publishes an enormous amount of material much of it fugitive in nature painting the portraits of many individuals both famous and obscure and it illustrates particularly in its critical discussion of Booker T Washington the history of goals in post secondary institutions and the appropriateness of vocational or liberal arts training Capsules A Review of Higher Education Research The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006

Classical Antiquity and the Politics of America Michael Meckler, 2006 history and illustrates how the ancient Greeks and Romans continue to influence political theory and determine policy in the United States from the education of the Founders to the War in Iraq Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 America, History and Life, 1993 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2004 Books in Series, 1876-1949: Authors, 1982 African American Historic Places National Register of Historic Places, 1995-07-13 Culled from the records of the National Register of Historic Places a roster of all types of significant properties across the United States African American Historic Places includes over 800 places in 42 states and two U S territories that have played a role in black American history Banks cemeteries clubs colleges forts homes hospitals schools and shops are but a few of the types of sites explored in this volume which is an invaluable reference guide for researchers historians preservationists and anyone interested in African American culture Also included are eight insightful essays on the African American experience from migration to the role of women from the Harlem Renaissance to the Civil Rights Movement The authors represent academia museums historic preservation and politics and utilize the listed properties to vividly illustrate the role of communities and women the forces of migration the influence of the arts and heritage preservation and the struggles for freedom and civil rights Together they lead to a better understanding of the contributions of African Americans to American history They illustrate the events and people the designs and achievements that define African American history And they pay powerful tribute to the spirit of black America Schooling the Freed People Ronald E. Butchart, 2010 Conventional Wisdom Holds that freedmen s education was largely the work of privileged single white northern women motivated by evangelical beliefs and abolitionism Schooling the Freed People shatters this notion entirely For the most comprehensive study of the origins of black education in freedom ever undertaken Ronald Butchart combed the archives of all of the freedmen s aid organizations as well as the archives of every southern state to compile a vast database of over 11 600 individuals who taught in southern black schools between 1861 and 1876 Based on this pathbreaking research he reaches some surprising conclusions one third of the teachers were African Americans black teachers taught longer than white teachers half of the teachers were southerners and even the northern teachers were more diverse than previously imagined His evidence demonstrates that evangelicalism contributed much less than previously belived to white teachers commitment to black students that abolitionism was a relatively small factor in motivating the teachers and that on the whole the teachers ideas and aspirations about their work often ran counter to the aspirations of the freed people for Schooling The crowning achievement of a veteran scholar this is the definitive book on freedmen s teachers in the South as well as an outstanding contribution to social history and our understanding of African American education Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982 Books in Series, 1876-1949: Titles ,1982 Ebony ,2005-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The American South Jessica S. Brown,1986 This two volume work with its almost 8 900 abstracts and annotations of articles drawn from an international list of over 500 periodicals dealing with history and related disciplines published between 1974 and 1984 Introd p viii Booker T. Washington and the Art of Self-representation Michael Bieze,2008 This series explores the history of schools and schooling in the United States and other countries The series will examine the historical development of schools and educational processes with special emphasis on issues of educational policy curriculum and pedagogy as well as issues relating to race class gender and ethnicity Special emphasis will be placed on the lessons to be learned from the past for contemporary educational reform and policy Although the series will publish books related to education in the broadest societal and cultural context it especially seeks books on the history of specific schools and on the lives of educational leaders and school founders Ebony ,2001-09 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Brockton Library Bulletin ,1899 The Century Dictionary Supplement ,1909 The Publishers Weekly ,1973-04 Dictionary Catalog of the Schomburg Collection Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,1976
