biographer Roger Nichols introduces a fascinating document of frontier history the autobiography of Sauk leader Black Hawk first published in 1833 Using a variety of sources the editor seeks the authentic voice of Black Hawk who collaborated with a newspaperman and a U S interpreter In addition to Black Hawk s original text Nichols provides a chronology a bibliography and a balanced account of Sauk settler relations during a period of relentless American expansion Life of Ma-ka-tai-me-she-kia-kiak Or Black Hawk Black Hawk (Sauk chief),1834 Autobiography of Ma-Ka-tai-me-she-kia-kiak Black Hawk,2018-06-04 Autobiography Of Ma-ka-tai-me-she-kia-kiak, Or Black Hawk Black Hawk,2005-01-01

Black Hawk Black Hawk,2016-08-24 Black Hawk or Autobiography of Ma ka tai me she kia kiak By Black Hawk Embracing the Traditions of his Nation Various Wars in which he has been engaged And His Account of the Cause and General History of the Black Hawk War of 1832 I was born at the Sac village on Rock river in the year 1767 and am now in my 67th year My great grandfather Nanamakee or Thunder according to the tradition given me by my father Pyesa was born in the vicinity of Montreal Canada where the Great Spirit first placed the Sac nation and inspired him with a belief that at the end of four years he should see a white man who would be to him a father Consequently he blacked his face and eat but once a day just as the sun was going down for three years and continued dreaming throughout all this time whenever he slept When the Great Spirit again appeared to him and told him that at the end of one year more he should meet his father and directed him to start seven days before its expiration and take with him his two brothers Namah or Sturgeon and Paukahummawa or Sunfish and travel in a direction to the left of sun rising After pursuing this course for five days he sent out his two brothers to listen if they could hear a noise and if so to fasten some grass to the end of a pole erect it pointing in the direction of the sound and then return to him Autobiography of Ma-ka-tai-me-she-kia-kiak, Or, Black Hawk Black Hawk (Sauk chief),2025 Autobiography of Ma-Ka-Tai-Me-She-Kia-Kiak, Or Black Hawk Black Hawk,2017-06-22 SIR The changes of fortune and vicissitudes of war made you my conqueror When my last resources were exhausted my warriors worn down with long and toilsome marches we yielded and I became your prisoner The story of my life is told in the following pages it is intimately connected and in some measure identified with a part of the history of your own I have therefore dedicated it to you The changes of many summers have brought old age upon me and I can not expect to survive many moons Before I set out on my journey to the land of my fathers I have determined to give my motives and reasons for my former hostilities to the whites and to vindicate my character from misrepresentation The kindness I received from you whilst a prisoner of war assures me that you will vouch for the facts contained in my narrative so far as they came under your observation I am now an obscure member of a nation that formerly honored and respected my opinions The pathway to glory is rough and many gloomy hours obscure it May the Great Spirit shed light on yours and that you may never experience the humility that the power of the American government has reduced me to is the wish of him who in his native forests was once as proud and bold as yourself BLACK HAWK 10th Moon 1833 ADVERTISEMENT It is presumed that no apology will be required for presenting to the public the life of a Hero who has lately taken such high rank among the distinguished individuals of America In the following pages he will be seen in the character of a Warrior a Patriot and a State prisoner in every situation he is still the chief of his Band asserting their rights with dignity firmness and courage Several accounts of the late war having been published in which he thinks justice is not done to himself or nation he determined to make known to the world the injuries his people have received from the whites the causes which brought on the war on the part of his nation and a general history of it throughout the campaign In his opinion this is the only method now left him to rescue his little Band the remnant of those who fought bravely with him from the effects of the statements that have already gone forth The facts which he states respecting the Treaty of 1804 in virtue of the provisions of which the government claimed the country in dispute and enforced its arguments with the sword are worthy of attention It purported to cede tot he United States all of the country including the village and corn fields of Black Hawk and his band on the east side of the Mississippi Four individuals of the tribe who were on a visit to St Louis to obtain the liberation of on of their people from prison were prevailed upon says Black Hawk to make this important treaty without the knowledge or authority of the tribes or nation In treating with the Indians for their country it has always been customary to assemble the whole nation because as has been truly suggested by the Secretary of War the nature of the authority of the chiefs of the tribe is such that it is not often that they dare make a treaty of much consequence and we might add never when involving so much magnitude as the one under consideration without the presence of their young men
