Black Ice Modern Fiction No 1:

Books in Print ,1994 Religious Imaging in Millennialist America Ashley Crawford,2018-09-19 Ashley Crawford investigates how such figures as Ben Marcus Matthew Barney and David Lynch among other artists novelists and film directors utilize religious themes and images via Christianity Judaism and Mormonism to form essentially mutated variations of mainstream belief systems He seeks to determine what drives contemporary artists to deliver implicitly religious imagery within a secular context Particularly how religious heritage and language and the mutations within those have impacted American culture to partake in an aesthetic of apocalypticism that underwrites it Literary Magazine Review ,1983

African American Women's Literature in Spain Sandra Llopart Babot,2023-05-31 This volume brings forward a descriptive approach to the translation and reception of African American women s literature in Spain Drawing from a multidisciplinary theoretical and methodological framework it traces the translation history of literature produced by African American women seeking to uncover changing strategies in translation policies as well as shifts in interests in the target context and it examines the topicality of this cohort of authors as frames of reference for Spanish critics and reviewers Likewise the reception of the source literature in the Spanish context is described by reconstructing the values that underlie judgements in different reception sources Finally this book addresses the specific problem of the translation of Black English into Spanish More precisely it pays attention to the ideological and the ethical implications of translation choices and the effect of the latter on the reception of literary texts Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001-08 Approaches to Teaching Baraka's Dutchman Matthew Calihman,Gerald Early,2018-05-01 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching the play Dutchman by Amiri Baraka LeRoi Jones in college literature drama and film courses including consideration of race gender black arts and other literary movements the blues and popular music and African American history Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1877 Musing the Mosaic Matthew Roberson,2012-02-01 In Musing the Mosaic prominent critics of postmodern and contemporary fiction and culture discuss the fictional and theoretical works of Ronald Sukenick one of the most important American writers to emerge from the late 1960s Sukenick has been a prolific participant in reshaping the American literary tradition for two generations and played a pivotal role in the creation and growth of the Fiction Collective and FC2 publishing houses as well as the journals American Book Review and Black Ice Magazine In his work he argues that contemporary fiction can neither perform traditional functions nor rely on any conventions in an ever more dynamic world Staying true to Sukenick s own creative style one that takes the seams out of writing before re stitching it in ways that are truly novel the contributors examine how and why his writing comes closer to the dissolving fragmentary nature of reality and its lack of closure than perhaps anything written before it New Visions of Community in Contemporary American Fiction Magali Cornier Michael,2008-04 In this engaging optimistic close reading of five late twentieth century novels by American women Magali Cornier Michael illuminates the ways in which their authors engage with ideas of communal activism common commitment and social transformation The fictions she examines imagine coalition building as a means of moving toward new forms of nonhierarchical justice for ethnic cultures that as a result of racist attitudes have not been assimilated power with each other rather than power over each other is a collective goal Michael argues that much contemporary American fiction by women offers models of care and nurturing that move away from the private sphere toward the public and political Specifically texts by women from such racially marked ethnic groups as African American Asian American Native American and Mexican American draw from the rich systems of thought histories and experiences of these hybrid cultures and thus offer feminist and ethical revisions of traditional concepts of community coalition subjectivity and agency Focusing on Amy Tan s The Joy Luck Club Barbara Kingsolver s The Bean Trees and Pigs in Heaven Ana Castillo s So Far from God and Toni Morrison s Paradise Michael shows that each writer emphasizes the positive liberating effects of kinship and community These hybrid versions of community which draw from other than dominant culturally specific ideas and histories have something to offer Americans as the United States moves into an increasingly diverse twenty first century Michael provides a rich lens through which to view both contemporary fiction and contemporary life Small Press Review

,1983 A Black Philadelphia Reader Louis J. Parascandola,2024-06-11 The relationship between the City of Brotherly Love and its Black residents has been complicated from the city s founding through the present day A Black Philadelphia Reader traces this complex history in the words of Black writers who were native to lived in or had significant connections to the city Featuring the works of famous authors including W E B Du Bois Harriet Jacobs Sonia Sanchez and John Edgar Wideman alongside lesser known voices this reader is an immersive and enriching composite portrait of the Black experience in Philadelphia Through fiction and nonfiction poetry and prose readers witness episodes of racial prejudice and gender inequality in areas like public health housing education policing criminal justice and public transportation And yet amid these myriad challenges the writers convey an enduring faith a love of family and community and a hope that Philadelphia will fulfill its promises to its Black citizens Thoughtfully introduced and accompanied by notes that contextualize the works and aid readers comprehension this book will appeal to a wide audience of Philadelphians and other readers interested in

