Beyond Black Hawk Down Jonathan Carroll, 2025-06-24 The story of Black Hawk Down is a familiar one On 3 October 1993 two Black Hawk helicopters were shot down and in the ensuing Battle of Mogadishu eighteen Americans and hundreds of Somalis were killed But very few appreciate that this was just one day in a two and a half year operation the most ambitious attempt in history to rebuild a nation The United States sought to show the world that the UN could rebuild a country but in a dire foreshadowing of the failed efforts in Iraq and Afghanistan a decade later the intervention in Somalia was plagued with political infighting policy mismatch confusion and fatal assumptions In 1992 Somalia saw the largest ever deployment of American troops to the continent of Africa and 1993 brought the first UN led peace enforcement mission and the most ambitious experiment in nation building In Beyond Black Hawk Down Jonathan Carroll provides the first scholarly military history of the entire intervention from its early and largely successful humanitarian phase in 1992 to the ultimate withdrawal of UN forces in 1995 Carroll dispels the myths and misunderstandings surrounding one of the most infamous episodes of the 1990s to present a new interpretation of events most notably by including the Somali perspective to argue what went so wrong in Somalia and more importantly why Understanding the intervention in Somalia its successes and the roots of its failures is invaluable to contemporary debates on concepts of nation building and counterinsurgency Moreover the increasing regularity of interstate and intrastate conflicts across the world means the international community will continue to be called upon to intervene in other failed or failing states in the future Beyond Black Hawk Down is an important new history that will inform the shape and nature of future military interventions

Shari'a, Inshallah Mark Fathi Massoud, 2021-05-27 Shari'a Inshallah shows how people have used shari'a to struggle for peace justice and human rights in Somalia and Somaliland

Eve of Destruction Thomas M. Nichols, 2013-04-19 In an age of new threats to international security the old rules of war are rapidly being discarded The great powers are moving toward norms less restrictive of intervention preemption and preventive war This evolution is taking place not only in the United States but also in many of the world's most powerful nations including Russia France and Japan among others As centuries of tradition and law are overturned will preventive warfare push the world into chaos Eve of Destruction is a provocative contribution to a growing international debate over the acceptance of preventive military action In the first work to identify the trends that have led to a coming age of preventive war Thomas M Nichols uses historical analysis as well as interviews with military officials from around the world to trace the anticipatory use of force from the early 1990s when the international community responded to a string of humanitarian crises in Somalia Bosnia and Kosovo to today's current and potential actions against rogue states and terrorists He makes a case for a bold reform of U S foreign policy and of the United Nations Security Council itself in order to avert outright anarchy

Getting Away With Murder Richard D. Mahoney, 2011-09-01 Getting Away With Murder is an explosive investigation into the death of an American hero the strange case of the American Taliban and why we never got the truth about either until now When John Walker Lindh was arrested in November 2001 Americans were shocked to learn that one of our own had fought for the Taliban He would come under further fire for the torture and death of CIA officer Mike Spann The American public was outraged and the Bush administration vowed to make an example of the traitor Why then after threatening treason and the death penalty did the government suddenly abandon a trial in favor of a soft plea deal Richard D Mahoney puts these questions on trial the final verdict promises to be shocking Holding the Line Cindy Williams, 2001 An objective and detailed look at the American defense budget and military strategy Inside Terrorism Bruce Hoffman, 2006 Defining terrorism The end of empire and the origins of contemporary terrorism The internationalization of terrorism Religion and terrorism Suicide terrorism The old media terrorism and public opinion The new media terrorism and the shaping of global opinion The modern terrorist mind set tactics targets tradecraft and technologies Terrorism today and tomorrow Dreamland Carly Goodman, 2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true

Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism
