Crowds, Community and Contagion in Contemporary

Britain Sarah Lowndes, 2022-09-30 Crowds Community and Contagion in Contemporary Britain presents the COVID 19 pandemic as an opportunity to re assess the neoliberal politics xenophobia and racism that have undermined community cohesion in the United Kingdom since 1979 and which have continued largely unchecked through the last four decades Guided by three interconnected ideas used throughout to scrutinise the meaning of culture as a way of life Welsh cultural theorist Raymond Williams structure of feeling Jamaican British sociologist Stuart Hall s conception of the conjuncture and Belgian political philosopher Chantal Mouffe s agonistic pluralism Sarah Lowndes finds that a renewed sense of mutual regard and collective responsibility are necessary to meet the unprecedented challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic She begins by reflecting on public gatherings in Britain from 1945 to 2019 moving on to analyse five key examples of public gatherings affected by the pandemic in 2020 onwards Chinese New Year the UEFA Champions League Final VE Day street parties Black Lives Matter demonstrations and the cancellation of Eid ul Adha celebrations A thorough examination of how ideas proliferate and spread through our society public sphere and collective consciousness this book will appeal to scholars and upper level students of cultural studies cultural history sociology and politics Equalising Opportunities, Minimising

Oppression Dylan Tomlinson, Winston Trew, 2005-06-29 Anti Racist Practice ARP Anti Discriminatory Practice ADP and Anti Oppressive Practice AOP form a trinity of concepts nested into one another which have evolved in welfare services over the last fifteen years They tend to have developed as forms of practice panaceas and as a result have been subject to both unrealistic expectations and at times to political ridicule This book clarifies the distinctions between three key concepts ARP ADP and AOP Critically and constructively analysing these three approaches to practice it reappraises their potential in the light of emerging equality issues in the health service With contributions from leading teachers and practitioners in the field Equalising Opportunities provides students and practitioners in health and social care with a clear overview of an area where there is much confusion and imperfect understanding Health and Society in Twentieth Century Britain Helen

Jones, 2014-01-14 Few things tell us more of a nation s general well being than the development of the life expectancy of its citizens the rising standards of health that they come to demand and how evenly that improvement is shared throughout society Helen Jones examines the record of twentieth century Britain in these respects She has much heartening progress to record yet stark inequalities remain Her book is thus both a review of and contribution to the current debates over gender class and ethnic inequalities in standards of health in Britain today A Companion to Criminal Justice, Mental Health and Risk Paul Taylor, Karen Corteen, Sharon Morley, 2014-10-22 Within the domains of criminal justice and mental health care critical debate concerning care versus control and therapy versus security is now commonplace Indeed the hybridisation of these areas is now a familiar theme This unique and topical text provides an array of expert analyses from key contributors in the field that explore the interface between criminal justice and mental health Using concise yet robust definitions of key terms and concepts it consolidates scholarly analysis of theory policy and practice Readers are provided with practical debates in addition to the theoretical and ideological concerns surrounding the risk assessment treatment control and risk management in a cross disciplinary context Included in this book is recommended further reading and an index of legislation making it an ideal resource for students at undergraduate and postgraduate level together with researchers and practitioners in the field