Abortion, Choice, and Contemporary Fiction Judith Wilt, 1990-06-28 In recent years public debate has raged over the issue of maternal choice While personal testimony and political argument have received widespread attention artistic representations of birth and abortion have been submerged Judith Wilt offers the first look at how contemporary writers tell and retell the stories that shape our perceptions about abortion She reveals that the struggle to plot these painful complex narratives of choice control guilt loss and liberation has preoccupied an astonishing number of our most distinguished novelists male and female alike Readers of twentieth century novels are more likely to encounter plots centered on maternal choice than those dealing with the more traditional problems of courtship and marriage In the opening of the book Wilt discusses real case histories of several women After studying the ambiguities of their decisions she turns to their counterpoints depicted in contemporary fiction Working from a feminist perspective Wilt traces the theme of maternal choice in works by Margaret Atwood Margaret Drabble Joan Didion Mary Gordon Alice Walker Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Marge Piercy Thomas Keneally Graham Swift Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner John Barth John Irving and others Behind the political medical and moral debates on abortion Wilt argues is a profound psychocultural shock at the recognition that maternity is passing from the domain of instinct to that of conscious choice Although never wholly instinctual maternity's potential capture by consciousness raises complex questions The novels Wilt discusses portray worlds in which principles are endangered by sexual inequality male power and hidden male fear of abandonment impotence female submission and covert rage and in the case of black maternity the hideous aftermath of slavery Wilt provides a resonant new context for debates whether political or personal on the issue of abortion and maternal choice Ultimately she enables us to rethink how we shape our own identities and lives The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary African American Literature Yogita

Multiculturalism in Contemporary British South Asian Fiction Anas Galet M. Alhaisony, 2025-09-30 This book explores the multifaceted themes of home belonging and multiculturalism in contemporary British South Asian fiction Through detailed literary analysis of novels by authors such as Nadeem Aslam Gautam Malkani and Kamila Shamsie this work delves into how these narratives reflect and interrogate the complex interplay of race class and identity in the context of modern Britain Drawing on theoretical frameworks from cultural studies and postcolonial theory the project examines the role of literature in shaping public perceptions of multicultural identities and provides new insights into how British South Asian literature responds to and reshapes contemporary socio political events like Brexit and the 2011 England riots This study aims to offer a critical re evaluation of the concept of multiculturalism moving beyond traditional discussions of diaspora and hybridity to explore more nuanced interpretations of cultural integration and identity formation

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2014-05-14 An accessible one volume encyclopedia this addition to the Literary Movements series is a comprehensive reference guide to the history and development of feminist literature from early fairy tales to works by great women writers of today Hundred

Shades of the Planet Wai Chee Dimock, Lawrence Buell, 2018-06-05 In a globalizing age studying American literature in isolation from the rest of the world seems less and less justified But is the conceptual box of the nation dispensable And what would American literature look like without it Leading scholars take up this debate in Shades of the Planet beginning not with the United States as center but with the world as circumference This reversed frame yields a surprising landscape alive with traces of West Africa Eastern Europe Iran Iraq India China Mexico and Australia The Broadway musical Oklahoma has aboriginal antecedents Black English houses an African syntax American slavery consorts with the Holocaust Philip Roth keeps company with Milan Kundera the crime novel moves south of the border and R P Blackmur lectures in Japan A national literature becomes haunted by the world when that literature is seen extending to the Pacific opening up to Islam and accompanying African American authors as they travel Highlighting American literature as a fold in a planet wide fabric this pioneering volume transforms the field redrawing its institutional as well as geographical map The contributors are Rachel Adams Jonathan Arac Homi K Bhabha Lawrence Buell Wai Chee Dimock Susan Stanford Friedman Paul Giles David Palumbo Liu Ross Posnock Joseph Roach and Eric J Sundquist
