Black Notebooks An Interior Journey:

The Black Notebooks Toi Derricotte,1999      African American Autobiographers Emmanuel S. Nelson,2002-03-30

There is growing popular and scholarly interest in autobiography along with increasing regard for the achievements of African American writers The first reference of its kind this volume chronicles the autobiographical tradition in African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 66 African American authors who present autobiographical material in their works The volume profiles major figures such as Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright Maya Angelou James Baldwin and Malcolm X along with many lesser known autobiographers who deserve greater attention While some are known primarily for their literary accomplishments others have gained acclaim for their diverse contributions to society The entries are written by expert contributors and provide authoritative information about their subjects Each begins with a concise biography which summarizes the life and achievements of the autobiographer This is followed by a discussion of major autobiographical works and themes along with an overview of the autobiographer s critical reception The entries close with primary and secondary bibliographies and a selected general bibliography concludes the volume Together the entries provide a detailed portrait of the African American autobiographical tradition from the 18th century to the present      Crossing the Line Gayle Wald,2000-07-24 Examines constructions of racial identity through the exploration of passing narratives including Black Like Me and forties jazz musician Mezz Mezzrow s memoir Really the Blues

The Civil Rights Reader Julie Buckner Armstrong,Amy Schmidt,2009-01-01 This anthology of drama essays fiction and poetry presents a thoughtful classroom tested selection of the best literature for learning about the long civil rights movement Unique in its focus on creative writing the volume also ranges beyond a familiar 1954 68 chronology to include works from the 1890s to the present The civil rights movement was a complex ongoing process of defining national values such as freedom justice and equality In ways that historical documents cannot these collected writings show how Americans negotiated this process politically philosophically emotionally spiritually and creatively Gathered here are works by some of the most influential writers to engage issues of race and social justice in America including James Baldwin Flannery O Connor Amiri Baraka and Nikki Giovanni The volume begins with works from the post Reconstruction period when racial segregation became legally sanctioned and institutionalized This section titled The Rise of Jim Crow spans the period from Frances E W Harper s Iola Leroy to Ralph Ellison s Invisible Man In the second section The Fall of Jim Crow Martin Luther King Jr s Letter from Birmingham Jail and a chapter from The Autobiography of Malcolm X appear alongside poems by Robert Hayden June Jordan and others who responded to these key figures and to the events of the time Reflections and Continuing Struggles the last section includes works by such current authors as Rita Dove Anthony Grooms and Patricia J Williams These diverse perspectives on the struggle for civil rights can promote the kinds of conversations that we as a nation still need to initiate      Jazz and American Culture Michael Borshuk,2023-11-30 Almost immediately after jazz became popular nationally in the United States in the early 20th century American writers responded to what this exciting art form signified for listeners This book takes an expansive view of the relationship between this uniquely American music and other aspects of American life including books films language and politics Observing how jazz has become a cultural institution widely celebrated as America's classical music the book also never loses sight of its beginnings in Black expressive culture and its enduring ability to critique problems of democracy or speak back to violence and inequality from Jim Crow to George Floyd Taking the reader through time and across expressive forms this volume traces jazz as an aesthetic influence a political force and a representational focus in American literature and culture It shows how Jazz has long been a rich source of aesthetic stimulation influencing writers as stylistically wide ranging as Langston Hughes Eudora Welty and James Baldwin or artists as diverse as Aaron Douglas Jackson Pollock and Gordon Parks

Writing and Teaching to Change the World Stephanie Jones, 2014-03-29 The story begins when some committed and curious teachers from the Red Clay Writing Project gathered into a teacher inquiry community to spend a year focusing on and documenting their experiences with one of their most disenfranchised students By analyzing and rethinking what they do in the classroom and why they do it the authors come to re imagine who they are as teachers and as human beings These honest and compelling stories about connecting with one student uncover valuable insights for becoming more responsive to all students The book introduces the Oral Inquiry Process and examines its role in fostering critical awareness among educators Perfect for use in teacher preparation courses and professional learning groups the text includes prompts at the end of each chapter to support teacher writer groups along with a suggested writing exercise

Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman, 2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one's truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person's life that have yet to be explored

Growing Up in Central Australia Ute Eickelkamp, 2011-06-01 Surprisingly little research has been carried out about how Australian Aboriginal children and teenagers experience life shape their social world and imagine the future This volume presents recent and original studies of life experiences outside the institutional settings of childcare and education of those growing up in contemporary Central Australia or with strong links to the region Focusing on the remote communities roughly 1 200 across the continent the volume includes case studies of language and family life in small country towns and urban contexts These studies expertly show that forms of consciousness have changed enormously over the last hundred years for Indigenous societies more so than for the rest of Australia yet equally notable are the continuities across generations

Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry Alan Bleakley, Shane Neilson, 2024-05-02 The Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry draws on an international selection of authors to ask what the cultures of poetry and medicine may gain from reciprocal critical engagement The volume celebrates interdisciplinary inquiry critique and creative expansion with an emphasis upon amplifying provocative and marginalized voices This carefully curated collection offers both historical context and future thinking from clinicians poets artists humanities scholars social scientists and bio scientists who collectively inquire into the nature of relationships between medicine and poetry Importantly these can be both productive and unproductive How for example do poet doctors reconcile the outwardly antithetical approaches of bio scientific medicine and poetry in their daily work where typically the former draws on technical language and associated thinking and the latter on metaphors How does non narrative lyrical poetry engage with narrative based medicine How do poets writing about medicine identify as patients Central to the volume is the critical investigation of the consequences of varieties of medical pedagogy for clinical practice Presenting a vision of how poetic thinking might form a medical ontology this thought provoking book affords an essential resource for scholars and practitioners from across medicine health and social care medical education the medical and health humanities and literary studies

White Lives Bridget Byrne, 2006-04-18 This revealing book explores the processes of racialization class and gender and examines how these processes play out in the everyday lives of white women living in London with young children Bridget Byrne analyzes the flexibility of racialized discourse in everyday life whilst simultaneously arguing for a radical deconstruction of the notions of race these discourses create Byrne focuses on the experience of white mothers and their children as a key site in the reproduction of class race and gender subjectivities offering a compelling account of both the experience of motherhood and ideas of white identity Byrne's research is unique in its approach of exploring whiteness in the context of practices of mothering She adopts a broad perspective and her approach provides a suggestive framework for analyzing the racialization of everyday life The book's multi layered analysis shifts expertly from intimate acts to those which engage with local and national discourses in more public spaces Reconsidering white identities through white experiences of race White Lives encompasses many disciplines making valuable reading for those studying sociology anthropology race and ethnicity and cultural studies Winner of the BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize 2007

Hurt and Pain Susannah B. Mintz, 2013-12-05 Hurt and Pain Literature and the Suffering Body examines the strategies authors have used to portray bodies in pain drawing on a diverse range of literary texts from the seventeenth century to the present day Susannah B. Mintz provides readings of canonical writers including John Donne Emily Dickinson and Samuel Beckett alongside contemporary writers such as Ana Castillo and Margaret Edson focusing on how pain is shaped according to the conventions and also experiments of genre poetry memoir drama and fiction With insights from disability theory and recent studies of the language of pain Mintz delivers an important corrective to our most basic fears of physical suffering revealing through literature that pain can be a source of connection compassion artistry and knowledge Not only an important investigation of authors formal and rhetorical choices Hurt and Pain reveals how capturing pain in literature can become a fundamental component of crafting human experience

Adoption Matters Sally Anne Haslanger, Charlotte Witt, 2005 As a social and legal institution of family formation and as a personal experience of members of the adoption triad adoption provides a fresh

vantage point on an important set of philosophical and feminist issues The family is often thought to be the basic and natural form of social life for human beings adoption however highlights the powerful role that law and politics play in shaping families and our ideas about families As a result attention to the practices of adoption sheds light upon deeply held but often tacit assumptions about what is natural and what is social in human life from the Introduction The institution of adoption has come under increasing scrutiny in recent years as the adoption world has undergone seismic shifts the rise in international and transracial adoptions and the effects of global economics adoption by gays and lesbians increasing openness in the adoption process and changes in domestic welfare policy on adoption Adoption Matters adds to our understanding of reproduction parenting familial bonds personal identity self knowledge and contemporary social policy The contributors to Adoption Matters explore a range of related topics such as the manner in which interracial or international adoption affects the way we perceive the relationships among race ethnicity and culture and how class affects one's life prospects and choices In this distinctive collection of essays the authors illuminate adoption by bringing feminist theory to bear on it and they expand and enrich feminist theory by making it respond to their own personal experience as adoptive parents or as adoptees Joan Heifetz Hollinger Boalt Hall School of Law University of California Berkeley editor of Adoption Law and Practice and coeditor of Families by Law An Adoption Reader Adoption Matters courageously examines how adoption influences and challenges our society's understanding of the intersection of family and identity an intersection that is both deeply personal and highly political Abigail Garner author of Families Like Mine Children of Gay Parents Tell It Like It Is Michigan Literary Luminaries Anna Clark, 2015-05-04 Discover the novelists poets and others who are part of this Midwestern state's rich literary tradition From Ernest Hemingway's rural adventures to the gritty fiction of Joyce Carol Oates the landscape of the Third Coast has inspired generations of the nation's greatest storytellers Michigan Literary Luminaries shines a spotlight on this rich heritage of the Great Lakes State Discover how Saginaw greenhouses shaped the life of Pulitzer Prize winning writer Theodore Roethke Compare the common traits of Detroit crime writers like Elmore Leonard and Donald Goines Learn how Dudley Randall revolutionized American literature by doing for poets what Motown Records did for musicians and more With a mixture of history criticism and original reporting journalist Anna Clark takes us on a surprising literary tour

Gender, Race, and Nation Vanaja Dhruvarajan, Jill Vickers, 2002-01-01 Dhruvarajan and Vickers call into question feminism's presumed universality of gender analysis and bring to the foreground the voices of marginalized women in Western society and of women outside of the western world Home Girls, 40th Anniversary Edition Barbara Smith, 2023-10-13 Home Girls the pioneering anthology of Black feminist thought features writing by Black feminist and lesbian activists on topics both provocative and profound Since its initial publication in 1983 it has become an essential text on Black women's lives and contains work by many of feminism's foremost thinkers This edition features an updated list of contributor biographies and an all new preface that provides Barbara Smith the opportunity to look back on forty years of the struggle as well as the influence the work in this book has had on generations of feminists The preface from the previous Rutgers edition remains as well as all of the original pieces set in a fresh new package Contributors Tania Abdulahad Donna Allegra Barbara A Banks Becky Birtha Cenen Cheryl Clarke Michelle Cliff Michelle T Clinton Willi Willie M Coleman Toi Derricotte Alexis De Veaux Jewelle L Gomez Akasha Gloria Hull Patricia Spears Jones June Jordan Audre Lorde Raymina Y Mays Deidre McCalla Chirlane McCray Pat Parker Linda C Powell Bernice Johnson Reagon Spring Redd Gwendolyn Rogers Kate Rushin Ann Allen Shockley Barbara Smith Beverly Smith Shirley O Steele Luisah Teish Jameelah Waheed Alice Walker and Renita J Weems      Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Social Class Susan J. Ferguson, 2023-06-08 Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Fourth Edition is an anthology of readings that explores the ways these social statuses shape our experiences and impact our life chances in society today Organized around broad topics identity power and privilege social institutions etc rather than categories of difference race gender class sexuality to underscore the idea that social statuses often intersect with one another to produce inequalities and form the bases of our identities in society The text features readings by leading experts in the field and reflects the many approaches scholars and researchers use to understand issues of diversity power and privilege Included with this title LMS Cartridge Import this title s instructor resources into your school s learning management system LMS and save time Don t use an LMS You can still access all of the same online resources for this title via the password protected Instructor Resource Site      Rethinking Rachel Doležal and Transracial Theory Molly Littlewood McKibbin, 2021-11-23 Using real life examples this book asks readers to reflect on how we as an academic community think and talk about race and racial identity in twenty first century America One of these examples Rachel Dole al provides a springboard for an examination of the state of our discourse around changeable racial identity and the potential for transracialism An analysis of how we are theorizing transracial identity as opposed to an argument for against it this study detects some omissions and problems that are becoming evident as we establish transracial theory and suggests ways to further develop our thinking and avoid missteps Intended for academics and thinkers familiar with conversations about identity and or race Rethinking Rachel Dole al and Transracial Theory helps shape the theorization of transracialism in its formative stages      Visible Identities Linda Martín Alcoff, 2005-12-22 In the heated debates over identity politics few theorists have looked carefully at the conceptualizations of identity assumed by all sides Visible Identities fills this gap Drawing on both philosophical sources as well as theories and empirical studies in the social sciences Mart n Alcoff makes a strong case that identities are not like special interests nor are they doomed to oppositional politics nor do they inevitably lead to conformism essentialism or reductive approaches to judging others Identities are historical formations and their political implications are open to interpretation But identities such as race and gender also have a powerful visual and material aspect that eliminativists and social constructionists often underestimate Visible Identities offers a careful analysis of the political and philosophical worries about identity and argues that these worries are neither supported by the empirical data nor grounded in realistic understandings of what identities are Mart n Alcoff develops a more realistic characterization of identity in general through combining phenomenological approaches to embodiment with hermeneutic concepts of the interpretive horizon Besides addressing the general contours of social identity Mart n Alcoff develops an account of the material infrastructure of gendered identity compares and contrasts gender identities with racialized ones and explores the experiential aspects of racial subjectivity for both whites and non whites In several chapters she looks specifically at Latino identity as well including its relationship to concepts of race the specific forms of anti Latino racism and the politics of mestizo or hybrid identity
